Members of the Media

The 1999 Orange and Blue Book is intended as the primary information handbook for media members covering the University of Illinois football program. This book has been carefully designed to fulfill your needs in covering Fighting Illini football. If you find there is information not contained in this book that would be beneficial to your coverage of Illinois football, please let us know and we'll try to incorporate your suggestions into next season's guide.

The University of Illinois Athletic Public Relations Staff is ready to assist you in your coverage of Illini football. Feel free to call on myself or any member of the staff. Thanks for your coverage of Illinois sports and . . .

GO ILLINI!

PRESS BOX

ENTRANCE TO PRESS BOX: Enter the press box via the press elevator located midway at the base of the west side of Memorial Stadium (press box side of the field). The elevator will go to all levels of the press box. Credentials which are not mailed may be picked up at the "Press Will Call" window at the midpoint of the west side of the stadium, not at the press door. You must have a credential to enter the press door. No parking passes will be left at the "Press Will Call" window. The "Will Call" window opens two hours before kickoff. Persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.

WORKING PRESS DECK (LEVEL 1): This level is reserved for print media, non-originating radio and TV reporters and sports information personnel only. Several charge-a-call telephones are located on this level. If you have concerns about meeting tight deadlines, we strongly encourage you to order your own telephone (see "Telephones" section).

MEDIA SERVICES

PHOTO DECK (LEVEL 2): This deck offers a spacious area for all broadcast video photographers who are covering the game. This area also will be used for video-taping by each of the coaching staffs. Additionally, the photo deck includes booth space for home and visiting radio and TV networks. This level contains the food service area for the press box.

SPECIAL GUESTS (LEVEL 3): This level contains individual booths for visiting athletic directors, University of Illinois special guests, as well as separate booths for home and visiting coaching staffs.

NO SMOKING: Smoking is not permitted in Memorial Stadium.

SIDELINES

The University of Illinois follows NCAA and Big Ten rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and they must wear both a sideline credential and a photo armband at all times. Violators of the policy will be escorted from the stadium.

CREDENTIALS

PRESS BOX: All members of the media covering the game in a working capacity must secure appropriate credentials in advance from Dave Johnson, director of communications. Requests should be made at least two weeks before the date of the game. Requests for working space in the press box, sideline photo passes and parking passes must be made on your affiliation's letterhead stationery. In the event of heavy demand for credentials for a particular game, requests will be prioritized according to published circulation numbers. Be specific when requesting the type of credential needed. Spouses, dates, non-workers and children will not be permitted in the press box. Media agencies violating this policy will not be issued credentials for future games. The press box is open to the media four hours prior to kickoff.

SIDELINE CREDENTIALS: Photographers with game-day sideline credentials must enter through the press box entrance on the west side of Memorial Stadium. To secure an armband, photographers must go through the West Great Hall into the stadium, down the steps, onto the playing field, and proceed directly to the Photo Lounge located under the south stands. Your game credential alone will not gain admittance to the sidelines. You must have a game armband! Refreshments are available for photographers in the Photo Lounge before each game and at halftime.

ROAD-GAME CREDENTIALS: Media credential requests for Fighting Illini road games should be addressed to the sports information director of the host institution. Be specific when requesting the type of credential needed. Opponent SID telephone numbers are listed in the "Opponents" section of this media guide.

PARKING

Media parking is located in the Northwest Assembly Hall lot, just south of Memorial Stadium. Parking credentials should be requested at the same time game-day working credentials are requested. If time permits (at least five working days), both credentials will be mailed. Those who request parking passes the week of the game must pick them up by no later than 5 p.m. Friday at the UI Sports Information Office (1700 S. Fourth St., Champaign, IL).

HOTEL ROOMS

The Sports Information Office has a limited number of rooms reserved in the Champaign-Urbana area. Please contact SID administrative assistant Marsha Goldenstein at least one week in advance to reserve accommodations.

PREGAME AND POSTGAME SERVICES

Play-by-play, halftime and complete final statistics, quote sheets, and pregame and postgame notes are all regular services on game day.

Coach Ron Turner and selected UI players will be available approximately 10-15 minutes after the conclusion of the game and will be brought to the interview room (located on the ground floor of the football facility in the northeast corner of Memorial Stadium). A member of the UI SID staff will escort media members to the Illinois interview area and will leave the press box with approximately three minutes remaining in the game. You must enter Memorial Stadium through the alley between it and the IMPE Building for postgame interviews. Those interested in audio-taping grouped interviews should connect their recorders to the distribution amplifier provided. Output from the device is microphone level, terminated in 1/8" two-conductor plugs and jacks, or three-pin standard microphone male connectors.

The visiting SID will lead media down to the visitor's interview area, located in the northwest corner of the stadium.

TELEPHONES

Telephone lines in the press box must be ordered at least one week in advance of the game(s) for which they are needed. The orders should be addressed to Ameritech (800/321-8152 or 800/443-9370 fax), during regular business hours. No telephone lines or instruments are available through the UI Sports Information Office. Several charge-a-call phones are located on the Working Press Deck (level 1). In addition, a pay telephone is located on the second level of the press box. The Memorial Stadium address is 1402 South First Street.

COACH TURNER INTERVIEWS

The best time to interview Coach Ron Turner is each Monday at his weekly press luncheon at the Ray Eliot Varsity Room, located in the southwest corner of Memorial Stadium. The press luncheon begins at 11 a.m. and features Coach Turner and Illinois players. Media members are required to park across Kirby Avenue in the Northeast Lot of Assembly Hall. Cars parked in the Varsity Room lot will be ticketed and towed.

COACH/PLAYER INTERVIEWS DURING THE WEEK

Coach Turner, assistant coaches and players are available for media interviews in-person or via telephone Monday through Friday prior to the beginning of team meetings and after practice. Players are available for interviews prior to 2:15 p.m. during the week and immediately following practice. Please arrange interview requests in advance with the Sports Information Office to facilitate student-athlete's class schedules. We will make every effort to fulfill your request, however, the student-athlete's academic and athletic requirements will take priority.

MEDIA SERVICES

MEDIA PROCEDURE FOR INTERVIEWS WITH UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS COACHES, ATHLETES AND ADMINISTRATORS

To facilitate the schedules of Division of Intercollegiate Athletics' coaches and administrators and to expedite media requests, the University of Illinois Sports Information Office requires media personnel to arrange interview requests through the Sports Information staff. This interview procedure is designed to enhance the availability of DIA staff members to answer questions from the media at a time which best facilitates each individual's schedule.

In most situations, the most convenient opportunity for media interviews is following the team practice sessions. If this is not a convenient time for the media, return telephone calls from the athletes to the media will be arranged. The student-athletes' academic endeavors are of the utmost importance, and they will not be asked to miss classes for purposes of a media interview. In most situations, student-athletes are not available on the day of scheduled intercollegiate competition until after the event is completed.

Players have been instructed not to talk to media who haven't coordinated their requests through Sports Information. The team locker room and training room are off limits to media personnel.

BIG TEN'S "FAX-ON-DEMAND" SERVICE

The Big Ten Conference is once again offering the "Fax-on-Demand" service to all media members. This unique service allows media members 24-hour access to the latest Fighting Illini football media releases, updated statistics and final game boxes. Illini media releases will be available Sundays after 7 p.m. at document code 1210. Illinois will not be faxing its football releases to media personnel during the 1998 season. Like other Big Ten schools, Illinois will make all information available for media on the "Fax-on-Demand" system. For more information, call either the UI Sports Information Office at (217) 333-1391 or the Big Ten Conference Communications Department (847) 696-1010. Illinois' football "Fax-on-Demand" codes are as follows:

RON TURNER TV SHOW

This weekly 30-minute television program features game highlights and interviews with coaches, players and others involved in the Illinois football program. Viewers should consult their local listings for the days and times of the telecasts.

RON TURNER RADIO SHOW

The popular "Ron Turner Show" airs Monday nights from 6:05-7 p.m. on the 54-station Illini Sports Network. The live call-in show originates from campus locations each week, including fraternities, sororities, dormitories and campus buildings, allowing University of Illinois students the opportunity to meet Coach Turner and ask questions about the Illinois football program. The show is hosted by the play-by-play voice of Fighting Illini football, Jim Turpin.

WWW.FIGHTINGILLINI.COM

All Illinois media releases, statistics and Coach Turner audio comments are available on the official University of Illinois athletic web site, www.fightingillini.com. The web site also offers real live audio broadcasts of all Illinois football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, volleyball and coaches radio show broadcasts.

MEDIA SERVICES

BROADCAST SERVICE/ SATELLITE UPLINK

The University of Illinois offers a weekly football satellite feed, including game highlights and comments from Coach Ron Turner and selected players Mondays from 4:30-4:40 p.m. central beginning Sept. 6 running every week except November 14.

The UI Sports Information Office also provides television outlets with a videotape library, featuring Illinois football games dating to the early 1920's. Please call Dave Johnson at (217) 333-8221 to make your videotape request. One-day advance notice will be appreciated. Contact the UI Athletic Public Relations office for satellite coordinates.

ILLINI SPORTS NETWORK

ILLINI SPORTS NETWORK

The 55-station Illini Sports Network brings Illinois football to fans across the state and Midwest with the team of Jim Turpin and Jim Grabowski calling the action.

Turpin serves as the voice of the Illini Sports Network, providing play-by-play coverage of football and men's basketball and as the host of the statewide "Ron Turner Show" and "Lon Kruger Show" call-in programs every Monday night at 6:05 p.m.

A 1961 graduate of the University of Illinois, Turpin recently retired as the vice president and general manager of WDWS and WHMS radio in Champaign. He also serves as co-host of the popular Saturday Sportsline on WDWS/WHMS radio. Turpin is a past winner of the Illinois Broadcasters Association's Silver Dome Award, given to downstate Illinois' best play-by-play broadcaster.

Grabowski returns for his 21st season as a color analyst for Illini football games. The Big Ten's career rushing leader when he finished his career, the popular Grabo was a first-round draft choice of the NFL-champion Green Bay Packers and played six years of professional football with the Packers and Chicago Bears. Grabowski was a two-time consensus All-American and earned MVP honors as a sophomore in the 1964 Rose Bowl. In 1997, Grabowski became the fifth UI player to be inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame.

Grabowski was an Academic All-America selection and was inducted into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1993. In 1995, Grabowski earned the honor of being selected for membership in the College Football Hall of Fame.

The statewide Illini Sports Network is managed by the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics, including management, distribution, sales operations, affiliate relations and programming. Illini Sports Network programming includes Illinois football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball and baseball, along with the "Illini Today" series. The "Ron Turner Show" can be heard statewide on the Illini Sports Network every Monday beginning Aug. 31 at 6:05 p.m.

For information on the Illini Sports Network, contact Mike Koon at (217) 333-1391.

The Coaching Staff

THE COACHING STAFF

One of the nation's top young head coaches, Ron Turner enters his third season at Illinois rebuilding the Fighting Illini football program.

Last season, Illinois enjoyed the largest increase in victories (+3) among Big Ten schools and continues to look for improvement heading into the 1999 season. Although only 45 years old, Turner is a seasoned coaching veteran, spending 18 seasons in the collegiate ranks and four years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach of the NFL's Chicago Bears.

Under Turner's guidance, the Illinois program has begun a steady turnaround in all aspects of the football operation, including the creation of such innovative ideas such as the "Football Family Fun Fest," an off-season festival aimed at attracting families and children to Illinois football that draws more than 2,000 fans annually and the "Camp Rantoul" two-week training camp at the former Chanute Air Force Base in nearby Rantoul.

The Illini have also seen dramatic improvements in the overall well-being of the football student-athlete under Turner, ranging from an increased emphasis on strength and conditioning, nutrition, academic services, time management, and gambling and drug awareness programs all designed to create a positive atmosphere for Illinois football student-athletes.

Turner became the 21st head coach in Illinois football history on December 2,

Head Coach Ron Turner

1996. In four seasons working with the Chicago Bears prior to arriving in Champaign, Turner coordinated an offense that improved every season, breaking the club record for passing yards with 233 yards per game in 1995 and producing a 1,000-yard receiver and rusher in the same season.

The diversity of the Turner offense in Chicago produced success under four different quarterbacks in Jim Harbaugh (1993), Steve Walsh (1994), Kramer (1995) and Dave Krieg (1996). In 1994, the Bears led the NFC Central Division for much of the regular season and defeated division rival Minnesota, 35-18 in a first-round NFL playoff game.

Turner entered the professional ranks in 1993 after a long and successful college coaching career. In 1992, Turner was named head coach at San Jose State in San Jose, California. In just one season, Turner led a remarkable turnaround at SJSU, leading the Spartans to a 7-4 record and a second-place finish in the Big West Conference. Turner guided San Jose State to its best record in six years and directed a potent offense that churned out more than 400 yards per game while averaging 30 points per contest, good for 15th in the nation.

A proven offensive teacher and tenacious recruiter, Turner spent the previous 16 years as an assistant at the major college level. He earned the San Jose State post after coordinating the Stanford offense for three seasons under Dennis Green.

As a player, Turner was a second-team junior college All-American wide receiver at Diablo Valley Community College. The Martinez, California native was offered a scholarship to the University of Pacific and led the Tigers in receiving in 1975 and 1976, catching 40 passes for 666 yards (16.7 avg.) and three touchdowns. The following season, Turner began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater before becoming the receivers coach at the University of Arizona, a post he held for two seasons (1978-79).

After coaching the Arizona running backs in 1980, Turner joined Green at Northwestern University in 1981 where he spent two seasons as quarterback/receivers coach. At Northwestern, Turner helped turn the Wildcats offense into one of the most exciting in the Big Ten, tutoring NU quarterback Sandy Schwab to several school and Big Ten records. As an assistant at Northwestern, Turner also recruited and coached all-time NU punt and kickoff return leader Steve Tasker, who went on to a

Turner became the quarterbacks coach at the University of Pittsburgh in 1983, working with Panthers quarterback John Congemi for two seasons. He joined Head Coach Ted Tollner's staff at the University of Southern California in 1985 in a similar role but was elevated to offensive coordinator in 1986, coaching 1988 Heisman Trophy runner-up Rodney Peete.

In 1987, new head coach Larry Smith retained Turner on the USC staff as receivers coach as the Trojans romped to the Pacific-Ten Conference title. The following season, Turner moved to Texas A&M University as the quarterbacks coach before moving to Stanford University in 1989. Turner has been a part of seven bowl teams, including the 1988 USC Rose Bowl squad and the 1991 Stanford Aloha Bowl team.

Turner's older brother, Norv, recently completed his fifth season as the head coach of the Washington Redskins after serving as offensive coordinator for two Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys squads.

Turner and his wife, Wendy, are extremely active in the Champaign-Urbana community and reside in Champaign with their four children, sons Morgan and Cameron and daughters Cally and Madi. He is active in the national Multiple Sclerosis Foundation and has raised more than $100,000 with his fund-raiser, "Scoring Against M.S." in which Illinois fans pledge donations in the fight against M.S. for every point scored by the Fighting Illini.

"SCORING AGAINST M.S."

Illinois coach Ron Turner began a program last season that he hopes will eventually become the national fund-raising campaign in the fight against the deadly disease Multiple Sclerosis called "Scoring Against M.S." A long-time volunteer in the fight against M.S., Turner's plan is simple: Fans pledge money based on the number of points the Fighting Illini football team scores during the season.

In its inaugural season, the program was an enormous success, raising more than $30,000 and working closely with a multitude of local, regional and statewide corporate friends and sponsors.

Last fall, "Scoring Against M.S." began to move nationally as Rutgers and head coach Terry Shea offered the program to Scarlet Knight fans.

For more information and to get involved in "Scoring Against M.S.", call 1-800-423-5774. The pledge categories are Team Supporter ($.05-.99), Team Member ($1-4.99), Team Leader ($5-9.99) and MVP Member ($10 or more).

THE COACHING STAFF

QUOTING RON TURNER

On Recruiting

"With all of the resources available to us on this campus, the football tradition, the outstanding academic reputation and prestige of the University of Illinois, we feel we should be able to control the state of Illinois and that's something we're working hard to accomplish. There is no reason for the state's top players to go elsewhere.

With the tradition of Illinois football, the history of this institution and the academic prestige of the University of Illinois, we can recruit nationwide and have success."

On Living In Champaign-Urbana

"My family and I feel great about Champaign-Urbana. My wife loves it, my kids love it and it is everything we hoped it would be when we came here last year. We've been looking for a place and a situation to settle into and we think we've found it in Champaign-Urbana and the University of Illinois."

On Illinois' Offensive Philosophy

"We have a plan based on consistency. We try to find our players strengths and utilize those strengths and stay away from their weaknesses. Our offense is 'simplicity with diversity.' You have to be able to run the ball to be successful but you also have to be able to throw effectively. That's what diversity and balance is all about. It's not a conservative offense, I would characterize it as wide-open with a very aggressive, unpredictable style."

On Illinois' Defensive Philosophy

"This is a very aggressive, attacking multiple-front style of defense. This defense will give our players a chance to make plays, turn them loose and allow them to get after the ball."

On the State of Illinois

"We want the best players from the state of Illinois to stay home and attend the state university. We want the players from this state to be proud of this university and this football program and to have a desire to stay home and play for their state university."

On Memorial Stadium

"Memorial Stadium is one of college football's most storied stadiums. We're proud to play in the same stadium and on the same field as legends such as Red Grange and Dick Butkus."

On Beginning Year 3

"We're making progress, the student-athletes have made the commitment and understand the hard work it takes to win. We have nine returning starters on defense and we're ready to make a jump this year. Continuity is the key when you're trying to build a winning program and we feel good about our continuity. We've had two years to establish our attitude and philosophy with our players. They understand what is expected of them and they believe in what we're trying to accomplish. We talk to the team about spending the last two years trying to get up to the hump, now it's time to get over that hump. And that means winning football games, qualifying for bowl games and winning bowl games. That's the next step and that's what we're looking to do."

On the University of Illinois

"The University of Illinois is an outstanding academic institution with a tremendous athletic and football tradition. Other Illinois athletic teams are doing really well and this athletic department continues to improve. Our fans are very knowledgeable and supportive, they want to win and they're very loyal."

On Recruiting the state of Illinois

"It is our top priority to dominate the state of Illinois in recruiting. We make an effort to visit every high school in the state of Illinois every year. It is important for this coaching staff to build and maintain relationships with Illinois high school coaches and I think we're doing a tremendous job in state."

On the Coaching Staff

"We've been able to maintain continuity with our coaching staff as we enter the third year together. The staff is made up of loyal, hard-working and knowledgeable coaches. When I put this staff together, I wanted good people who are also good coaches. They care about the student-athletes, they like working together and they do a great job of representing the University of Illinois."

On the "ideal" Illinois player

"We want student-athletes who love to play the game of football, who are committed to the game and who have a burning desire to be successful. We're heading in that direction with the guys on this football team. The guys who weren't willing to make that commitment are no longer with us. In the recruiting process, those are the things we look for beyond football ability. We want student-athletes that are committed to being successful and working hard in the classroom, socially and on the football field. We want players who are champions in everything that they do."

THE COACHING STAFF

On Improving Strength, Conditioning and Nutrition

"We implemented a very disciplined, tough and functional strength and conditioning program with input from the entire staff under the direction of Pat Moorer. This year and in coming years we'll start to see the rewards for this hard work. We've increased our strength, explosiveness and lowered our percentage of body fat. We've worked hard during the past two years to restructuring the body types we have at Illinois. We've also completely changed our training table, color coding the food so the players know what they should eat and what they should avoid. We've tried to work hard in educating our players on the importance of proper nutrition, diet and getting enough rest and taking care of their bodies. It's more than running and lifting weights, it's learning to take care of the entire body. The athletes that take care of themselves, get enough rest and eat properly are the ones that will be successful in the classroom and on the field."

On Camp Rantoul

"We could not be happier with Rantoul. It gives us a chance to work together as a team, to bond and form team chemistry and to focus as a football team. The housing, practice field, dining and meeting room situation is very conducive to getting ready to go to battle in the season."

THE MILLS FAMILY FOUNDATION ENDOWMENT

In 1998, University of Illinois graduates Douglas and Linda Mills and their children, David and Rob, gave a gift which endows the salary of the Head Football Coach at the University of Illinois-Urbana-Champaign.

Douglas and Linda Mills were both born and raised in Galesburg, Illinois. At Galesburg High School, Doug was an all-state athlete in football and basketball star and was named to the All-American basketball team his senior year. Linda was a cheerleader and the Valedictorian of her graduating class in 1958.

Doug and Linda graduated from the University in 1962. While at the University, they had very distinguished careers. Doug earned six letters in basketball, baseball and football and was the 1962 UI Outstanding Athlete Award recipient. Doug graduated with a bachelor of science degree in Marketing. Doug was a two-time all-Big Ten pitcher from 1960-62, compiling an 18-1 record and leading the Illini to the 1962 Big Ten baseball title. Mills earned two letters in basketball as a guard for Harry Combes and one letter as the starting punter and backup fullback in football as a senior.

Linda graduated with a bachelor of science degree in biology, was a Bronze Tablet recipient and was recognized as the outstanding senior in education. In 1978, Linda received her MBA from Illinois. Following graduation, she began her career with IBM working first as a programmer and then as a systems engineer.

In April, 1971, Doug and Linda bought a controlling interest in the Busey First National Bank in Urbana. The Bank had a total assets of $40 million and Doug was named the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer. This was the first time in the 103-year history of the Bank that controlling interest was not held by a member of the Busey family. Today, Busey Bank has total assets of over $872 million.

Doug is Chairman of the Board of K&M, Inc., which is a real estate investment business. Doug and Linda are majority shareholders in Busey-Carter Travel. In 1990, they established the Busey-Mills Community Foundation to enhance the quality of life in the communities served by the Busey organization. The Busey-Mills Foundation funds several charitable and educational programs, including the Lee Eilbracht baseball scholarship, awarded annually to a member of the Fighting Illini baseball squad.

Doug has been involved as a member of the Advisory Committee for the College of Commerce and Business Administration, has spearheaded a number of projects for the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics and has served as a Foundation Member and President's Council member for the UI Foundation. He is also a past trustee of the First Presbyterian Church. In 1998, Doug served as honorary coach of the Orange squad in the annual spring football game.

Linda has supported, with her leadership and patronage, the Krannert Center for Performing Arts, and sponsored the Bagley Scholarship in the College of Education. She has also served on the board of directors for the UI's Friends of the Library. In 1994, she received the Athena Award from the Champaign County Chamber of Commerce, an award which recognizes the achievements of outstanding professional women. In 1995, she was honored as a Woman of Distinction by the Green Meadows Girl Scout Council in Urbana. Last year, she served as president of the Don Moyer Boys and Girls Club. She has also served as Chairman of the Board of the Champaign-Urbana Schools Foundation and as President of the Junior League. She is currently a trustee of the First Presbyterian Church.

Doug and Linda have two sons, David and Rob. David is a graduate of Indiana University and is employed by First Chicago NBD in Indianapolis. Rob is a 1995 graduate of the University of Colorado and resides in Colorado.

THE COACHING STAFF

Tim Kish

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers Coach

Tim Kish begins his third season as Illinois defensive coordinator, also working with linebackers. Under Kish's direction, the Illinois defense has improved steadily during the past two years, producing two-time All-Big Ten honorable mention linebacker Danny Clark. The Illinois defense also produced 16 turnovers and held Big Ten opponents Northwestern and Indiana under 20 points in Illini victories.

Kish, 44, served as outside linebackers coach at Northwestern from 1992-96, helping the Wildcats to two Big Ten Conference titles and consecutive bowl appearances in the Rose and Florida Citrus New Year's Day games.

Prior to coming to Northwestern, Kish spent eight years at Army coaching defensive ends and outside linebackers, helping the Cadets advance to three bowl games, including a 31-29 victory over Illinois in the 1985 Peach Bowl. Army played in the Peach, Cherry and Sun bowls during his tenure.

Kish was a three-year letterman as a defensive back and also lettered in basketball at Otterbein College, earning his B.S. in 1976. Kish spent two years at Mariemont High School in Cincinnati, Ohio before he earned his master's degree from Bowling Green in 1979, spending one season at BGSU as a graduate assistant coach.

Kish coached three seasons at Purdue under Jim Young working with defensive backs for two years and quarterbacks for one season. With the Boilermakers, Kish was a part of teams that played in the Peach, Liberty, and Astro-Bluebonnet bowls. He then spent two seasons at Ball State in 1982-83 as quarterbacks and defensive line coach. He was reunited with Young at Army in 1984. Kish has been a part of eight bowl teams.

Kish and his wife, Angela, have three children, daughters Megan and Emily and a son, Michael, and reside in Champaign.

Green finished second in the Big Ten with 11 passes broken up in 1989 and, despite missing the first seven games of his senior season with an injury, returned to help lead the Illini to a Big Ten Conference co-championship in 1990.

Green, a native of Lawrenceburg, Indiana, was drafted in the seventh round of the 1991 National Football League draft by the Miami Dolphins. Green played four seasons with the Dolphins (1991-94) and one year with the Buffalo Bills (1995). In Miami, Green played defensive back for two seasons, moving into the starting lineup in 1992. Following a knee injury, Green moved to safety for his last two seasons with the Dolphins, helping Miami reach the AFC playoffs three times. In 1995, Green moved to Buffalo and helped the Bills reach the playoffs. In five pro seasons, Green was a part of four playoff squads and played under legendary coaches Don Shula and Marv Levy.

After redshirting in 1986, Green moved into the starting lineup for Coach Mike White in 1987 at strong safety, making 55 tackles and picking off two passes. Under Coach John Mackovic in 1988, Green moved into the starting lineup at cornerback, racking up 65 tackles, including 47 solos with two interceptions, seven passes broken up and five touchdown saves. In 1989, Green earned second-team All-Big Ten honors with 56 tackles and 11 passes broken up and was part of a defensive back unit that led the Big Ten in pass defense and ranked second nationally.

In 1990, Green returned from injury in dramatic fashion, stripping the ball from former high school teammate Chris Dyer on the goal line to preserve an Illini victory at Indiana. Two years before, Green had stripped Hoosier QB Dave Schnell with less than two minutes to play, setting up another dramatic Illini victory over Indiana. Green earned his bachelor's degree in Speech Communication from Illinois in 1991.

After being drafted by the Dolphins, Green played four seasons in Miami and one in Buffalo before retiring after the 1996 AFC playoffs. In 1997, Green coached defensive backs at Eastern Illinois and moved to Kent State in a similar role last fall.

three years in a similar capacity at Missouri. Under Hiestand's guidance, the Illini offensive line opened holes for Robert Holcombe's record-setting 1997 season and helped lead the way for Rocky Harvey and Steve Havard to combine for nearly 1,200 yards and 11 rushing touchdowns last fall.

Hiestand, 40, had served as the offensive line coach at Missouri since 1994, helping the Tigers rank ninth in the nation in rushing at 250.7 yards per game in 1996. Three of Hiestand's offensive linemen earned All-Big 12 honors in 1996.

Hiestand came to Missouri after spending five years as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of Cincinnati.

Hiestand served as run game coordinator for the Bearcats in 1992 and offensive coordinator in 1993. Prior to his tenure at Cincinnati, Hiestand was offensive line coach at Toledo (1988), graduate assistant coach at Southern California (1987) and tight ends and assistant line coach at Penn (1986). Hiestand began his coaching career at his alma mater, East Stroudsburg University, after an injury ended his playing career.

Hiestand has been a part of league championship teams at East Stroudsburg, Penn (1986 Ivy League champions), USC (1987 Pacific-Ten champions) and Cincinnati. He was on the Trojan staff at the 1988 Rose Bowl.

THE COACHING STAFF

Robert Jackson Receivers Coach

Longtime Illinois prep and college coach Robert Jackson, who has spent the last two seasons as Director of Football Operations at Oregon State, begins his first season as receivers coach at the University of Illinois. Jackson has served on the Oregon State coaching staff since 1990, as receivers coach from 1990-96, assistant head coach and receivers coach in 1996-97 and Director of Football Operations for the past two seasons.

Jackson, 47, grew up in suburban Harvey and attended Thornton Township High School, playing several sports and serving as senior class president. Jackson was a four-year letterwinner at Northern Illinois in football and baseball, ranking among the nation's leading hitters as a junior and earning all-conference and all-NCAA tournament honors. He received his bachelor's degree in Education from Northern Illinois in 1974.

A highly successful prep coach at Thornwood High School from 1974-85, Jackson served as head football and baseball coach before moving to Northern Illinois as receivers coach from 1985-90. During his career at NIU, Jackson helped the Huskies rank among the nation's leading offensive teams, post a 9-2 record in 1989 and recruited and coached former NCAA record-holder QB Stacey Robinson.

Jackson moved to Oregon State in 1990, recruiting prep All-American standout Tim Alexander. During his nine years at Oregon State, Jackson served as academic coordinator for the football program and helped deliver a program that led the nation in graduation rates among football programs in 1994 (94.6 percent) and produced 25 Academic All-Pac 10 selections in 1994-95.

During his last two seasons in Corvallis, Jackson monitored the $4.6 million football budget, coordinated all support areas related to OSU football, assisted in the certification process for incoming student-athletes, managed building administration and scheduled all football trips and weekends.

Jackson and his wife, JoAnn, have two sons, Bobby, who is a two-year starting strong safety for the Illini and Marc, who will graduate from high school this spring and will begin his Illini career as a defensive back this fall.

Osia Lewis Defensive Ends Coach

Osia Lewis is in his third season as defensive ends coach at Illinois after spending the previous six seasons coaching linebackers and special teams at Oregon State. Lewis has blended veterans and youth in his first two seasons at Illinois, producing solid pass rushers such as returnees Rameel Connor, Jason Eberhart and Fred Wakefield. Last fall, senior Jeff Weisse broke NFL star Simeon Rice's school record with six tackles-for-loss against Middle Tennessee and the Illini averaged nearly nine tackles-for-loss per game for the entire season.

Lewis, 36, served as linebackers and special teams coach at OSU from 1991-96. He was as a graduate assistant in the Oregon State athletic department from 1987-88 before moving to Western Oregon State as an assistant football coach in 1989-90. He joined the Oregon State staff under Jerry Pettibone in January, 1991, coaching outside linebackers and special teams.

As a player, Lewis was an All-America linebacker and four-year letterman at Oregon State from 1982-85 before playing professional football in the Canadian and Arena Football Leagues from 1986-90. A long jumper and standout quarterback and punter at Tucson (Arizona) High School, Lewis played quarterback, safety, linebacker and wide receiver for the Beavers.

He was named the Most Inspirational Player at OSU in 1985, served as team captain and earned All-Pacific 10 and Associated Press honorable mention All-American honors in 1985.

Lewis holds Oregon State records for single-season defensive points, season fumble recoveries (4), career fumble recoveries (8) and tackles for loss in a game (4).

Lewis enjoyed stints with the Toronto Argonauts in the CFL and Chicago Bruisers and New York Firebirds in the Arena Football League. He earned all-Arena League honors in 1988 and played in the 1988 Arena Bowl.

Born in Anchorage, Alaska, Lewis earned his B.S. in social science education from Oregon State in 1986 and his master's degree in education from Oregon State in 1989. Lewis and his wife, Darlene, have two children, a son, Marvin, and a daughter, Kiana, and reside in Savoy.

Peter McCarty Defensive Tackles Coach

Peter McCarty is in his third season as defensive tackle coach at Illinois after serving as defensive ends and outside linebackers coach at Maryland for six years. McCarty helped develop Garrett Johnson into one of the Big Ten's most consistent tackles last fall and returns veterans such as Mike McGee and Karleton Thomas, along with UI Rookie of the Year Brandon Moore.

McCarty, 43, spent the last six years at Maryland, working with defensive ends and outside linebackers, in addition to working with long snappers. He also served as staff coordinator for academic support and as professional football liaison.

Prior to Maryland, McCarty coached for six years at Holy Cross, working with outside linebackers and long snappers. He spent nearly four years at American International College in Springfield, Mass. as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach.

McCarty was a four-year letterman at the University of Massachusetts from 1974-78 as an inside linebacker. He earned All-Yankee Conference, All-New England, and All-East honors and served as team co-captain at Massachusetts. Following his playing career, McCarty began his coaching career at Maine Central Institute from 1979-81, serving as defensive coordinator and working with inside/outside linebackers, offensive tackles, and tight ends. He served as a coaching intern, working with the secondary with the New England Patriots in 1991. McCarty began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Syracuse from 1981-83.

A 1978 graduate of Massachusetts, McCarty earned his bachelor's degree in education. He received a master's degree in physical education from Syracuse in 1985.

coaching the tight ends and special teams. Under McMahon, Illinois has ranked among the Big Ten and NCAA leaders in several special team categories over the last seven seasons, including kickoff and punt return average in 1996. Last fall, the Illini busted several long kickoff returns, including Steve Havard's 94-yard touchdown in the Illini victory over Indiana. McMahon also worked with freshman punter Steve Fitts, who averaged more than 41 yards per punt last year.

McMahon, 39, came to Illinois in 1992 from Nevada-Las Vegas, where he had spent two seasons coaching offensive tackles and tight ends. McMahon also spent time at Valdosta State, Southern Illinois, North Alabama, and Minnesota.

A native of nearby Rantoul, the home of the Illinois football training camp, McMahon earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Eastern Illinois in 1982 after playing three seasons as a free safety for the Panthers. As a player, McMahon was part of the 1978 NCAA Division II national championship EIU squad and 1980 NCAA runner-up.

Doug Green Director of Football Operations

Doug Green is in his third year as the Director of Football Operations after serving as assistant director of public relations for the Chicago Bears from 1989-96.

Green coordinates the day-to-day operations for the entire U of I football program, working closely with the staff and DIA administration in all aspects of planning for Illini football, including facilities, travel, recruiting and game management.

While working for the Chicago Bears organization, Green produced the team's media guide, game programs, newsletters and yearbook in addition to writing weekly press releases, game notes and feature articles for the game day program. He advanced the road games, confirming hotel accommodations, checking the stadium layout and arranging security for the team.

Green, 32, earned his bachelor of science degree in business administration from Washington University in St. Louis in 1989. He worked as a computer graphics designer with Price Waterhouse, as an assistant at Washington University for both the intramural and sports information offices and as an intern in the St. Louis baseball and football Cardinals public relations office prior to joining the Bears staff in 1989. In the summer of 1988, Green worked for The Sporting News handling minor league statistics and assisting with the creation of "The 1989 Baseball Register."

During his tenure with the Bears, Green also served as vice president and treasurer of the Jim Harbaugh Foundation in 1992-93, handling all accounting, personal appearances, summer camps, celebrity auction and product endorsements for the former Bears quarterback. He also organized a summer football camp for 800 underprivileged children and a celebrity auction which raised more than $ 55,000 for charity. During Green's last year in Chicago, he volunteered as a mentor for the Cook County Juvenile Court.

In addition to his responsibilities with the DIA, Green is enrolled in law school at the University of Illinois. He lives in Urbana.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

Jason Verduzco

Former Fighting Illini two-time All-Big Ten quarterback Jason Verduzco is in his third season as a defensive graduate assistant coach at Illinois after spending the last three years as an assistant coach at Hamilton College in Clinton, N.Y.

As a sophomore, Verduzco led the Illini to a share of the 1990 Big Ten championship, an 8-3 record and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl. In his career, Verduzco guided the Illini to 20 victories and three consecutive Bowl appearances (Hall of Fame, Sun, Holiday).

Verduzco completed 678-of-1,083 passes for 7,532 yards and 42 touchdowns in his Illinois career, including 16 touchdowns in 1990. In one of the most memorable moments in Illinois football history, Verduzco hit all five of his passes in leading the Illini 63 yards in the final 1:48 to upset eventual national champion Colorado, 23-22, in 1990.

Verduzco completed 226-of-355 of passes (64 percent) for 2,567 yards in 1990, including a 21-of-34, 329-yard performance against Purdue and a 32-of-51, 358-yard outing against Iowa.

In 1991, Verduzco hit 252-of-420 passes (60 percent) for 3,014 yards and 15 touchdowns, opening the season with a 352-yard, three-touchdown performance against East Carolina; a 431-yard performance at Missouri and a 16-for-22, 341-yard, three-touchdown showing in a 51-10 victory over nationally ranked Houston.

Verduzco was a two-time Illinois Most Valuable Player and earned ABC-TV Player of the Game honors five times during his UI career.

A 1993 Illinois agricultural mechanization graduate, Verduzco went on to play one season for the British Columbia Lions in the Canadian Football League. Verduzco coached quarterbacks, kickers and served as recruiting coordinator at Hamilton College for three years prior to returning to Illinois.

Dan O'Dell

Dan O'Dell begins his first season as a graduate assistant working with the Fighting Illini offense. Last season, O'Dell worked as a graduate assistant in football recruiting and operations. O'Dell earned his B.A. in psychology from San Jose State in May of '98 after concluding a four-year career as quarterback for the Spartans.

O'Dell, 23, is a native of Martinez, California and graduated from Alhambra High School in 1993, where he was a standout in football, basketball and baseball. O'Dell was a four-year letterwinner at San Jose State, starting the final six games of his senior season. He completed 87 of 180 passes (48 percent) for 1,130 yards and 13 touchdowns in nine games, including a 70-yard TD pass and also rushed for two touchdowns.

During his six weeks as the starting quarterback, O'Dell was named the Western Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Week twice, throwing five touchdown passes and running for one TD in a 55-48 overtime victory in the season finale against UNLV.

After starting the season 0-6, the Spartans were 4-2 with O'Dell as the starter, defeating UTEP, Air Force, Hawaii and UNLV. Following the season, O'Dell was voted offensive captain for the 1997 season by his teammates.

O'Dell is interested in pursuing a career in college coaching and is enrolled in graduate school in the College of Education working towards a master's degree. O'Dell is the nephew of head coach Ron Turner. He is single and resides in Urbana.

Rusty Bradley

Rusty Bradley begins his first season as a graduate assistant working with recruiting and operations with Fighting Illini football.

Bradley earned his B.S. in Mathematics from Georgetown (Ky.) College in 1997 after concluding a two-year career as a wide receiver for the Tigers.

Last fall, Bradley was a graduate assistant coach working the wide receivers at Tennessee Tech in Cookeville, Tennessee.

Bradley, 25, is a native of Birmingham, Alabama and graduated from Bearden High School in Knoxville, Tennessee where he was a football standout. Bradley walked on to the University of Tennessee football squad before transferring to Georgetown. During his career with the Tigers, Bradley was a two-year letterwinner at receiver in a run-and-shoot offense, was named team captain as a senior and earned the Shorty Price Award for leadership following his senior season.

Bradley would like to pursue a career in college coaching and is pursuing a master's degree at Illinois in the College of Education. His father, Mark, is the tight ends coach for national champion Tennessee under coach Phillip Fulmer. Bradley is single and resides in Champaign.

THE COACHING STAFF

Strength & Conditioning

It takes more to become a championship-caliber team than just showing up on the field for the first day of practice in August. To be the best, a year-long effort which begins in the weight room, is required. Jim Zielinski, who is in his first year as Illinois' strength and conditioning coach, is committed to seeing every individual on the team become stronger, faster and the best overall athlete he can be.

"I believe that strength training has a huge impact on the success of a football team," Zielinski says. "Our philosophy is this: We will not lose a game because we are too weak or out of shape."

Zielinski is a firm believer in individualizing a work out regimen for each player, because every person has individual needs and goals in his strength program.

"What makes our program unique is that every player has his own program," Zielinski said. "That program is designed to meet his needs. I want to see each player doing the things to improve and make himself the best athlete he

"We sit down with each and every player and pick out specific goals. That could be his body weight, a goal we want him to bench press or a goal we want him to squat," Zielinski added.

Zielinski also uses a hands-on approach to strength and conditioning training. He and his staff work individually with each player to ensure that the student-athlete is doing the exercises correctly.

"These players need assistance. It's got to be more than just handing him a card when he comes into the weight room," Zielinski said.

The process to mold championship athletes is not accomplished overnight. It continues year-round from preseason practices to offseason strength and conditioning workouts.

"After spring ball is finished a lot of teams begin to take it easy," Zielinski said. "We actually pick it up a notch. We lift harder and make good use of our time."

Leadership on a team is also found in the players who are committed to working out and are disciplined in their efforts, both on

Strength & Conditioning Coach Jim Zielinski

Veteran strength coach Jim Zielinski, who has spent the last four seasons as Director of Strength and Conditioning at Oregon State, returned to his home state as the head strength coach for the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of Illinois to begin his first season with the Fighting Illini football program.

Zielinski, a native of Rockford, Ill., graduated from Northern Illinois in 1986 where he was a defensive tackle under Coach Bill Mallory. He helped lead his squad to a win in the California Bowl in 1983.

A 10-year veteran of the business, Zielinski joins Turner's staff after stints at Oregon State University (1995-99), Northern Illinois University (1988-95) and Nebraska (1988). During his time at OSU, he was responsible for the program design, speed and strength development and all test and evaluation for the football program as well as the other 14 Division I sports.

From 1988-1995, Zielinski was the head strength and conditioning coordinator for the Northern Illinois Huskies 16-sport program. During his six and a half years at NIU, Zielinski implemented the program design and monitoring the athlete's daily progress.

Zielinski began his career as an assistant strength coach at the University of Nebraska in 1988.

Zielinski will move to Champaign with his wife Teresa, who is also an Illinois-native, and their three children, James Edward, Alexandra Marie and Zachary.

THE COACHING STAFF

the field, in games, in practice and in workouts, according to Zielinski.

"We are all working for the same goal on this team, to win a championship," Zielinski said. "That takes effort on everybody's part. I try and teach my guys that you have to be very intense in your efforts. It takes getting in the mind frame like you are coming into a game. You have to be ready to go, you can't come in energized one day and not the next."

Zielinski also emphasizes the mental preparation of strength training and how the mind prepares the players for the battle of the game.

"There comes a point when the body and mind get tired and you feel like you can't go any further. Players get to the point when they feel they have reached the limit and can't go any further," Zielinski said. "That's when I take the guys to the next level."

"When they get in the game and get tired, they can relate back to the offseason program and say, 'I've been at this point before and I know I can keep on going.'"

Another key in the strength program, especially down the stretch, is to prevent injuries. It is a long football season and the teams which have put in the time in the offseason program are the ones which rise above the rest in the final weeks of the season, according to Zielinski.

Speed is also a key on successful football teams.

"If you can't run, it's very tough to play. We're seeing players in the linebacker position that can run as fast as running backs and wide receivers. And we're seeing defensive linemen who can run as fast as linebackers," Zielinski said.

Zielinski has experience as a player and as a coach. He was a defensive tackle at the Northern Illinois University and has been a strength coach in the business for over 13 years at his alma mater, Nebraska and Oregon State.

"Everything I ask my players to do, I've done it," Mooror said. "I would never ask them to come in here and do something I haven't done or couldn't do."

With an emphasis on safety, diet and nutrition, Mooror is working to develop Illinois into one of the finest-conditioned teams in the country.

Assistant Strength Coach Mike Crawford

Mike Crawford begins his second year with the Fighting Illini as an assistant strength and conditioning coach, working under Pat Mooror.

Crawford, 29, comes to Illinois after spending two years as a graduate assistant at Illinois.

A native of Sacramento, California, Crawford earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Cal State-Sacramento in 1994. He then earned his master's degree in sport administration from the University of Illinois in May, 1998. As an undergraduate, Crawford was a football and track athlete for two seasons until an injury ended his athletic career. Crawford worked for three years in the Cal State-Sacramento strength department. For two years, Crawford was a high school teacher and coach at Casa Roble

High School in Orangevale, California.

Crawford worked as a graduate assistant in strength and conditioning at Illinois from 1996-98, working with 17 sport programs.

Crawford is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association and is a certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist.

Crawford and his wife, Polly reside in Urbana with their daughter Piper.

THE COACHING STAFF

Academic Services

The University of Illinois Division of Intercollegiate Athletics is in the pursuit of excellence both on the playing field and in the classroom. Student-athletes at the University of Illinois are being prepared for success after college through the work done by the academic support staff.

The PACE (Personal Achievement in Career and Education) program established by the DIA is designed to meet the total needs of the student athletes, including: the student's objectives as a scholar, the student's requirements as an athlete and the student's personal goals as an individual.

The PACE program covers all of the following aspects of a student-athlete's college experience: academic support, career planning, health and wellness and personal development. A point of emphasis in this program is study skills sessions which include note taking skills, time management, how to work with professors, how to write research papers and how to deal with test anxiety.

Senior quarterback Kirk Johnson takes advantage of the many computer labs available in both Memorial Stadium and the Irwin Academic Center.

"Our goal is to help all of the student-athletes balance their academics and athletics while working toward a degree from the University of Illinois," Deryk Gilmore, academic counselor for football, said. "We don't want to see student-athletes just staying eligible. We want them to graduate, get a job and be a good representative of their families and the University of Illinois."

The University of Illinois' commitment to excellence has shown in a 91 percent graduation rate for Illini football players since 1988, including a 100 percent graduation rate among the Classes of 1993 and 1995.

Among the elements stressed by the academic services department to ensure that student-athletes make progress toward a degree are counseling and tutorial services, a monitoring program and a computer laboratory.

Through PACE, a number of programs have been implemented to meet the student-athletes' individual needs. Some of the offerings include seminars which deal with alcohol use and abuse, drug education, sexual harassment, nutrition, player/agent relations and acquaintance rape.

The strong relationships built within the vast Illinois alumni networking system provide excellent employment opportunities for all student-athletes, whether it be for summer jobs, internships or, ultimately, in career placement after graduation. The Academic Services Office also sponsors a job fair, specifically for student-athletes, each spring.

The entire academic services staff numbers more than 30 people who are committed to the academic success of Illinois athletes. The group is consolidated in the new Irwin Academic Center, which opened last fall at the corner of Fourth and Armory Streets.

*Associate Athletic Director/
Director of Academics
Terry Cole*

Every student-athlete who comes to the University of Illinois is seen a path toward receiving a quality education, a degree and the necessary skills to be successful after college.

Terry Cole heads a staff that works daily to help the student-athletes achieve these goals. Terry is in his 10th year in charge of academic services and his sixth year as an associate athletic director. He is responsible for the planning, development and coordination of academic support programs and services for Illinois athletes in all 19 varsity sports. He has been a part of academic services since 1979 when he joined the staff as an academic counselor.

Academic Counselor Deryk Gilmore

Deryk Gilmore is in his fourth year as academic counselor for the Fighting Illini football team. He joined the academic services staff in June 1996 after serving two years as the DIA's assistant ticket manager.

Prior to assuming a position in the DIA, Gilmore worked at the Illini Union as its Travel Center manager.

He is a 1990 graduate of Penn State University, from where he received his B.S. in agriculture business. He was a two-year letterman for the Nittany Lion football team, playing on Penn State's 1986 national championship squad.

Gilmore graduated from the University of Illinois with an M.B.A. and an M.S. in sports management in 1997.

Before coming to Illinois, Gilmore was employed by the Center for Academic Computing at Penn State. He also worked as an advisor to incoming student athletes.

Gilmore and his wife, Camille, live in Champaign, with their son Dante. Camille works in the UI MBA program.

THE COACHING STAFF

Sports Medicine

When it comes to sports medicine, the University of Illinois has assembled one of the finest staffs in the country to keep Fighting Illini student-athletes healthy and on the playing field. The sports medicine staff's No. 1 goal is the prevention of injuries. In the unfortunate event of an injury, this staff works diligently to get the athlete back into playing condition.

The football athletic training staff is headed by Director of Sports Medicine Al Martindale, who is in his 20th year as a head trainer at the Division I level. He is in his 17th year at the University of Illinois.

The native of Postville, Iowa, spent six years at the University of Hawaii, including three as head trainer, before accepting the Illinois position.

He received his M.S. in physical education from Upper Iowa University in 1973. From UIU he went to Indiana State, where he earned a master's degree in 1974. His next stop was Moline (Ill.) High School, where he spent three years before taking the position in Hawaii.

Martindale's responsibilities include the prevention and treatment of injuries for athletes in all 19 of Illinois' varsity sports. He also supervises seven full-time assistants, two graduate assistants and more than two dozen student trainers.

Martindale and his wife, Lisa, have two children, Meghan and Marc, and live in Champaign.

Working directly with Martindale is associate athletic trainer Rod Cardinal, who is also a long-time member of the DIA staff. Cardinal, who is the head athletic trainer for the Fighting Illini men's basketball team, has been with the University of Illinois since 1973.

He received his undergraduate degree in health and physical education from Southwest Minnesota State College in 1971. Prior to his appointment at Illinois, Cardinal held a similar position at the U.S. Military Academy.

The football athletic training staff also includes graduate assistants and a staff of student trainers.

The sports medicine team would not be complete without the team physicians, who serve the medical needs of the student-athletes. Dr. Stephen Soboroff is the head team physician and Dr. Robert Gurtler is the team orthopedic surgeon.

Soboroff has served in this capacity for the University of Illinois since 1983. He directs the drug-education and drug-testing programs and provides consultations to the athletic training staff. He received his M.D. from the UI College of Medicine in Chicago in 1969 and is certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine. He serves on the faculty in the University's School of Medicine and the Department of Kinesiology.

Gurtler has been on the team's medical staff since 1983. He is responsible for treating orthopedic injuries to athletes in varsity sports. In addition to his duties with the U of I, Gurtler has a private practice at Carle Hospital, focusing primarily on sports-related injuries.

The sports medicine staff works out of a state-of-the-art training room in Memorial Stadium. This room features the latest in diagnostic and rehabilitative equipment, including four whirlpools; KinCom and Cybex isokinetic exercise and testing devices; ultrasound; and high-volt, interferential and microcurrent stimulation equipment.

THE COACHING STAFF

Andy Dixon Equipment Manager

Andy Dixon begins his 19th season as the equipment coordinator for the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics. Dixon, along with seven assistants in the equipment department, oversees ordering, issuing, repairing and conducting inventory on all equipment and apparel worn by Fighting Illini athletes.

A former national speedskating champion, Dixon was an all-state football player at Champaign Central High School under Coach Tommy Stewart.

Dixon went on to play running back for four years at the University of Wyoming, serving as captain of the 1975 Cowboy squad. Following graduation, he received a free agent tryout with the NFL's Dallas Cowboys.

After teaching and coaching for three years at Cheyenne (Wyo.) Central High School and one year in Las Vegas, Dixon returned to Champaign as assistant equipment manager in 1981. Dixon served as assistant equipment manager from 1981-85 before assuming his current position.

Dixon was honored as the District 5 Equipment Manager of the Year in 1998. He and his wife, Cheryl, have two daughters, Whitney and Andrea, and reside in Champaign.

Mark Herman Video Coordinator

Mark Herman begins his 10th season as the DIA's video coordinator this fall. He manages the Fighting Illini's state-of-the-art video center and is responsible for all practice and game video tape. Herman oversees the breakdown and analysis of opponent video tape for the coaching staff, and coordinates a staff consisting of graduate assistant Nick Kromer and three student assistants.

A member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association, Herman is the Big Ten Conference representative to that organization.

Herman came to the University in the fall of 1990 after completing his master's degree in speech communication at Eastern Illinois University. He received his bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from Iowa State University in 1985.

Upon graduation, Herman remained in Iowa and was a sports reporter and weekend sports anchor for KCAU-TV in Sioux City. A native of central Illinois, Herman returned to Champaign in 1986 as a news reporter for WICD-TV. He also worked at WAND-TV in Decatur before joining the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Herman, 35, and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Allison and Dana, and reside in St. Joseph.

THE FIGHTING ILLINI

FIGHTING ILLINI HEAD INTO FALL DRILLS LOOKING TO BUILD ON 1998

Illinois heads into fall practice in 1999 to build on the optimism generated by an impressive late season victory over Indiana and a three-game improvement in victories and four-place jump in the Big Ten Conference standings. The Fighting Illini snapped a 19-game losing streak with a 48-20 victory over Middle Tennessee, defeated Northwestern, 13-10 on the road and blasted Indiana, 31-16 in the home finale at Memorial Stadium.

As the Illini improved as a team last season, several players became household names around the Midwest, such as linebacker Danny Clark and the explosive backfield tandem of Steve Havard and true freshman Rocky Harvey.

Illinois heads into 1999 with 41 letterwinners returning from last season's 3-8 squad, including 16 starters. Returning on offense are two-year starters Marques Sullivan and Ray Redziniak on the line, quarterbacks Kirk Johnson and Kurt Kittner, fullback Elmer Hickman, Havard and Harvey at halfback, and tight ends Brian Hodges and Josh Whitman. Nine starters return on the Illini defense, led by Clark, defensive end Rameel Connor, linebackers Eric Guenther, Robert Franklin and Mike Young and four defensive backs.

The Illini kicking game is solid with returning senior place-kicker Neil Rackers and record-setting sophomore punter Steve Fitts.

The rookies will report to Memorial Stadium August 8 with the entire squad checking in at "Rantoul '99" August 11. The annual Fan Appreciation Day/Media Day will be held August 12 at 5 p.m. in Memorial Stadium with "Rantoul '99" scheduled to run from August 11-24 at the Fanmarker Inn on the former Chanute Air Force Base in Rantoul.

Here is a position-by-position breakdown of the Illini heading into fall drills:

Offense

BACKFIELD (QB, HB, FB)

Quarterback: Senior Kirk Johnson and sophomore Kurt Kittner head into fall drills listed at No. 1 quarterback followed by redshirt frosh Walter Young. Kittner won the starting job early last fall, taking over midway through the Louisville game and making his first start vs. Iowa. The true freshman from Schaumburg started five games, hitting 72 of 162 passes (44.4%) for 782 yards and one touchdown with seven interceptions. Johnson entered the Purdue game in relief and engineered a late touchdown drive before starting the final three games of the season. Johnson hit 55 of 89 passes (61.8%) for 427 yards and two touchdowns. Both returnees engineered victories last season, Kittner hitting 13 of 20 passes for 124 yards and one TD in a 13-10 win at Northwestern and Johnson connecting on 21 of 28 passes for 165 yards and one TD in a 31-16 victory over Indiana, earning "Who's Hot" list accolades in Sports Illustrated. Young was impressive in the spring game, hitting 15 of 26 passes for 138 yards and one TD.

Halfback Rocky Harvey

Coach Turner on the Quarterbacks:

"The quarterback situation is not settled going into fall drills, but in a positive way because we have three quarterbacks we feel great about and that we can win with. Any one of the three can execute what we want to do and allow us to do more offensively than we've been able to do the last two years. Kirk is a fifth-year senior with great leadership and knowledge, Kurt and Walter have a great deal of physical ability and it's just a matter of how quickly they can pick things up mentally. Kurt is much more confident than he was last fall, he's much more accurate and is making better decisions."

Halfback: Junior Steve Havard and sophomore Rocky Harvey return as the dynamic duo in the backfield. Havard opened and closed the season as the starting halfback, gaining 564 yards on 124 carries (4.5 average) with five touchdowns. Harvey exploded onto the scene as a true freshman, earning recognition in Sports Illustrated as a "Top 10 Rookie" by leading the Illini with 634 yards rushing on 134 carries (4.7 average) and scoring six touchdowns. Harvey rushed for 215 yards and three touchdowns vs. Middle Tennessee and carried the ball 40 times and scored twice at Northwestern.

Havard gained 175 yards vs. Middle Tennessee, scoring twice and shook off a mid-season hamstring injury to gain 146 yards and score three times, one on a 94-yard kickoff return, in a victory over Indiana. Sophomore Jameel Cook (48-190-4.0 avg.) also battles for playing time, gaining 42 yards in his debut at Washington State and leading the Illini with 80 yards on 19 carries at Purdue. Havard and

THE FIGHTING ILLINI

Harvey both scored touchdowns in the spring game with Cook adding 78 yards on 12 carries.

Coach Turner on the halfbacks:

"It's the strongest position on the football team with quality and depth. If we were playing right now, we'd probably use three or four halfbacks and rotate them all in the lineup. With Steve Havard, Rocky Harvey, Jameel Cook and I'm anxious to see what Antoinio Harris can do, we have quality, size, speed, strength and they can all catch the ball pretty well. We'll use Rocky as a halfback, he has good vision and feel for running with the ball, but we'll also flex him out as a receiver, a flanker or catching passes as a halfback out of the backfield."

Fullback: Seniors Elmer Hickman and Chris Hoffman shared the fullback job last fall with Hickman moving ahead late in the season. Hickman gained 122 yards on 28 carries (4.0 avg.), also catching 19 passes for 158 yards (8.3 avg.). Hoffman, a converted linebacker and ferocious blocker, caught eight passes for 56 yards in a part-time role last fall and missed much of spring practice with injuries.

Coach Turner on the fullbacks:

"We have a good situation at fullback, Elmer had a good spring and Chris Hoffman, although he was injured early in the spring, came on at the end of spring drills. And, Ivery Lewis played very well this spring. We have quality and depth at fullback."

OFFENSIVE LINE

Guard: Two-year starter Redziniak returns at right guard and has made 18 starts in two seasons at Illinois. At left guard, Kulaga played in eight games last season, mostly on special teams and was the starter throughout spring drills.

Tackle: Two-year starter Sullivan returns, moving from right tackle to left tackle with senior Nicaastro, who played in eight games, battling with Pashos for the right tackle job.

Center: Butkus, who played in eight games on special teams and as a backup center last fall, won the job in spring drills with senior Brian Scott as an experienced backup.

Offensive Tackle Marques Sullivan

Coach Turner on the offensive line:

"This will be a very good offensive line and can become a dominating line. We just don't know if it will happen early in 1999. It is a very young and talented group and football is very important to them. They are committed to working hard and have that nastiness and toughness that you want in an offensive line. They're just very young in age and experience. This will be a dominating line, how quickly they come together will be one of the keys to our success offensively. Marques Sullivan moved from right tackle to left tackle and struggled early this spring. Marques needs to play more consistently, he has the tools to do it and needs to take his game to the next level. Ray Redziniak had a very good, consistent, steady spring and is our best offensive lineman. Luke Butkus had an excellent spring, he's tough and aggressive with good quickness. At right tackle and left guard, we're a little concerned because the players don't have a great deal of experience. We're going to be good, we just don't know how quickly we'll be good at those two positions."

RECEIVERS

Tight End: Sophomore Brian Hodges, a converted quarterback, started all 11 games at tight end last season, catching seven passes for 53 yards. Junior Josh Whitman has lettered in each of his first two seasons, catching 10 passes for 121 yards last fall. Junior Mike Craciunoiu has suffered knee injuries in each of the past two seasons, but returns healthy this fall, along with true freshman Kenny Boyle.

Coach Turner on the tight ends:

"Josh Whitman has been a starter for two years and had a good spring and Brian Hodges has a great deal of talent. He was originally a quarterback and moved to tight end last year and picked up a great deal of experience. Josh and Brian are really pushing each other in good competition. Mike has been injured the last two years, but has shown some skills as a blocker and receiver and we're excited about Kenny Boyle, who has a chance to be an impact player for us as a receiver."

Split End: A pair of walkons stole the show last spring, led by redshirt freshman Greg Lewis, who won the job and caught three passes for 54 yards in the spring game. Fellow redshirt freshman Aaron Moorehead will battle Lewis for playing time, catching a team-leading eight passes for 73 yards in the spring game.

Flanker: Senior Lenny Willis, who has led the Illini in receiving for the last two seasons, returns as the starter, battling with true freshmen Courtney Miller of St. Louis and Rantoul's Dwayne Smith. Willis caught 26 passes for 301 yards last fall.

Coach Turner on the receivers:

"We need much more production out of this group and we believe we'll get it. We now have players who will compete for the ball. Greg Lewis and Aaron Moorehead had very good springs and fight for the ball. Lenny Willis had a good spring and we're looking for production and consistency out of him this fall. Rocky Harvey will fit into the mix and we're going to have to count on true freshman, such as Eric McGoe, Courtney Miller and Dwayne Smith to provide production and give us a big play threat."

Defense

LINE

Tackles: Senior Mike McGee, junior Karleton Thomas and sophomore Brandon Moore are returning lettermen on the defensive interior. McGee made seven starts last season and finished with 29 tackles, including eight tackles-for-loss and four QB sacks. McGee shared time with Thomas, who moved from DE to DT last spring. Thomas made three starts and recorded 17 tackles with two tackles-for-loss. Moore came on strong as a true freshman last fall, playing in 10 games and making starts against Penn State and Indiana. In a limited role, Moore made 13 stops, including 11 solos. Senior Matt Carlton moved from offensive tackle to defensive tackle during spring drills and moved quickly up the depth chart. Two-year letterwinner Seth Tesdall played in all 11 games last fall, making seven tackles, recovering a fumble and recording two tackles-for-loss.

Coach Turner on the defensive tackles:

"We lose Garrett Johnson, but we have several players who can step in and do the job for us. Mike McGee had an outstanding spring, he dropped a little weight and gained some quickness, getting off the ball and blocks. He's going to have to continue this fall, playing with confidence and providing leadership for us. Brandon Moore played quite a bit last year as a true freshman and needs to continue to improve. Matt Carlton moved over to defense for the first time in his life and played better and better in every spring practice. He's a strong, 315-pound guy that can really help us as a run stopper inside. Seth Tesdall and Karleton Thomas will provide some quality depth for us."

Defensive End Rameel Connor

Ends: Senior Rameel Connor returned from a knee injury to start all 11 games last season with 35 tackles, 20 solos, 10 tackles-for-loss, two QB sacks and a team-high five QB hurries. Junior Jason Eberhart started nine games at defensive end last fall after moving from tackle, with 25 tackles, four tackles for loss and four QB hurries. Rangy 6-foot-7-inch junior Fred Wakefield missed the first three games battling a virus but returned to rack up 22 tackles, five tackles-for-loss and three sacks in eight games. Wakefield also blocked a kick on special teams and recovered a fumble. Sophomore Tim McGill returns after suffering a season-ending knee injury early last fall and the Illini welcome juco transfer Shaheed Richardson, a pass-rush specialist from Hutchinson J.C.

Coach Turner on the defensive ends:

"If we stay healthy, we'll be much improved at defensive end. Last year, we were counting on Rameel Connor and Fred Wakefield and they were both playing injured. Rameel and Fred both had good, productive springs, they rushed the passer and provided quickness and athletic ability on the outside. We have good depth with Jason Eberhart and Tim McGill as backups and the addition of Terrell Washington, a pass rush specialist."

LINEBACKERS

Outside: Two-time all-Big Ten honorable mention pick and 1998 team MVP Danny Clark returns at "Will" outside linebacker. The all-league and All-American candidate registered a team-leading 115 tackles, including 84 solos, last fall with 10 tackles-for-loss, two interceptions, a team-high seven passes broken up and a fumble strip and recovery at Washington State.

Joining Clark at outside linebacker for the third consecutive year is junior Mike Young, who piled up 49 tackles last fall as the starting "Sam" outside linebacker. Junior Eric Garrett, who spent his rookie season as the starting fullback blocking for Robert Holcombe, returned to linebacker last fall with seven tackles and two tackles-for-loss. Junior Mon Long earned his second varsity letter with 27 tackles in 10 games. Senior walkon Nolan Nawrocki enjoyed a solid spring, moving from defensive back to outside linebacker and will contend for playing time along with true freshman Jerry Schumacher.

Inside: Junior Robert Franklin stepped into the starting job in the fourth game last fall after Eric Guenther suffered a season-ending knee injury. Guenther, who was granted a medical redshirt after piling up 22 tackles in just two games last fall, returns alongside Franklin for his senior season. Franklin, seeing his first extensive playing time, finished second to Clark with 86 tackles, including 68 solos, four tackles-for-loss and five passes broken up. Senior Manuel Strong backed up Franklin, playing in seven games.

Coach Turner on the linebackers:

"The linebacker position is very similar to running back with quality and depth. Robert Franklin played last fall and had most of the reps this spring and gained more experience. Eric Guenther is an instinctive football player with a knack for making big plays. Danny Clark had a solid season and missed the contact part of spring ball. We're counting on him to continue to provide leadership and production. Mon Long is a tough, instinctive quick linebacker who has gotten bigger and Nolan Nawrocki also had a good spring. Michael Young played his best football since we've been here this spring. He was much more consistent in the spring. Eric Garrett is a quality backup and we're looking for Jerry Schumacher to make an impact as a true freshman."

SECONDARY

Defensive Back: The cornerback position is loaded with experience, led by senior Tony Francis. Francis started all 11 games, making 30 tackles, breaking up seven passes and making his first career interception.

Sophomore Anthony Hurd made 12 tackles, picked off a pass and broke up five aeriels in his first season and senior Johnny Rogers recovered a fumble on special teams to set up the game-clinching TD at Northwestern. Rogers, a junior college transfer, also made 14 tackles in 11 games.

Junior college transfer Johnnie Harris, who went through fall training camp before returning to Mesa C.C., is back at cornerback, along with juco transfer Trayvon Waller and freshman Brandon Lloyd.

Coach Turner on the cornerbacks:

"We have experience with Tony Francis, Johnny Rogers and Anthony Hurd. We also have new players coming in with Eugene Wilson, Brandon Lloyd and Trayvon Waller that can be impact players. We have depth with players who have experience. Asim Pleas, who will be splitting his time between safety and corner, also gives us talent and depth."

Linebacker Mike Young

Safety: Two-year starter Bobby Jackson was injured in spring drills and senior Asim Pleas has moved back to strong safety after playing cornerback for the last two seasons. Pleas, a three-year starter, led the Illini with three interceptions last fall, returning one pick 89 yards for a score vs. Middle Tennessee. Pleas had 60 tackles and broke up six passes. At free safety, true frosh Muhammad Abdullah stepped in for injured Mike Gusich last season, starting four consecutive games and making 26 tackles with a TD-saving interception at Northwestern. Carlos Lattimore, who played halfback and safety at Peoria Central H.S., moved to safety following spring drills along with Champaign Centennial grad Quincy Washington and sophomore Thomas Robinson, who earned a varsity letter last fall appearing in 10 games at cornerback and on special teams.

Coach Turner on the safeties:

"We're concerned about the inexperience of our safeties. Asim Pleas will move to safety and gives us the flexibility to use our best four secondary players on the field. We moved Carlos Lattimore to strong safety, he is a talented, instinctive football player. Muhammad Abdullah can play both safety positions. Thomas Robinson, Quincy Washington and Marc Jackson will have to step up without a great deal of experience."

SPECIALISTS

Kicker: Three-year starter senior Neil Rackers returns after hitting seven of 10 field goals and 14 of 16 extra points last season. Rackers, who made several off-season adjustments, hit a career-long 46-yarder in the season opener at Washington State and hit four of his last five field goals over the last five games. Rackers has hit 14 of 25 career field goals and 42 of 45 extra points.

Punter: Sophomore Steve Fitts enjoyed a solid freshman campaign, booting 77 punts for 3182 yards, a 41.3 yard average. Fitts kicked a 78-yarder vs. Wisconsin, earning Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Fitts placed 13 kicks inside the 20-yard line during the season.

Coach Turner on the specialists:

"Steve Fitts had an excellent rookie season and we look for him to become one of the nation's premier punters. He has that kind of ability. Neil Rackers had a good solid year and a good spring, we just didn't get to use him enough. He hit 70 % of his field goals and is working extremely hard in the offseason."

University of Illinois

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Since its founding in 1867, the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign has earned a reputation of international stature. Its distinguished faculty, outstanding resources, breadth of academic programs and research disciplines, and talented and diverse student body constitute an educational community ideally suited for teaching and research. Located in east central Illinois in the twin cities of Urbana and Champaign (population 110,000), the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign is the state's flagship public university.

STUDENTS

The University has a fundamental commitment to undergraduate education. More than 26,000 undergraduate students are enrolled in nine undergraduate divisions, which together offer some 4,000 courses in more than 150 fields of study.

The divisions are: the College of Agricultural, Consumer and Environmental Sciences; College of Applied Life Studies; College of Communications; College of Commerce and Business Administration; College of Education; College of Engineering; College of Fine and Applied Arts; College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and the Institute of Aviation.

Undergraduate admission is highly selective. In a recent freshman class, the average student was in the top 10 percent of his or her high school graduating class and scored in the top 10 percent of those taking the national college entrance examination.

Approximately 9,000 graduate and professional students are enrolled in more than 100 disciplines. Many of these programs rank in the top 10 in the country, making Illinois among the nation's top 20 universities that grant doctoral degrees, according to the National Research Council.

WORLD-CLASS FACULTY

Many faculty have been recognized for exceptional scholarship with memberships in the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the National Academy of Sciences, and the National Academy of Engineering; with the National Medal of Science; as National Science Foundation Young Investigators; and by such organizations as the National Endowment for the Humanities, Guggenheim Memorial Foundation, National Academy of Education, and the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation. At Illinois, research has a home in libraries, laboratories and classrooms,

COMPUTING

A leader in supercomputing applications, the University is home of NCSA (National Center for Supercomputing Applications) where Mosaic web browsing software was first developed. Since first released in 1993, Mosaic has spawned exponential growth in the use of the World Wide Web. NCSA staff have also been instrumental in promoting World Wide Web access at the White House and in the city of Chicago. There are

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

23,000 network connections on campus for students, faculty and staff.

RESEARCH

Students and scholars find the University an ideal place to conduct cross-disciplinary research. The most visible example of the University's commitment to such study is the Beckman Institute for Advanced Science and Technology, where research groups from nearly two dozen disciplines work within and across the following three main research themes: biological intelligence, human-computer intelligent interaction and molecular and electronic nanostructures. The special atmosphere at the Beckman Institute made possible the collaboration between two researchers that led to the invention of a technique to extend by a factor of 50 the life of silicon chips, a development that has caught the interest of the world's major chip manufacturers.

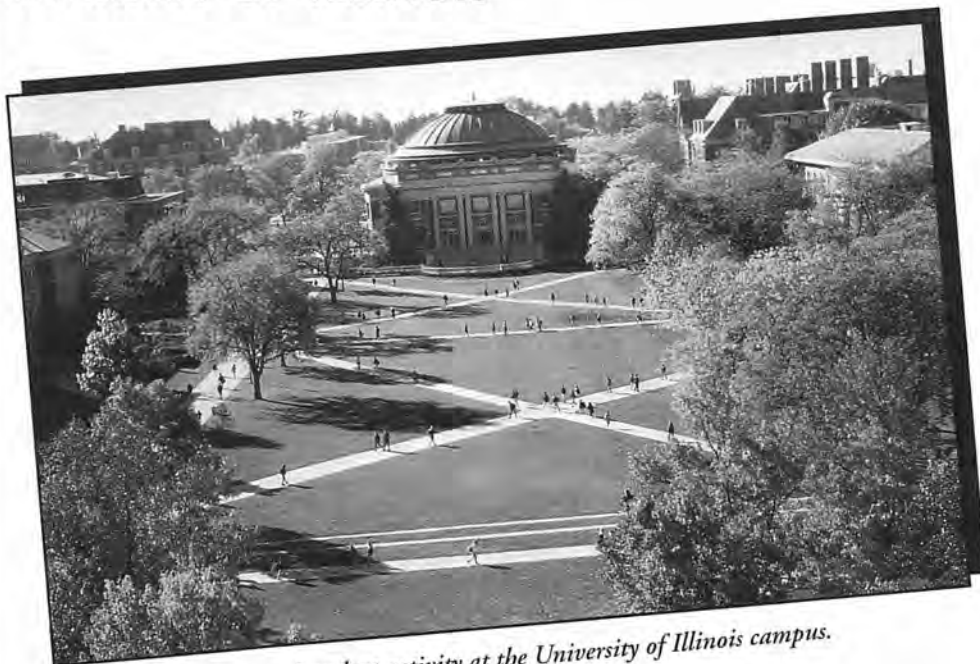

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

Academic resources on the campus are among the world's finest. The University Library is the third largest academic collection in the nation, housing more than 15.9 million items in the main library and in the more than 40 departmental libraries and units. Only Harvard and Yale have larger collections. The library's computerized cataloging system was the first in the world to serve as the primary access to a large academic library. Users have worldwide access to the collections through the Internet, with more than a million patrons logging on each week.

THE ARTS

A major center for the arts, the campus attracts dozens of nationally and internationally renowned artists each year to its widely acclaimed Krannert Center for the Performing Arts. Designed by alumnus Max Abramovitz, an architect of New York City's Lincoln Center, the facility has four indoor theaters and an outdoor amphitheater. Together, they host more than 300 performances each year. The University also supports three major museums: the Krannert Art Museum and Kincaid Pavilion, the World Heritage Museum and the Museum of Natural History.

Other major facilities include the multipurpose Assembly Hall (16,000 seats), which hosts concerts, convocations, theater and sporting events; Memorial Stadium, site of Big Ten Conference football games; and the Intramural-Physical Education Building.

The Quad is a center of student activity at the University of Illinois campus.

PARTNERSHIP ILLINOIS

Also integral to the University's mission is a commitment to partnerships with many sectors of Illinois business and industry. Each year more than 60,000 Illinois residents participate in scores of conferences, institutes, credit and non-credit courses and workshops presented on campus and statewide.

University-sponsored programs in both urban and rural areas of the state bring University faculty to the citizens of Illinois to share their expertise in food industries, health, K-12 education, technology transfer and economic development, to name a few. Cooperative Extension Service offices throughout Illinois serve nearly one million people annually.

The Illini Union, located at the north end of the Quad.

The Institute for Competitive Manufacturing has succeeded in solving business and manufacturing problems in hundreds of Illinois firms by matching student project teams with businesses in need.

OUR GRADUATES SUCCEED

Freshman retention and overall graduation rates are well above the national averages. Typically, approximately 90 percent of freshmen return for their sophomore year. The graduation rate for students who enter the university on a full-time basis is approximately 80 percent. The national average for four-year schools is approximately 50 percent. Each year, more than 400 graduates are accepted to law school. Medical school admissions are also impressive with more than 200 students admitted each year.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

CAMPUS LIFE

Learning and participating are important outside, as well as inside, the classroom. And at the University of Illinois, the opportunities are as limitless in extracurricular arenas as they are in the academic arenas.

HOUSING

First-rate residence halls with good food, the nation's largest fraternity and sorority system, independent housing and a wide range of apartments provide broad choices of where and how to live.

ACTIVITIES

More than 700 student organizations provide an outlet for every interest from the philanthropic of Volunteer Illini Projects to the rock music of student radio station WPGU. There are more than 40 student organizations for minority interests.

SPORTS & RECREATION

The Intramural-Physical Education Building is one of the largest complexes on any campus, with four gymnasiums, 23 handball/racquetball courts, weight and exercise equipment, indoor and outdoor pools, tennis courts and more. The UI has one of the most comprehensive intramural sports programs in the nation. If the great outdoors is more to your liking, the university's 1,500-acre Allerton Park includes sculpture gardens, formal gardens and natural woodlands.

CULTURE AND ENTERTAINMENT

The domed Assembly Hall seats more than 16,000 for rock concerts, ice shows, circuses, Broadway musicals and, of course, Illinois basketball. Beautifully restored Foellinger Auditorium on the Quad seats 1,750 for concerts, films and speakers. And the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts holds four theaters for plays, dance and concerts for such famed names as the Chicago Symphony and Itzhak Perlman.

OFF CAMPUS

Champaign and Urbana, with a combined population of 110,000, offer shopping, restaurants, movie theaters, night spots and many other big-city amenities. Yet, they retain a Midwestern college-town atmosphere.

"King Dad" is an annual ceremony conducted on the field at halftime during "Dad's Day weekend," a tradition that started at Illinois in 1920. Every fall, UI students have the opportunity to nominate their fathers for the prestigious "King Dad" award and to present Dad with a crown and cape at halftime at Memorial Stadium.

Last fall, more than 3,000 University of Illinois students enjoyed a pre-game tailgate party sponsored by UI Dining Services, Illini Pride and the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics. The "Student Kickoff Tailgate" was held on the intramural athletic fields just south of Huff Hall, across the street from Memorial Stadium.

"Block I" is a student organization that has entertained fans at Memorial Stadium, the Rose Bowl and other venues since the 1940's. "Block I" is located on the 50-yard line in the heart of the Illinois student section on the East side of Memorial Stadium.

The "Marching Illini" is comprised of more than 300 University of Illinois students and kicks off every Saturday afternoon with a marching concert from the Harding Band Building, located adjacent to the UI Armory, to the west side of Memorial Stadium. The "Marching Illini" also performs a pre-game concert for Illinois fans on the west side of the Stadium and participates in the Illini Walk with members of the Illinois football team.

ADMINISTRATION

PRESIDENT JAMES J. STUKEL

James J. Stukel begins his fifth year as president of the University of Illinois. Since becoming the University's 15th chief executive officer, Stukel has taken his four-point plan to thousands of Illinois citizens, including alumni and friends of the University, through community visits and special events in Illinois and several states.

The first point of the Stukel plan is to strengthen the connections between the University and the people of Illinois, in a redefinition of the UI's traditional land-grant obligations. The second is to upgrade students' educational experience through smaller classes and best use of the educational technology. Third is to cut costs where possible, stress productivity and create a positive, business-like administration that reassures taxpayers, tuition-payers and private donors that their money is being used efficiently. And fourth is to maintain the highest quality in a niche filled by relatively few U.S. Universities – basic and applied research.

For four years before becoming president, Stukel served as chancellor and chief executive officer of the University of Illinois at Chicago, leading UIC into the first rank of research universities.

Stukel has been part of the University of Illinois family since enrolling in graduate school in 1962. He spent 23 years on the Urbana-Champaign campus as an administrator, engineering professor and researcher. He then moved to UIC, spending one year as vice chancellor for research and five years as executive vice chancellor and vice chancellor for academic affairs before assuming the chancellor position in Chicago.

Born March 30, 1937, Stukel earned his B.S. in mechanical engineering from Purdue University in 1959 and spent two years as a research engineer for the Virginia Pulp and Paper Co. In 1962, Stukel enrolled in graduate school at Illinois, earning his M.S. in mechanical engineering in 1963 and his Ph.D. in mechanical engineering in 1968.

He became assistant professor of environmental engineering and mechanical engineering at Illinois in 1968, associate professor in 1971 and full professor in 1975.

Stukel is a member of the Kellogg Commission on the Future of State and Land-Grant Institutions, as well as a member of the board and co-chair of the Council of Governmental Affairs at the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges. He also is on the executive committee of the Illinois Coalition and is a governing board member of the Illinois Council on Economic Education. In May 1997, he received an honorary doctor of engineering degree from Purdue University.

Stukel and his wife, the former M. Joan Helpling, have four children and three grandchildren.

CHANCELLOR MICHAEL AIKEN

When Michael Aiken joined the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1993, he brought with him more than 30 years of scholarly and administrative experience. Aiken is an internationally recognized sociologist who has specialized in the analysis of organizations and issues of community power and social change.

As the sixth chancellor of the campus, Aiken has emphasized undergraduate education as well as research and public service. Programs designed to ensure the success of new students include the Freshman Convocation ceremony, which welcomes new students to campus and shares with them the rich traditions of the university, and the Discovery program, which gives new students at Urbana-Champaign the opportunity to study with a senior faculty member in a classroom setting of 20 or fewer students.

Under Aiken's leadership, the Urbana-Champaign campus has launched Partnership Illinois, an effort to catalog, coordinate and promote outreach efforts of the Urbana campus. As a land-grant institution, the university makes a vital contribution to the quality of life on the people of Illinois by providing a wide variety of services in partnership with them. PI enhances the campus's ability to bring faculty expertise to bear on the educational, technological, economic, social and cultural challenges facing Illinois and the broader society.

These and other new programs were outlined in "A Framework for the Future," the strategic planning document completed in May 1995.

Before coming to Illinois, Aiken served as provost of the University of Pennsylvania, where he also had been a faculty member in the department of sociology, chairman of sociology and dean of the School of Arts and Sciences.

Aiken's career has included academic posts at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Columbia University, Washington University in St. Louis and two Belgian universities, the Katholieke Universiteit te Leuven and the Universit'e Catholique de Louvain.

Aiken graduated from the University of Mississippi in 1954 and earned his master's degree in 1955. He received a doctorate in sociology in 1964 from the University of Michigan.

An avid Fighting Illini fan, Chancellor Aiken attends sporting events on campus and follows Illinois athletic teams on the road as well.

Aiken is married to Catherine Comer, an internationally acclaimed orchestral conductor. They have one daughter, Caroline.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of the University of Illinois exercises final authority over the policies and governance of all three campuses of the University (Chicago, Springfield, Urbana-Champaign), within limits fixed by the Illinois Constitution and state law.

Legislation approved by the General Assembly, signed by the governor and tested in court has changed trustee selection. In 1996, the governor began appointing new trustees, as terms expired. Until the law changed, trustees had been elected by the people of Illinois in November general elections.

As before, there are nine trustees. Each serves for six years. Their terms are staggered, with three expiring every two years. All trustees serve without pay. The governor is also an ex officio member of the board, with a vote.

In addition, three students, one each from the campuses of Chicago, Springfield and Urbana-Champaign, serve single-year terms on the board.

Trustees elect their own chair annually, in January, from among the nine members. The 1999 chair is Jeffrey Gindorf.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

RON GUENTHER

In seven years as Director of Athletics at the University of Illinois, Ron Guenther has returned his alma mater to the national elite in competing for championships in 19 intercollegiate sports with outstanding coaches, staff and facilities. The MVP of the 1966 Illinois football squad, Guenther continues to move the Illini athletic program on a breakneck pace toward a position of competing at a championship level in all programs.

In the last three years, Guenther, 53, has overseen a series of dramatic changes that have local, regional and national media, alumni and fans marveling at Guenther's abilities to add sport programs in women's soccer and softball, recruit top-level coaches, plan for and build championship facilities with more than $ 50 million in capital donations and create a model program producing outstanding student-athletes. In the last three years, Guenther has established Illinois as a rising power among NCAA institutions by:

- * Beginning construction on $ 12.5 million state-of-the-art indoor football practice facility, to be completed during the next two years.

- * Overseeing the construction of the Richard T. Jbbsen Basketball Practice Facility for the Illini men's and women's cage programs.

- * Adding women's soccer under the direction of Head Coach Jill Ellis, the first UI athletic program added in two decades.

- * Meeting the needs of high school athletes in the state of Illinois by adding popular women's softball as the 19th varsity sport, beginning competition in the spring of 2000.

- * Hiring championship-level coaches such as football's Ron Turner, Lon Kruger in men's basketball and Theresa Greutz to lead the women's basketball program. Guenther also extended the contract of nationally-prominent wrestling coach Mark Johnson and brought in talented coaches such as volleyball's Don Hardin and soccer's Jill Ellis. In his seven years as director, Guenther has also landed nationally-recognized men's tennis coach Craig Tiley, who led the Illini to their first Big Ten title since 1946, swimming coach Jim Lutz, who had Illinois ranked among the nation's Top 25 this season, and women's gymnastics coach Lynn Brueckman.

- * Signing an exclusive $ 7.5 million agreement with Nike as one of only 13 Nike institutions in the United States.

- * Christening the $ 7.2 million Bielfeldt Athletic Administration Building.

- * Overseeing the construction and opening of the $ 2.1 million Irwin Academic Center, providing 600 student-athletes with a state-of-the-art, convenient academic center to reach their full potential as students.

Under Guenther's leadership, Illinois has steadily improved its performance on the field and in the classroom. In the last three years, Illinois has won back-to-back historic Big Ten titles in men's tennis, captured the 1998 Big Ten men's basketball and baseball championships and won the 1997 Big Ten women's basketball title, earning consecutive NCAA "Sweet 16" appearances. Off the field, Illinois student-athletes have continued to benefit from outstanding academic services programs, matching the overall campus grade point average and producing nearly 100 Academic All-Big Ten award winners annually in all sports.

Guenther has also spearheaded a revolution for funding for championship-level programs and facilities as the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics has opened necessary additional revenue streams totaling more than $ 3 million through working partnerships with corporate sponsors and management of the Illini Sports Radio Network.

"Guenther has the school on track to realize the expectations of unbridled athletic success, achieved the right way,"

— Chicago Sun Times, March 9, 1997

Guenther's aggressive plan to make the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics a valuable and enthusiastic partner in the overall education, research and service mission of the University has begun to pay dividends heading into the 21st century.

Now in his fourth decade with the University of Illinois, Guenther was the Most Valuable Player on the 1966 Illinois football squad under Head Coach Pete Elliott. Guenther was a second-team All-Big Ten selection at offensive guard, also earning first-team Academic All-Big Ten honors and recognition as the University's outstanding senior in physical education.

Guenther earned his bachelor of science degree in physical education from Illinois in 1967 and an M.S. in administration in 1968 before embarking on a successful career in coaching, athletic administration and business.

Guenther was named the 17th Director of Athletics in 1992 after serving for two years with the University of Illinois Foundation as Director of Major Gifts and for three years as a partner with The Barofsky Association, a Chicago-area investments and marketing firm.

From June of 1988 to March of 1989, Guenther served as Interim Director of Athletics for External Operations, administering the development program, public relations, promotions, tickets, merchandise and summer camps.

Guenther spent the previous three years within the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics as associate athletic director for development, coordinating the "Campaign for Excellence in Athletics." That campaign began the first major facelift of athletic facilities in nearly 60 years on campus and provided the impetus for the eventual construction of Illinois Field for baseball, the UI Outdoor Track and Field Stadium, the Atkins Tennis Center and the Irwin Football Complex, housing coaches offices, locker rooms, sports medicine, strength and conditioning facilities and meeting rooms for Illinois football.

One of the nation's top athletic fund raisers, Guenther has been instrumental in soliciting gift commitments totaling more than $ 50 million toward capital improvements at Illinois during the last 15 years.

Firmly committed to delivering the Illinois message across the state and Midwest, Guenther served from 1983 to 1985 as assistant athletic director for Chicago operations, renewing a commitment that continues today to reach out to the thousands of Chicago-area alumni, donors and fans. During his tenure in Chicago, Guenther created the annual statewide caravan for promotion and public relations and saw a tripling in the number of donors to Illinois athletics.

Guenther spent eight years at North Central College in Naperville, Ill., including a stint from 1975-79 as director of admissions and also as an associate head football coach. From 1979-83, he served as the vice president of development and public affairs at North Central, helping to design and implement a $ 15 million Capital Campaign. As associate head football coach, Guenther helped the Cardinals amass a 23-12-2 record, including the school's first winning season in 15 years.

Before moving to North Central College, Guenther was offensive line coach at Boston College from 1971-74, helping to develop nine National Football League players.

From 1968-71, Guenther was a teacher and coached football, wrestling and track and field for the Evanston Township and Glenbard High School systems in suburban Chicago.

Born October 3, 1945, Guenther is a native of Evanston and a graduate of York High School. He lettered at Illinois in 1965 and 1966, helping Illinois to a 24-14-1 record in his four seasons. Guenther earned MVP honors on a squad that produced five All-Americans in 1966.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

DIVISION OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics (DIA) was chartered in 1892 as a not-for-profit corporation of the State of Illinois. It was charged with overseeing and conducting the University's intercollegiate athletic programs and associated support services, and operated as a separate entity.

After the state legislature voted in June 1989 to bring UI athletics within the University proper, the DIA assumed the functions and responsibilities of the Athletic Association. The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics began operations officially July 1, 1989, and now, more than a century after University of Illinois athletics began, the mission is still to achieve excellence both in the classroom and in sport competition.

The director of athletics is the division's chief executive officer, and reports directly to the chancellor of the Urbana-Champaign campus. The chancellor has final authority regarding the athletic program in all areas except for budget and major appointments. Those decisions rest with the University of Illinois Board of Trustees.

The Athletic Board serves the DIA in an advisory capacity. It is composed of 18 members, (nine faculty, five alumni, three students and one trustee); and the three non-voting (ex-officio) members from the University administration.

The faculty and student members are nominated by the Urbana-Champaign Senate and selected by the chancellor.

The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics does not receive state tax dollars and over the years has been able to fully fund the NCAA maximum allowable number of athletic scholarships for student-athletes in each of its sports programs, as well as to hire excellent coaches and maintain and upgrade its facilities, staying on par with the best major collegiate programs across the nation.

This has been accomplished through revenues derived from four major sources: gate receipts from football and men's basketball; television and radio rights fees for those two sports; corporate sponsorships and donations to the Fighting Illini Scholarship Fund. The FISF contributions provide the maximum allowable number of scholarships in the 19 men's and women's sports at an average annual cost of approximately $10,000 for in-state student-athletes and about $15,000 for those from outside Illinois.

FACILITIES

The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics utilizes and maintains 12 facilities for competition and the administration of 19 sports. The facilities include Memorial Stadium, Assembly Hall, Huff Hall, Illinois Field, the Outdoor Track and Field and Soccer Stadium, the Armory, Atkins Tennis Center, the Intramural and Physical Education Building, Kenney Gym, the University of Illinois Orange and Blue Golf Courses, the Bielfeldt Athletic Administration Building, the Ubben Basketball Practice Facility and the Irwin Academic Center.

Construction began in June on the $12.5 million indoor practice facility.

DIVISION OF INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Currently under construction is a $ 12.5 million indoor football practice facility, located just east of the current Ubben Football Complex and locker room. The football practice field will open directly onto the East Outdoor Practice Field and is scheduled for completion for spring practice in 2001.

In 1996, more than 100 members of the DIA staff moved into the Bielfeldt Athletic Administration Building, located on the east-west axis between the Atkins Tennis Center and the Assembly Hall. The facility houses DIA coaches, administration and staff, including the Fighting Illini Scholarship Fund, the Varsity "I" Association, accounting and personnel, athletic public relations and marketing and compliance.

A "Park of Tradition" commemorating the history of Fighting Illini athletics is planned adjacent to the Bielfeldt Building, along with the opening of the Illinois Hall of Fame. The Ubben Basketball Practice Facility opened last fall and features practice courts for men's and women's basketball, offices and meeting rooms, training and equipment facilities, strength and conditioning and locker rooms.

In 1992, the DIA completed an $ 18 million renovation project on Memorial Stadium, replacing the main and balcony stands on the east and west sides of the Stadium.

It has been a busy two decades for facility construction at Illinois as the Atkins Tennis Center opened in 1991, featuring six indoor and eight outdoor lighted courts, along with a pro shop and balcony viewing areas. The Atkins Tennis Center has hosted the Big Ten Championships, the NCAA Regionals and numerous professional tournaments and is also a resource for the entire Champaign-Urbana tennis community. Fighting Illini men's and women's tennis have risen to the top of the Big Ten Conference with the men's squad ranked second

Illinois Field, the home of the 1998 Big Ten champion Illini baseball squad, and the Outdoor Track Stadium have also seen construction upgrades, adding lights to both facilities and expanding the track stadium to accommodate Illinois women's soccer matches. The Outdoor Track and Soccer Stadium also includes future plans for seating for 8,000 and a permanent press box.

Two years ago, the Irwin Academic Center opened on campus, providing UI student-athletes with state-of-the-art computer study areas, quiet rooms, conference rooms, career planning and placement and other academic programs all under one roof. The Irwin Academic Center is utilized by nearly 600 student-athletes on an annual basis.

The Illini men's and women's basketball squads compete in the Assembly Hall, billed for many years as college basketball's finest arena. During the past two years, the Assembly Hall has undergone more than $ 11 million in facility upgrades, including new locker rooms, training rooms, meeting and dining areas, storage and other improvements designed to showcase Illinois basketball.

Huff Hall, the home for Illinois men's basketball and the famed IHSA "March Madness" state basketball tournament from 1925-63, has undergone nearly $ 1 million in construction since 1990 and is the home for Illini volleyball, wrestling and gymnastics.

Future construction plans include a new playing surface at Memorial Stadium and renovations and expansion of the Irwin Football Complex, a multi-purpose indoor sport facility adjacent to the Bielfeldt Athletic Administration Building and the construction of a softball stadium to accommodate the new Illini athletic sport program.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

MEMORIAL STADIUM

Memorial Stadium was built in 1923 as a memorial to Illinois men and women who gave their lives for their country during World War I. Their names appear on 200 columns that support the east and west sides of the stadium.

Donations of approximately $1.7 million by more than 200,000 students, alumni and other friends of the University made the construction possible. The Athletic Association (now known as the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics) later allocated $509,805 to the project for the construction of the south stands and other stadium additions.

The stadium opened Nov. 3, 1923, when Illinois defeated Chicago, 7-0, in a Homecoming victory. The stadium was dedicated officially Oct. 18, 1924, a day that Illinois not only defeated Michigan, 39-14, for a Homecoming victory, but Harold "Red" Grange accounted for six touchdowns in what remains as the single greatest performance in Memorial Stadium history. In the first 12 minutes of that game, Grange ran for a total of 265 yards and scored four times. He had his hands on the ball only six times and left the field before the end of the first quarter.

In the third quarter, Grange returned and ran 13 yards for his fifth touchdown, and in the final period he passed to Marion Leonard for his sixth score of the day. In 42 minutes of playing time, Grange gained a total of 402 yards, carried the ball 21 times and also completed six passes for 64 yards. Legendary coach Amos Alonzo Stagg called it "the most spectacular single-handed performance ever delivered in a major game."

The 1994 season represented the 70th anniversary of Memorial Stadium's dedication and the historic Illinois-Michigan game. To celebrate the event, Red Grange's wife, Mrs. Margaret Grange, attended the Fighting Illini's Oct. 22 game against Michigan. She helped dedicate The Grange Rock which sits at the north end of Zuppke Field as a tribute to her husband. The rock came from the same Indiana Stone quarry that produced the granite columns of the stadium.

Permanent seating capacity of Memorial Stadium is 70,904 including the bleachers at the north end of the playing field.

During the 1980s, Memorial Stadium saw 27 consecutive sell-outs. The single-game attendance record is 78,297 for a 1984 victory over Missouri.

Approximately 71 percent of Memorial Stadium seats are between the goal posts with 18,000 in each stand, 10,000 in each balcony and 12,246 in the south stand horseshoe.

Installation of the first artificial turf and a new lighting system was made possible through 1974 Golden Anniversary campaign drive. The lights have made games and practices, as well as intramural competition possible after sunset. Even though the field is lit only from the towers on the four corners of Memorial Stadium, the light intensity is easily sufficient for major network telecasts of night games.

Other stadium improvements include the 1967 installation of a press box, located at the top of the west balcony; construction of the Ray Eli Varsity Room, a training table and trophy display area at the southeast corner of the stadium that was built with funds donated by friends of the Athletic Association; a million-dollar stadium renovation project in 1972, which included the addition of aluminum seating and other improvements; and a 1977 renovation of the varsity locker rooms and training facilities.

Memorial Stadium was built as a memorial to the Illinois students who lost their lives in World War I.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

In April 1985, $7 million worth of improvements began. Out of this project came installation of new artificial turf and expansion of the football headquarters in the northeast corner of the stadium. The current artificial surface has the largest vertical drainage system of any synthetic surface in the United States and is the largest collegiate synthetic playing surface in the nation. The portion of it between the goal lines was replaced in the fall of 1989 after vandals turned a 40-yard swath in the middle of the field in the early-morning hours of Sept. 24. Employees from AstroTurf Industries began removing the destroyed pad and turf on the 26th, and worked around the clock to install a new surface in time for Illinois' scheduled Oct. 7 game against Ohio State.

Memorial Stadium's most recent renovations occurred between November 1991 and August 1992. The $18 million project included the replacement of all the concrete bleachers in both upper decks, as well as the replacement of the top 25 rows of the main stands. The stadium's electrical and drainage systems were also brought up to code and new restroom facilities, for both men and women, were installed in the corner towers and great halls. The project was financed through the issuance of revenue bonds by the UI Auxiliary Facilities System.

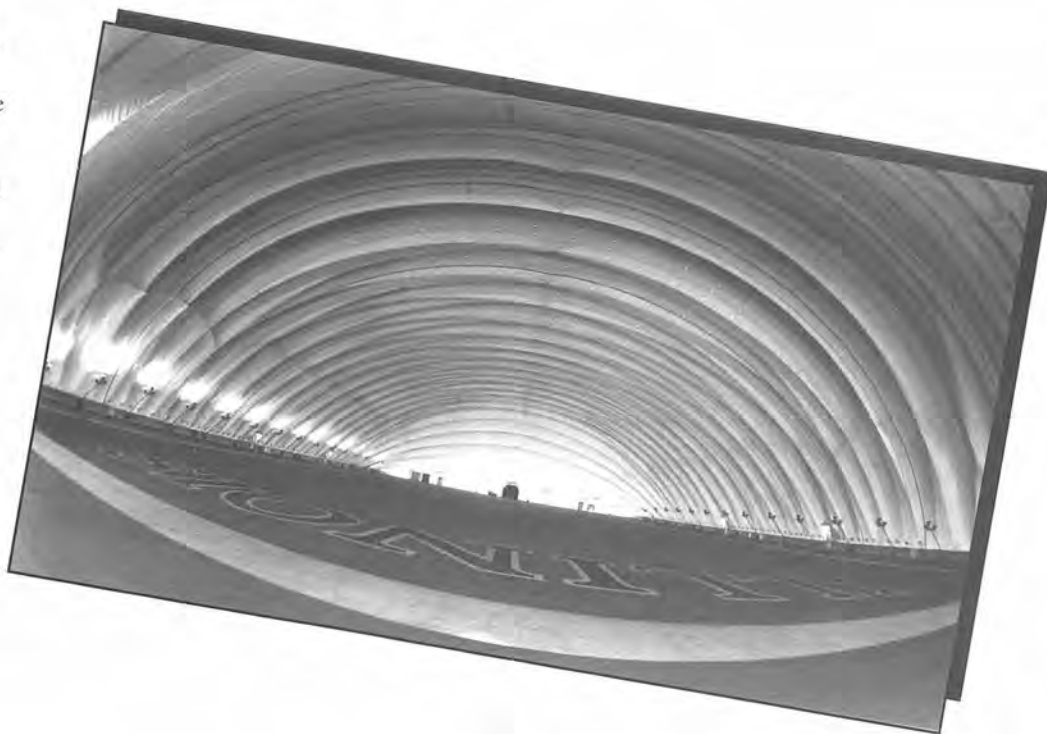

Before the start of the 1994 season, a new color matrix scoreboard was added to the north end of Zuppke Field. Measuring 23x34 feet, the large message board is capable of displaying color and animated messages.

The Memorial Stadium practice dome, more commonly known as "The Bubble," was inflated for the first time in December 1985, and the Fighting Illini's new locker room facilities opened before the 1986 season.

Illinois' record in Memorial Stadium is 208-172-14 coming into the 1999 season.

The Fighting Illini enjoy the friendly confines of Memorial Stadium (top) during the season, while the "Bubble" provides a climate-controlled practice facility for winter workouts.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

THE FIGHTING ILLINI MENTOR PROGRAM

A special opportunity for Fighting Illini football student-athletes exists through the TEAMmentor Program, administered by Academic Counselor Deryk Gilmore. TEAMmentor stands for Tutoring and Educating Athletes through Mentorship. The program was designed in 1996 to assist incoming freshmen and junior college student-athletes in making the adjustment to the academic life at the University of Illinois. Mentors are volunteers from the Champaign-Urbana community ranging from business leaders to retirees to housewives who volunteer three or more hours per week in working individually with student-athletes.

The TEAMmentor Program begins with each incoming student-athlete meeting with an individual mentor to organize and plan time schedules, enhance study skills and to work closely with UI guidance counselors. The TEAMmentor also assists student-athletes with career counseling, daily time management programming and provides a stable, family-oriented tie to the Champaign-Urbana community.

The TEAMmentor program is strictly voluntary and gives each student-athlete the opportunity to work directly with a community leader who is not affiliated with the University of Illinois or the Fighting Illini football program.

ILLINOIS FOOTBALL

"The Best of Both Worlds"

When it comes to the overall package of athletics and academics, the University of Illinois attracts student-athletes who excel at both. In 1998, the University of Illinois football program produced 10 student-athletes who earned Academic All-Big Ten honors.

Illinois football Academic All-Big Ten selections: Mike Gusich (Sr., 3.79, Finance), Josh Whitman (So., 3.97, Business), Tom Schau (Sr., 3.22, Speech Communication), Ivan Benson (Sr., 3.47, Advertising), Bryan Shepard (So., 3.58, Liberal Arts), Nolan Nawrocki (Jr., 3.29, Communications), Nick Piazza (So., 3.17, Business), Ryan Schau (Sr., 3.01, Speech Communication), Nathan Hodel (So., 3.05, Liberal Arts), Fred Wakefield (So., 3.22, Kinesiology).

Gusich, T. Schau, Benson and Wakefield also earned GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-American District V honors. During the 1990s, more than nine out of every 10 Illinois football student-athletes have earned their degrees. Coach Ron Turner and his staff are committed to every student-athlete receiving a quality education while also achieving the highest level of success on the football field.

ILLINOIS FOOTBALL ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- 30 Academic All-America selections
- 1 GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame inductee
- 5 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners
- 163 Academic All-Big Ten selections

ILLINOIS STUDENT-ATHLETES ACHIEVE ACADEMIC SUCCESS

 Nearly half (237 out of 476 scholarship athletes, that's 49.7%) of the University of Illinois student-athletes earned a 3.0 grade point average or better during the Fall, 1998 semester. These athletes represented all 18 varsity teams on campus. In addition, eight varsity teams boasted 13 (2.7%) athletes with perfect 4.0 grade point averages.

 Seventeen Illinois athletic teams boasted cumulative team grade point averages of 2.5 or higher. The most recent NCAA graduation information available indicates that the University of Illinois graduates the general student population at a rate of 74.2% while student-athletes graduate at a level of 72%.

 The cumulative GPA for all UI male student-athletes was a 2.89 compared to a 3.01 GPA for the University male student body. Female student-athletes performed at a 3.13 cumulative grade point average level for the fall, 1998 semester in comparison to a 3.12 GPA for the University female student body. According to the University Academic Policy Analysis team, student-athletes had a combined GPA of 3.01 compared to 3.06 for the general student body.

 Nearly 30 percent of the student-athletes use the Irwin Academic Services Center on a daily basis while a larger percentage of students use the facility on a regular, weekly basis. Both coaches and athletes hold this one of a kind facility in the highest regard.

Illini Begin Second Season at Camp Rantoul

Last fall, the University of Illinois football program moved its traditional two-week pre-season training camp to the former Chanute Air Force Base in Rantoul, Illinois. Head Coach Ron Turner's vision of an NFL-like training camp atmosphere fitted the "Rantoul '98" setting perfectly with the Fanmarker Hotel and Restaurant located directly across the street from practice fields, weight training facilities, locker room and sports medicine and just minutes from expansive meeting rooms in Virgil I. "Gus" Grissom Hall.

This year, the Fighting Illini return to the Fanmarker Inn for "Rantoul '99" from August 11-24 with the full squad reporting to Rantoul on Wednesday, August 11. The team is scheduled to complete a full day of testing and meetings on August 11 before beginning practice on August 12.

The annual Fan Appreciation Day/Media Day is scheduled for Thursday, August 12 at 5 p.m. at Memorial Stadium in Champaign before the team returns to Rantoul for double-session workouts lasting through August 24.

The "Rantoul '99" setting is perfect for student-athletes, coaches, fans and media with all facilities within easy reach. Student-athletes stay in the spacious Fanmarker Inn, eat training table meals at the Fanmarker Restaurant across the street and conduct practices, weight training and meetings all within a few minutes walk or drive.

Dozens of media descend upon Rantoul to cover the Fighting Illini during the two-week training camp and find first-class room, meal and entertainment accommodations and easy access to UI football student-athletes and coaches. The former Chanute Air Force Base is also home to the United States Hot Air Balloon Championship during training camp, making for a busy and entertaining two weeks in Rantoul. The Fanmarker is also within minutes of two outstanding golf courses.

"We could not be happier with Rantoul. It gives us a chance to work together as a team, to bond and form team chemistry and to focus as a football team. The housing, practice field, dining and meeting room situation is very conducive to getting ready to go to battle in the season."

- Head Coach Ron Turner

The spacious, air-conditioned Fanmarker Restaurant is a comfortable arena for team meals, complete with a full double-buffet, beverage service and wide-screen television.

Camp Rantoul provides the perfect environment for the Fighting Illini to come together as a team with limited distractions and the opportunity to develop team chemistry.

The Fighting Illini work out in double session drills on three newly-sodded grass practice fields located across the street from the team's official headquarters, the Fanmarker Inn.

Camp Rantoul provide three full 100-yard practice fields for Illinois football with locker room and training room facilities located adjacent to the field.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Rantoul: Home of Fighting Illini Training Camp

Team meeting rooms, complete with video screens and grease boards, are located in Virgil I. "Gus" Grissom Hall, named after one of the original Mercury and Apollo astronauts and located just minutes away on the former Chanute Air Force Base.

Three meals per day are provided at the UI Training Table in the Fanmarker Restaurant, located just 100 yards from the Fanmarker Inn, the official home of the Fighting Illini football squad.

A complete sports medicine and training facility is located in the lockerroom building, across the street from the practice fields and Fanmarker Inn.

The lockerroom accommodates all 105 UI players with personal cubicle space and plenty of room for preparing for practice sessions.

Rantoul is located 12 miles north of Champaign-Urbana with the Illinois Football Training Camp taking place at the former Chanute Air Force Base. The Rantoul community adopts the Illini football program during training camp, decorating businesses and hanging street signs to welcome the Illinois football squad.

A fully-equipped weight room, under the supervision of Strength Coach Jim Zielinski, is located under a large tent between the Fanmarker Inn and the practice fields.

In addition to a team room with a 300-person seating capacity, there are also offense and defense meeting rooms in Grissom Hall.

An overhead view of Camp Rantoul, depicting the team hotel, weight room, dining facilities, lockerroom, training room and practice fields.

Post-practice cool down tubs are located across the street from the practice fields and under a tent adjacent to the lockerroom.

Experience Fighting Illini Football

Top Left - U.S. Olympic gold medal skier Picabo Street performs the national anthem prior to the Illinois-Indiana game last fall. Street, who captured international fame battling back from a serious knee injury to win the Super G slalom at the 1998 Winter Olympics, is a friend of Head Coach Ron Turner and had asked to perform the anthem at an Illini home game after singing on the victory stand at the Olympic Games. Street also delivered a stirring lockerroom message to the team after the 31-16 victory.

Top Right - The "Illini Walk," a tradition started by Head Coach Ron Turner in 1997, is an opportunity for fans, alumni and students to interact with the Illinois football squad as the Illini move from the team charter busses to the locker-room along the north side of Memorial Stadium.

Middle - Chief Illiniwek, portrayed by University of Illinois senior John Madigan, performs at halftime of all Illinois home games.

Bottom Left - Illinois cornerback Tony Francis from Glenwood, offensive lineman Marques Sullivan from Oak Park and fullback Elmer Hickman from Alton take time to personally thank Fighting Illini Scholarship Fund donors for their contributions to the University of Illinois Division of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Bottom Right - A regular on national and regional television, the Fighting Illini made seven TV appearances last fall, including a national broadcast on espn2.

1998 IN REVIEW

1998 IN REVIEW

The 1998 Illinois football season saw the most dramatic W/L (+3) improvement in the Big Ten. The Fighting Illini finished 1998 with a 3-8 overall record including a 2-6 Big Ten mark and momentum to carry into 1999.

Illinois opened the season against the defending Pac-10 champion Washington State Cougars in Pullman, Wash. Washington State jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter before the Illini rallied behind a Steve Havard 11-yard touchdown run and Neil Rackers 46-yard field goal to cut the lead to 17-10 at halftime. The Illinois rally would fall short in a 20-13 loss.

The following week, Head Coach Ron Turner posted his first Illinois victory in a 48-20 win over Middle Tennessee State at Memorial Stadium. The win snapped the Illini's school-record 18-game losing streak. In the game, freshman Rocky Harvey burst upon the scene, rushing for 215 yards and three touchdowns. Late in the game, Asim Pleasant returned an interception 89 yards for a touchdown. The Illini rushed for 391 yards while the defense stifled ITSU, holding them to just six first downs and 9 yards of total offense.

Illinois concluded the non-conference portion of the schedule with a 35-9 loss to Louisville before 39,414 Memorial Stadium fans and an ESPN2 national audience. Chris Redman threw for 275 yards and LeRoy Collins rushed for 59 yards and three touchdowns for the Cardinal victory.

Illinois opened Big Ten play against Iowa in the third straight game at Memorial Stadium. Iowa jumped out to a 37-0 lead behind big plays including touchdowns on a 57-yard punt return and 51-yard reception by Kahlil Hill. The Illini would rally for two touchdowns late but it would not be enough. Freshman Kurt Kittner threw for 245 yards in his first start.

The next week, Illinois traveled to Evanston, Ill. to clash with intrastate rival Northwestern. The 13-10 victory marked the first Big Ten win for Head Coach Ron Turner. The win also broke the Illini's 15-game Big Ten losing streak.

Top-ranked Ohio

State rolled into Memorial Stadium the next Saturday. Buckeye quarterback Joe Germaine threw for 307 yards and three touchdowns in a 41-0 triumph before a crowd of 46,390 fans.

On homecoming the Illini hosted ninth-ranked Wisconsin as for the second straight week a top-ten opponent came to Champaign. The Badgers bruising running back Ron Dayne rushed for 190 yards and three touchdowns on 39 carries in a 37-3 win. Wisconsin dominated the time of possession by chewing up 37:47 of the game clock.

In week eight, the Illini lost at Purdue 42-9. Drew Brees threw for 261 yards and three touchdowns and J. Crabtree rushed for 105 yards to lead the powerful Boilermakers offense.

Illinois hit the road for the second straight week in a Halloween tilt with No. 10 Penn State in State College, Pa. The Nittany Lions 27-0 victory was highlighted by Kevin Thompson's 269 yards passing and 115 yards receiving by Chafie Fields.

The Illini returned home for senior day against Indiana. Big plays by junior Steve Havard paced the 31-16 Illinois rout. Havard rushed for 146 yards and two touchdowns including a 45-yard scamper. Havard took the second half opening kickoff back 94 yards to extend the lead to 28-13. The defense held from there to preserve the victory. Kirk Johnson completed 21 of 28 passes for 165 yards and one touchdown in the win.

A road trip to Michigan State concluded the 1998 season. The host Spartans piled up 445 yards and took advantage of five Illini turnovers in a 41-9 victory. With the loss, Illinois ended the season in a seventh-place tie in the Big Ten.

Following the season, the Illini were honored at the 80th annual Illinois Football Banquet, hosted by the Champaign Rotary Club, in the Illini Union ballroom on the campus of University of Illinois with more than 600 guests.

Junior linebacker Danny Clark was named Most Valuable Player after an outstanding season with 115 tackles, 10 tackles for loss and two interceptions.

Danny Clark earned team Most Valuable Player honors last season.

Kirk Johnson hit 21 of 28 passes in a 31-16 victory over Indiana.

Steve Havard returned a kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown in the win over Indiana.

WASHINGTON STATE 20, ILLINOIS 13

September 5, 1998 • Martin Stadium • Pullman, Wash. • Fox Sports

Illinois opened the 1998 season in 92-degree heat in Pullman, Wash. against the defending Pac-10 champion Washington State Cougars. The Cougars jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter on a 52-yard fumble return by Rob Meier and a 12-yard touchdown strike from quarterback Steve Birnbaum to Nian Taylor.

The Illini fought back in the second quarter turning a fumble recovery by Danny Clark into points on Steve Havard's 11-yard touchdown run five plays later. Illinois then cut WSU's lead to 14-10 behind Neil Rackers' career-long 46-yard field goal.

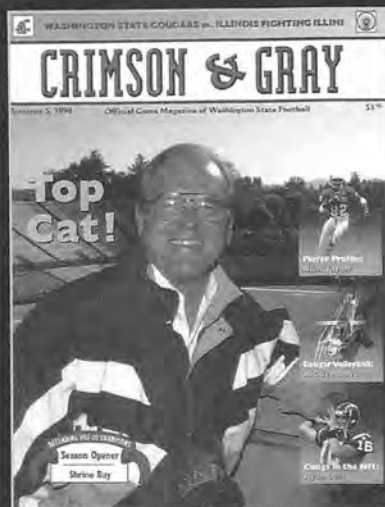

However, the Cougars extended their lead to seven when Rian Lindell hit a 52-yard field goal with 00:01 remaining in the first half. In the third quarter, WSU capped a 13-play, 80-yard scoring drive with a Rian Lindell 36-yard field goal with 36 seconds remaining in the third quarter to give the Cougars a 20-10 lead.

In the fourth quarter, Garrett Johnson recovered a Cougar fumble at the Illini 45 yard line with 8:05 remaining. Illinois then took advantage of the WSU miscue and cut the deficit to seven when Neil Rackers made a 36-yard field goal after an eight-play, 36-yard drive. From there, the Cougars controlled the ball for 5:12 before giving the Illini one last chance from their own 20 yard line. After Mark Hoekstra connected with Steve Havard for a first down, the Cougar pass defense stiffened and held the Illinois to four straight incompletions as the clock ran out.

Chris Redman completed 27 of 50 passes and threw for 275 yards while LeRoy Collins ran for 159 yards and three touchdowns as Louisville defeated Illinois 35-9. Illinois jumped on the board first when Neil Rackers' 43-yard field goal capped a seven-play, 32-yard scoring drive. On the next Illini drive, Rackers missed from 53 yards out before Louisville answered on the final play of the first quarter when Redman found Arnold Jackson in the end zone for a 26-yard scoring strike.

In the second quarter freshman quarterback Kurt Kittner saw his first extended action and completed a 22-yard pass to Michael Dean against the stingy Cardinal defense. Louisville added another tally late in the second quarter as Raphael Cooper scored on a one-yard run to complete a nine-play, 64-yard scoring drive.

Illinois cut the lead to 14-9 in the third when Kittner escaped from the pocket, dashed through the white-clad defense and scampered 61 yards for a touchdown. Louisville worn down the Illini defense with a strong rushing performance by LeRoy Collins. Collins rushed 11 times for 122 yards and three touchdowns in the fourth quarter. The Cardinals took a 22-9 lead on Collins one-yard run capping a marathon 17-play, 83-yard drive that consumed 7:39. From there Collins would score on runs of 40 and 63 yards to complete the scoring. Louisville piled up 179 yards on the ground and 275 through the air for 454 yards of total offense.

1998 GAME-BY-GAME RESULTS

ILLINOIS 13, NORTHWESTERN 10

October 3, 1998 • Ryan Field • Evanston, Ill. • ESPN-Regional

Illinois snapped a 15-game Big Ten losing streak and recaptured the Sweet Sioux Tomahawk Trophy for the first time since 1994 with a thrilling 13-10 victory over host Northwestern. Rocky Harvey was the workhorse for the Illini, carrying the ball 40 times for 132 yards, rushing for one touchdown and catching a TD pass.

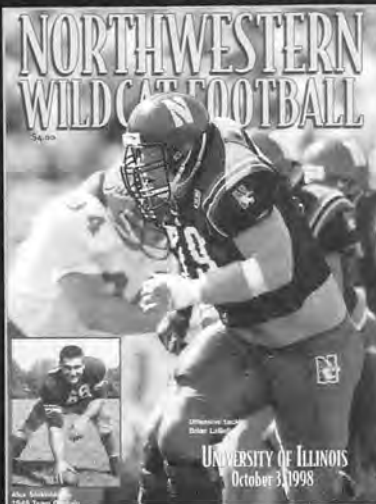

NU's Brian Gowins missed a 36-yard field goal attempt early in the first quarter and the teams traded interceptions during the period. Northwestern's Napoleon Harris stepped in front of a Kurt Kittner pass giving the Wildcats possession at the Illinois 26-yard line. After the Illini defense held NU to just four yards on the subsequent possession, the Wildcats drew first blood in the intrastate rivalry when Gowins redeemed himself by booting a 38-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. The score would remain 3-0 until late in the first half.

Illinois took possession at its own 21 and Kittner went to work and he and Lenny Willis teamed up to burn the Wildcat defense on three consecutive pass plays for eight, 37, and 26 yards giving the Illini a 1st-and-goal from the NU eight-yard line with 21 seconds remaining until halftime. On the ensuing play, Harvey dashed eight yards for a touchdown, giving Illinois a 7-3 lead at the break.

The third quarter was a scoreless defensive struggle. In the quarter, Rocky Harvey intercepted a pass at the goal line when Northwestern threw a deep jump-ball on a fake punt attempt from the Illini 38-yard line.

Midway through the fourth quarter, Northwestern's Gerald Conoway fumbled Steve Fitts' punt and Johnny Rogers pounced on the loose ball giving Illinois excellent field possession at the Wildcat 16. The turnover would prove costly for NU. From there, Rocky Harvey was the Illini scoring drive, not only setting up the drive by running four times but capping it with a six-yard touchdown reception of a Kittner pass to give the Illini a 13-3 lead.

Northwestern QB Gavin Hoffman engineered a nine-play, 98-yard touchdown drive with 2:55 remaining in the game to draw the Wildcats within 13-10. The Illini recovered the on-side kick and ran out the clock as Illini players and fans enjoyed a wild post-game celebration.

WISCONSIN 37, ILLINOIS 3

October 17, 1998 • Memorial Stadium • Champaign, Ill. • ESPN-Regional

For the second straight week, Illinois hosted a top 10 team. Ninth-ranked Wisconsin was the Homecoming opponent at Memorial Stadium in front of a national television audience. Ron Dayne ran for three touchdowns and 190 of the Badgers' 274 rushing yards as Wisconsin dominated the time of possession and defeated the Illini 37-3.

Wisconsin set the tone on their first possession, driving 53 yards on 15 plays and using up 6:16 on the clock. Kicker Matt Davenport was good from 46 yards out to give UW a 3-0 lead in the only scoring of the first quarter. The Badgers held the ball for nearly 13 minutes in the first quarter.

In the second period, Wisconsin took advantage of an Illinois turnover when Jamar Fletcher recovered a fumble by Larry Davis at the Illini 27-yard line. Four plays later, Dayne scored on an eight-yard run to put UW up 10-0. Late in the first half, the Illini put together an impressive drive, ending at the Badger 12-yard line with a Bobby Myers interception.

Wisconsin put together another long touchdown drive on their first possession of the second half. Ron Dayne capped a 56-yard, 10-play drive, with a 1-yard plunge to put UW ahead 17-0. Dayne would score his third touchdown six minutes later on a three-yard run. Late in the quarter, Wisconsin's Jamar Fletcher again was the recipient of an Illini turnover. Fletcher picked off a Kurt Kittner pass and dashed 22 yards for a touchdown giving Wisconsin a 30-0 lead.

Eddie Faulkner capped the scoring for Wisconsin with a five-yard TD run with 9:39 remaining in the fourth. Illinois would get on the board late when Neil Rackers booted a 38-yard field goal to cap a 12-play, 40-yard drive.

PENN STATE 27, ILLINOIS 0

October 31, 1998 • Beaver Stadium • State College, Pa. • ESPN-Regional

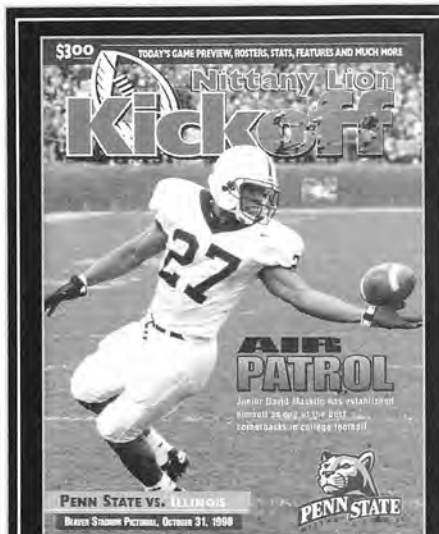

Illinois took to the road for the second consecutive week, visiting No. 10 Penn State. Kevin Thompson threw for 269 yards and a touchdown and Chafie Fields caught three passes for 115 yards to lead the Nittany Lions to a 27-0 victory.

Penn State put together an impressive drive on its opening possession. Aaron Harris' two-yard touchdown run capped the 15-play, 89-yard drive that took 7:08 off the clock.

At the beginning of the second quarter, the Nittany Lions extended their lead to 14-0 after an 80-yard drive when Eric McCoo ran in from two yards out. PSU would score one more touchdown before the half when Corey Jones caught a Kevin Thompson 10-yard TD strike that concluded a 78-yard drive.

The Illini defense held strong in the second half, but the Penn State defense was even better. Penn State could only muster two Travis Forney field goals in the third quarter to make it a 27-0 lead.

In the third quarter, Penn State linebacker LaVar Arrington made a highlight film play in stopping a fourth down attempt by the Illini. On 4th-and-1 from the PSU 31-yard line, Kirk Johnson handed off to fullback Elmer Hickman who was met in mid-air during the dive attempt by Arrington, a play that earned national recognition on ESPN "Plays of the Week."

1998 GAME-BY-GAME RESULTS

MICHIGAN STATE 41, ILLINOIS 9

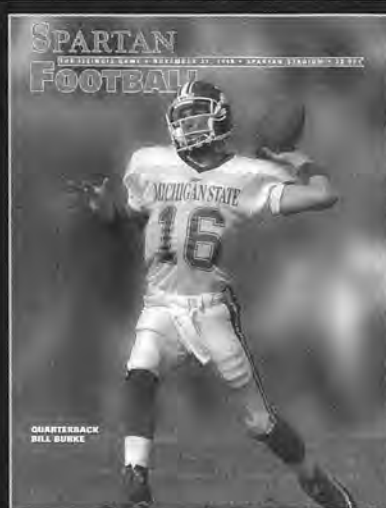

November 21, 1998 • Spartan Stadium • East Lansing, Mich.

Illinois concluded the 1998 season on the road against Michigan State, who needed a victory to keep alive hopes for a post-season bowl. The Spartans piled up 445 yards of offense and took advantage of five Illini turnovers to post a 41-9 victory.

Michigan State jumped on the board first when Sedrick Irvin ran 17 yards for the score at 8:19 of the first quarter. Illinois drew within 7-3 early in the second quarter on a long scoring drive. The Illini went 72 yards on 13 plays to set up a Neil Rackers 22-yard field goal. With 4:12 remaining until halftime, Spartan quarterback Bill Burke threw a 37-yard touchdown pass to Gari Scott giving MSU a 14-3 lead. Michigan State would get three more points before the break when Paul Edinger booted a 34-yard field goal on the final play of the first half.

Illinois drove to the MSU 37 yard line on their first possession of the second half but the drive was halted when Kirk Johnson was sacked and fumbled and the Spartans' Julian Peterson recovered. MSU took advantage of the Illini turnover as Sedrick Irvin would again score on a touchdown run, this time from 10 yards out. Michigan State forced another Illini turnover on the next possession as Renaldo Hill picked off Johnson's tipped pass. The Spartans wasted no time in extending their lead, as six plays later, Lloyd Clemons scored on a two-yard run, and later Edinger added a 41-yard field goal on the final play of the third quarter to give MSU a 34-3 lead.

Spartan linebacker Sean Banks intercepted a Kurt Kittner pass in the fourth, setting up MSU's final score of the day. Tight end Ivory McCoy caught a 5-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Van Dyke with 4:33 remaining in the game. Illinois would score late in the game when Rocky Harvey broke free for a 26-yard run at the 1:37 mark.

BIG TEN : PERFECT 5-0 IN 1999 BOWL GAMES

The nation's preeminent collegiate conference, the Big Ten begins its 105th season of intercollegiate competition this fall. Last year, the Big Ten showed the strength of the conference with a perfect 5-0 record in bowl games. Ohio State knocked off Texas A&M in the Sugar Bowl, 24-14 to finish the season ranked xxth, after holding the No. 1 spot for nine weeks. The Wisconsin Badgers manhandled the UCLA Bruins in the prestigious Rose Bowl, xx-xx. Purdue beat the highly favored Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl, while Penn State and Michigan took care of their SEC opponents in the Outback and Citrus bowl games, respectively.

BIG TEN : TELEVISION EXPOSURE

Big Ten football is viewed nationwide every Saturday through a long-term partnership between the conference and ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPN-Plus television. Every Saturday, ABC Sports, ESPN and espn2 present a nationally telecast Big Ten game, along with regional syndication on ESPN-Plus. This season, more than 25 games will be telecast nationally with more than 90 percent of all Big Ten football games televised live on a national or regional basis.

BIG TEN : THE NATION'S BEST POST- SEASON BOWL LINEUP

The Big Ten is a member of the College Football Bowl Alliance giving a league team ranked No. 1 or No. 2 nationally an automatic berth in the national championship game. The Big Ten sends teams to six post-season bowl games, in addition to the alliance, including the Rose Bowl, CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando (vs. SEC runner-up), Outback Bowl in Tampa Bay (vs. SEC third selection), Sylvania Alamo Bowl in San Antonio (vs. Big 12 fourth selection), Wells-Fargo Sun Bowl in El Paso (vs. Pac-10 third selection) and the Micron PC Bowl in Miami (vs. ACC No. 4 pick).

BIG TEN : THE NATIONAL LEADER IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL ATTENDANCE

The Big Ten Conference leads the nation in football attendance year after year, drawing more than four million fans annually. The Big Ten has led the nation in attendance for six consecutive seasons and 16 of the last 21 years as nearly half of all games are played before a sellout crowd. A Big Ten institution has led the nation in college football attendance every year since the NCAA began keeping the record in 1949. That's going on 50 years at No. 1!

BIG TEN : 1998-99 WAS ANOTHER GREAT YEAR!

The nation's premier athletic conference, the Big Ten dominated the Sear's Directors Cup standings, a reflection of overall performance among Division 1-A institutions with every school ranking among the nation's top 30. The Big Ten produced six national champions in women's basketball (Purdue), wrestling (Iowa), men's soccer (Indiana), men's gymnastics (Michigan), and men's and women's fencing (Penn State). Northwestern's Luke Donald won the men's golf national title. The conference landed two football teams in BCS bowls (Ohio State and Wisconsin) and two teams made a run to the Final Four (Michigan State and Ohio State), the only conference to accomplish both feats. Five of the 10 wrestling national titles were by Big Ten grapplers. The Big Ten led the nation in college football and basketball attendance, hosted the second annual men's basketball post-season tournament and led the nation in average attendance at the Big Ten Women's Basketball Tournament.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

A Brief History

On January 11, 1895, seven Midwest university presidents met at the Palmer House in Chicago under the leadership of Purdue's James H. Smart, establishing the principles for which the Intercollegiate Conference of Faculty Representatives, more popularly known as the Big Ten Conference, would be founded.

At that meeting, the presidents mapped out a blueprint for governance of intercollegiate athletics that still holds true as the Big Ten prepares for the next century, including "restricting eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies," eliminating professional athletes from college sports. Less than a year later, the faculty representatives from each of the seven schools met and officially established the "Intercollegiate Conference of Faculty Representatives" or "Western Conference" or "Big Ten Conference."

As early as 1906, the faculty representatives had approved eligibility requirements for incoming student-athletes and made freshmen and transfer students ineligible for one season, banned training tables and living quarters for athletes and charged institutions with hiring full-time coaches "at modest salaries."

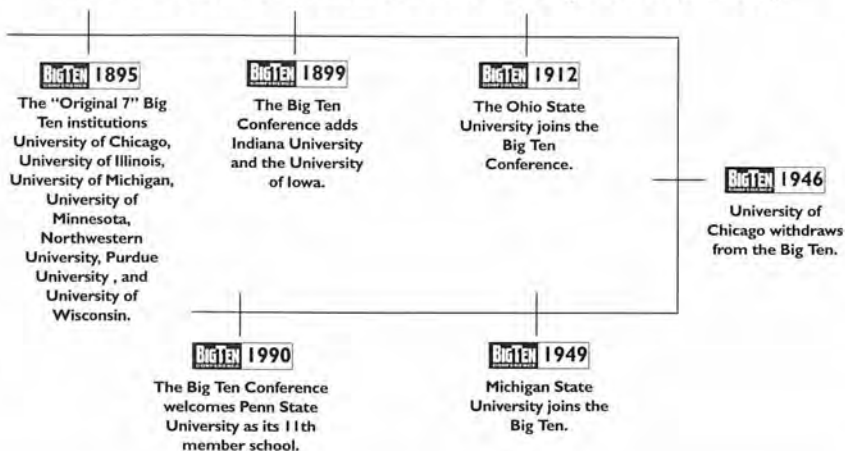

Football and baseball were originally the most popular Big Ten sports with the league hosting its first official championship at the 1906 Outdoor Track and Field Championships. In 1981, the Big Ten began sanctioning women's intercollegiate athletics and today sponsors 12 men's and women's championship sports.

Jim Delany, one of the nation's foremost athletic administrators, begins his 10th year as the commissioner of the Big Ten, just the fifth person to hold the position during its first century of operation.

Delany, a former captain and three-year basketball letterwinner at North Carolina, has overseen the expansion of the Big Ten from 10 to 11 schools, increased league bowl tie-ins to six, negotiated a model long-term agreement with ABC, CBS, ESPN and ESPN-Plus, added five league championship events, overseen record revenue distributions to member institutions, created the Big Ten men's basketball post-season tournament and assisted in the adoption of the voluntary league-wide commitment of 60-40 male-female participation in intercollegiate athletics. Delany, 51, recently served as president for the Collegiate Commissioner's Association.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

The Rose Bowl

Every year since 1946, the Big Ten champion has earned the right to represent the conference against the Pacific 10 champion in college football's "Granddaddy of them all," the Rose Bowl. The 1999 Rose Bowl saw Wisconsin outscore UCLA 38-31. The Big Ten has won six of the last seven games and leads the all-time series 27-26.

In 1998, the Michigan Wolverines captured the Big Ten's first national championship in 30 years with a 21-16 victory over Washington State. In 1997, the Rose Bowl joined the Orange, Sugar and Fiesta Bowls in the national championship bowl alliance beginning after the 1998 season. If the Big Ten or Pac Ten champions are ranked No. 1 or 2 in the final 1998 Associated Press poll, the team will play for the national championship at the selected bowl that season. This year's national championship game will be played at the FedEx Orange Bowl in Miami. The Rose Bowl will host the national championship game in 2002.

The Rose Bowl is played on ABC-TV in front of a capacity crowd of 98,252 fans with USC (19) and Michigan (15) making the most appearances in the game. The first Rose Bowl game was played in 1902 with Fielding H. Yost's Michigan squad hammering Stanford, 49-0. So lopsided was the score that the game was stopped with nine minutes remaining and another Rose Bowl football game wasn't played for 14 years.

In 1890, a group of Pasadena, Calif., citizens organized a parade and display of athletic competitions on New Year's Day. The games consisted of foot races, tugs of war and jousts among the local citizenry. After the 1902 football game, the Rose Bowl committee hosted chariot races, polo matches, a race between a camel and elephant in 1913 and ostrich races. Finally, in 1916, the football game was reinstated and has remained the centerpiece of the celebration every since.

Until 1923, the Tournament of Roses committee selected the two teams. From 1923-46, the Pacific Coast Conference champion was allowed to choose its opponent. In 1921, Ohio State lost to California, 28-0. Following the game, the Big Ten established a ban on postseason football games that lasted 26 seasons.

In 1946, the Big Ten lifted its postseason ban and reached a five-year agreement with the Pac-10 allowing the two league champions to play in the Rose Bowl. Ray Eliot's Fighting Illini were the first Big Ten champion to play in the Rose Bowl under the agreement and smashed UCLA, 45-14 in the 1947 game. The Illini returned in 1952, defeating Stanford, 40-7, and in 1964, battering Washington, 17-7. In 1984, the Illini lost to UCLA, 45-9, giving Illinois a 3-1 record in the Rose Bowl.

The Rose Bowl agreement was revised in 1962 and rewritten in 1997 to allow the Big Ten and Pac-10 champions to compete in the bowl alliance beginning after the 1998 season. The Rose Bowl has the largest payout of any bowl game, with more than $9 million paid to each participant.

METHOD TO DETERMINING ROSE BOWL PARTICIPANTS

The Conference representative shall be determined by the following procedures:

- A. The Conference champion shall be the representative team. The championship shall be determined on the percentage basis of Conference games.
- B. An ineligible team shall not be considered in the standings for determination of the representative.
- C. If there is a tie for the championship, the winner of the game between these two teams shall represent the conference.
- D. If the tied teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on the percentage basis of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule.
- E. If there is still a tie, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated.
- F. If more than two teams tie for the championship, the same selection procedures shall be followed with the following exceptions:
 1. If three teams are tied, and if one team defeated both of the other teams, then that team shall be the representative.

2. If three teams are tied, and if two of the three teams defeated the third team, the third team is eliminated and the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

3. If three teams are tied, and if two of the three teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage basis of all games played in a traditional 11-game schedule.

4. If three teams are tied, and one of the three teams is eliminated through the percentage basis of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule procedure, the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

5. If three teams are tied, and all three teams have the same winning percentage of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

- G. If there are four teams tied for the championship, the following selection procedure shall be followed:

1. If one team defeated each of the other three teams, then that team shall be the representative.

2. If two of the four teams defeated each of the other two teams, the latter two teams shall be eliminated and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

3. If three of the four teams defeated the fourth team, the fourth team is eliminated and the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.

4. If two of the four teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule.

5. If one of the four teams is eliminated through the percentage of all games played in the traditional 11-game schedule procedure, the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.

6. If all four teams have the same winning percentage of all games played in a traditional 11-game schedule, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the three remaining teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Bowl Championship Series

The 1999 football season represents a milestone in the history of Big Ten football as the Conference's champion is now eligible to participate in College Football's Bowl Championship Series.

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) agreement with ABC Sports was developed in 1996 by representatives of six conferences—the Big Ten, Pac-10, Southeastern, Atlantic Coast, Big East and Big 12, along with Notre Dame, in an effort to crown a national football champion within the context of the bowl system, and without creating an NFL-style playoff structure.

The BCS consists of four bowls—the Rose, FedEx Orange, Nokia Sugar and Tostitos Fiesta bowls. The eight bowl participants will include the six conference champions and two teams selected from an at-large pool that includes champions of the Western Athletic Conference, Mid-American Conference, Conference USA or any other eligible Division I-A team, including independents, as well as runners-up from the conferences.

The Nokia Sugar Bowl plays host to the initial championship game Monday, January 4, 1999 at 7 p.m. central. The Rose Bowl will be played January 1 at 4 p.m. central, the FedEx Orange Bowl on January 1 at 7 p.m. central and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl on January 2, 1999 at 6:30 p.m. central. All games in the BCS will be televised by ABC Sports.

The BCS bowls and conferences will work cooperatively within a prescribed selection procedure to ensure a national championship game between the top two-ranked teams in the country is played each season. A special computer poll will analyze and compare team records, strength of schedule and opponents' strength of schedule in order to determine the BCS's # 1 and # 2 ranked teams. Unlike the weekly coaches and media college football polls that first appear long before the season's first games are played, the BCS poll will debut several weeks into the 1999 season.

What does this mean for Big Ten schools? If a Big Ten or Pac-10 team is ranked # 1 or # 2 in the country, then it will play for the national championship in the bowl designated that year to play host to the national championship game. If neither a Big Ten nor a Pac-10 team is ranked # 1 or # 2, then both conference champions would continue to play in the Rose Bowl game each New Year's Day at 4 p.m. central.

The Rose Bowl plays host to the BCS # 1 vs. # 2 game one time during the initial four-year rotation (2001 season, 2002 Rose Bowl). The Big Ten and/or Pac-10 champion could play in the 2002 Rose Bowl if either is ranked # 1 or # 2. If not, then each conference's respective champion is eligible to play in one of the three remaining BCS bowls.

The Big Ten Conference identified four goals as it sought integration into the Bowl Championship Series: 1. maintenance of the Rose Bowl tradition; 2. providing Conference football teams with the opportunity to play for the national championship in a # 1 vs. # 2 game; 3. increasing the value of the Rose Bowl and the bowl system in general; 4. eliminating the possibility of establishing an NFL-style college football playoff.

Big Ten presidents and chancellors remain resolute in their opposition to an NFL-style playoff structure for college football. Such a system would significantly increase the time demands and pressures on student-athletes and cripple a culture that has provided student-athletes, coaches and fans from around the country the opportunity to culminate their football seasons within the rich tradition of a healthy bowl environment.

Revenues that accrue to the Big Ten as a result of relationships with the Rose Bowl, the Bowl Championship Series, ABC Sports and others, will continue to be an important source of funding for the broad-based athletic programs upon which the Conference was built, and upon which it continues to flourish. More than 7,000 men and women annually compete for 24 Conference championships and Big Ten universities provide in excess of $ 51 million a year in athletic scholarships to help young people fulfill their dreams through higher education.

COACH SCOTT WILLIAMS

(1 year, 1-2-0)

Scott Williams was the man credited with introducing the game of football to the University of Illinois campus. Even though the first college football game was played in 1869, no one seemed to have heard of the sport when Williams, who played at the high school level in Normal, just 50 miles from Champaign-Urbana, managed to gather and teach enough players to play three games in the inaugural season of 1890. Williams coached, captained and quarterbacked the '90 team, and, by the time he left Illinois in 1893, had played every position on the team with the exception of guard and center.

COACH ROBERT LACKEY

(1 year, 6-0-0)

Like Scott Williams, Robert Lackey coached the Fighting Illini for just one season. Lackey had been the captain of the 1890 Purdue team, which had humiliated Illinois, 62-0. In addition to his coaching duties, he played halfback part of the time on the '91 team, which played in a league for the first time, and won the championship cup.

COACH E.K. HALL

(2 years, 12-5-5)

E.K. Hall, according to Scott Williams, developed a class of football at Illinois "second to none in the west" in the seasons of 1892 and 1893, the same two years in which the Fighting Illini wore green uniforms. One of the most noteworthy happenings during Hall's tenure was an "ironman trip," during which the 18-man Illinois team played six games in eight days. A former Dartmouth athlete, Hall was called "Boss Hall" by his players.

COACH LOUIS D. VAIL

(1 year, 5-3-0)

Louis D. Vail became Illinois' third football coach in 1894. Not much is known about Vail, except that his season was full of controversy. A dispute arose over his participation in the Chicago game, and many questionable referees' calls were the focus of attention in the game with Indianapolis Light Artillery.

COACH GEORGE A. HUFF

(5 years, 21-16-3)

George Huff, born on a Champaign, Ill., farm in 1872, first attended the University of Illinois at age 15. He not only played and coached football at the UI, but coached baseball (for 24 years) and was the athletic director and director of the School of Physical Education. He was also, for a brief time, the manager of the Boston American League baseball team, and later was a talent scout for many summers. Huff had the title of head football coach from 1895-99, but performed most of the duties for just the first two of those five years. In 1897, the year the Intercollegiate Conference of Faculty Representatives (the Big Ten Conference) was formed, Fred Smith, formerly of Princeton, actually took over the coaching reins and remained for two seasons. In 1899, Neilson Poe, another former Princeton player, coached the Fighting Illini. Huff broke tradition in 1913 when he brought in a high school football coach to head up the Illinois football program. That coach was the immortal Bob Zuppke.

COACH EDGAR G. HOLT

(2 years, 18-4-1)

Edgar G. Holt posted the best winning percentage (.804) of any Fighting Illini coach who served for more than one year. His teams, however, finished only fourth and fifth in the league in his two seasons despite their impressive records. His 1902 team recorded eight shutouts. Holt coached two players of note, guard/running back Jake Stahl, a bruising runner, who later went on to manage professional baseball's Boston Red Sox, and tackle Justa Lindgren, who became Illinois' football coach in 1906.

COACH GEORGE WOODRUFF

(1 year, 8-6-0)

George Woodruff coached Illinois during the 1903 season. The former University of Pennsylvania coach, who coached the legendary John Heisman, picked up eight victories to open the campaign (mostly over weaker competition), but proceeded to drop the final six games, including the last four as shutouts. Woodruff returned to the East directly after the season.

GRADUATE COACHING SYSTEM

year, 9-2-1)
his was a case of coaching by committee. Four men, Justa Lindgren, Arthur Hall, Fred Lowenthal and Clyde Mathews, were in charge of the 1904 Illinois football team. Each of the former three had his own stint as head coach between 1905 and 1912.

COACH FRED LOWENTHAL

(1 year, 5-4-0)
Fred Lowenthal, after serving on the "Committee of Coaches" in 1904, took his turn as head coach in 1905. Lowenthal, who played center, left guard and left tackle for Illinois from 1898-1901, had moderate success overall; he produced a winning record, but failed to win a conference game. As a player, he was selected by the Chicago Post to its All-Western team.

COACH JUSTA LINDGREN

(1 year, 1-3-1)
Justa Lindgren, another of the 1904 coaching committee members, took the reigns of the 1906 Illinois football team. Like his predecessor, Fred Lowenthal, Lindgren played (center and right tackle) for the Fighting Illini from 1898-1901. He was captain of the 1901 UI team.

COACH ARTHUR R. HALL

(6 years, 27-10-3)
Arthur R. Hall was the first man to coach Illinois football for a period of six years or more. The forward pass came into being during this period and Hall installed it into his offense, with quarterback "Pom" Sinnock, the first notable passer for the Fighting Illini. Hall's 1910 team was Illinois' first Big Ten (then Big Eight) football champion. The team outscored its seven opponents, 89-0, with three of the victories coming, 3-0, on the strength of dropkick field goals by Otto Seiler. Hall played for the Fighting Illini at halfback and left end from 1898-1900.

(29 years, 131-81-13)
Robert C. Zuppke coached the University of Illinois football team in 225 games over a span of 29 years, the longest term of any Fighting Illini football coach. Zuppke, who was born in Germany and raised in Wisconsin, coached Oak Park (Ill.) High School to national championships in 1911 and 1912 before coming to Champaign-Urbana in time for the 1913 season. Zuppke was an innovator as a coach; he is credited with originating such contributions as the "flea-flicker" play, the screen pass, the spiral snap from center, spring practice and the huddle. He led Illinois to all four of its national championships — in 1914, 1919, 1923 and 1927. In addition, Zuppke's teams won seven Big Ten championships.

COACH RAY ELIOT

(18 years, 83-73-11)

Ray Eliot, known to Illinois football fans as "Mr. Illini," held the position of head football coach at Illinois for more years than anyone else except Bob Zuppke. Eliot was born Raymond Nusspickel at Brighton, Mass., in 1905, and graduated from the University of Illinois in 1932 after lettering in baseball and three times in football as a tackle. After entering the coaching profession at Illinois College in Jacksonville, he returned to the U of I in 1937 as line coach under Zuppke before replacing him in 1942. At Illinois, Eliot produced Big Ten championships in 1946, 1951 and 1953. His teams claimed Rose Bowl victories, 45-14, over UCLA in 1947, and, 40-7, over Stanford in 1952. Eliot, who for years was in demand as a lecturer at football clinics around the nation, was renowned as a motivator. A nine-word motto he uttered, typified his Fighting Illini spirit: "Anything you think you can do, you can do."

COACH PETE ELLIOTT

(7 years, 31-34-1)

Pete Elliott, a native of Bloomington, Ill., became only the third football coach at Illinois in 47 years in 1960. When he was hired, he was the Big Ten's youngest head football coach at age 33. He had already coached for 10 years — as an assistant at Oregon State and Oklahoma, and as head coach at Nebraska and California. A quarterback on Michigan's 1948 national championship team, Elliott eventually represented three different schools in the Rose Bowl: Michigan (quarterbacking the Wolverines to a 49-0 win over Southern Cal in 1948), California (coaching the Bears in their 1959 38-12 loss to Iowa) and Illinois (coaching the Fighting Illini to a 17-7 triumph over Washington in 1964). His 1963 team, with Dick Butkus and Jim Grabowski, produced Illinois' only Big Ten championship during his tenure.

COACH JIM VALEK

(4 years, 8-32-0)
Jim Valek, a native of Joliet, played end on Ray Eliott's football teams at Illinois from 1945-48, earning the team's MVP award his senior year. After coaching stops at the high school level, and as an assistant at Illinois, Army, and South Carolina, Valek took over Fighting Illini fortunes upon Elliott's departure in 1967.

COACH BOB BLACKMAN

(6 years, 29-36-1)

Bob Blackman was a native of Big Ten country — from DeSoto, Iowa, originally, and later from Chicago. His move in 1971 from Dartmouth to Illinois was a move home, of sorts. He had won 104 games in 16 years at the Ivy League school, producing three undefeated seasons for the Big Green. Blackman was the ifth winningest active collegiate coach (with 150 victories) when he arrived on the UI campus as the school's third coach in a decade. It was his job to raise Illinois football fortunes from the lows of the late 1960s. Blackman accomplished that, however, the only winning team he produced was the 1974 squad, which went 6-4-1.

COACH GARY MOELLER

(3 years, 6-24-3)

Gary Moeller was hired by athletic director Cecil Coleman to bring the Illinois football program back into Big Ten title contention. Moeller knew what it was like to be a Big Ten contender, coaching with Bo Schembechler for two years at Miami of Ohio, and for 10 more at Michigan. His reputation as an outstanding recruiter was in for a test at Illinois. Like Jim Valek, he picked up half of his wins at UI his first season. Unfortunately, they amounted to only three of his total of six in three seasons.

COACH MIKE WHITE

(8 years, 47-41-3)

Mike White was new athletic director Neale Stoner's choice to run the UI football program starting in 1980. He had declined Pete Elliott's overtures to join him at Illinois in 1960, but picked up some impressive coaching credentials after learning from some of the game's heavyweights — Bill Walsh, Dick Vermeil, Marv Levy and John Ralston. White coached California to a Pac-8 championship with a nation-leading offense (459 yards per game) in 1975. Along the way, he had helped to develop such passers as Joe Roth, Jim Plunkett, Steve Bartkowski and Craig Morton, and would add to his list at Illinois with the likes of Dave Wilson, Tony Eason and Jack Trudeau. White's wide-open passing philosophy seemed to be just what the Fighting Illini needed at the time. His teams virtually rewrote the UI record books in the passing department and brought Illinois back to Big Ten contender status. Five of White's eight Illinois teams posted winning records. The 1982 squad (7-5-0) played in the Liberty Bowl against Alabama in the legendary Bear Bryant's final game as Crimson Tide head coach. The Liberty Bowl was Illinois' first bowl game appearance since the 1964 Rose Bowl. The 1983 Big Ten championship team (10-2), which played in the 1984 Rose Bowl, is the only team in Big Ten history to have defeated all nine conference opponents in the same season.

COACH JOHN MACKOVIC

(4 years, 30-16-1)
John Mackovic became Illinois' 19th head football coach February 3, 1988. Mackovic came to Champaign with a variety of collegiate and professional coaching experiences and built the Fighting Illini into not only a Big Ten contender, but also a force to be reckoned with nationally. All ur of his UI teams played in bowl games (1988 All American Bowl, 1990 Florida Citrus Bowl, 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl and 1991 John Hancock Bowl). Mackovic was the first to have earned the Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year award in each of his first two seasons in the league. His 1989 team tied the school record (set in 1983) for victories with 10 and his 1990 team tied for the Big Ten Championship.

Mackovic was named athletic director at Illinois December 23, 1988. He retained both the position of athletic director and head football coach until signing just before the 1991 John Hancock Bowl to become head coach at Texas.

COACH LOU TEPPER

(5+ years, 25-31-2)
Lou Tepper was hired as Illinois' 20th head football coach Dec. 13, 1991, just prior to the team's appearance in the John Hancock Bowl. He replaced John Mackovic, who resigned his head football coach and athletic director duties to become head coach at the University of Texas.

Tepper had five successful seasons at Colorado prior to coming to Illinois. He spent his last two years with the Buffaloes as their assistant head coach.

When Mackovic took over the program in 1988, he brought Tepper in as defensive coordinator and named him assistant head coach in 1990.

Tepper led Illinois to the 1992 Holiday Bowl and a 30-0 victory in the the 1994 Liberty Bowl. He also coached consecutive Butkus Award winners in Dana Howard (1994) and Kevin Hardy (1995).

COACH RON TURNER

(2 years, 3-19)

Ron Turner was named the 21st head coach in Illinois history December 2, 1996, coming to the Fighting Illini after four highly-successful seasons as the offensive coordinator for the NFL's Chicago Bears. Considered one of the nation's top young coaches, Turner begins his third season at Illinois after spending 17 seasons in the collegiate ranks and four years as the offensive coordinator of the NFL's Chicago Bears.

Turner began his coaching career at his alma mater, Pacific and later served as an assistant at Arizona, Northwestern, Pittsburgh, USC, Texas A&M and Stanford before being named head coach at San Jose State in 1992. Turner guided the Spartans to a 7-4 record in the Big West Conference before moving to Chicago.

In his first season at Illinois, Turner's offense helped Robert Holcombe become the all-time Illini rushing leader.

ROSE BOWL

JAN. 1, 1952, PASADENA, CALIF.

For three quarters, Illinois and Stanford battled in what appeared to be a low-scoring, defensive struggle. Late in the third quarter, Illinois scored the first of 34 unanswered points to blow out Stanford. Illinois took the lead on a seven-yard touchdown run by Johnny Karras, then exploded for 27 fourth-quarter points to give Illinois and Head Coach Ray Eliot a second Rose Bowl victory in as many tries. Illinois rolled up 434 yards in total offense, with Mattoon's Bill Tate picking up 150 yards on the ground. The 1952 Rose Bowl was the first nationally telecast college football game.

Pete Bachourus scampered into the end zone from six yards out to score Illinois' first touchdown in the 1952 Rose Bowl.

LIBERTY BOWL

DEC. 29, 1982, MEMPHIS, TENN.

Illinois reappeared on the Bowl scene after a 19-year absence, facing Alabama and Paul "Bear" Bryant, who was coaching his final game. Illinois saw its perfect Bowl record snapped with a 21-15 loss. Fighting Illini quarterback Tony Eason set a Liberty Bowl record, throwing for 423 yards, but Alabama's bruising ground attack mustered 217 yards and proved to be the difference. The game would later become a made-for-television movie "Bear," starring Gary Busey.

ROSE BOWL

NOV. 2, 1984, PASADENA, CALIF.

Head Coach Mike White led Illinois to a perfect 9-0 Big Ten Conference record and the first Fighting Illini visit to Pasadena in 20 years. UCLA ended fourth-ranked Illinois' hopes for a national championship with a 45-9 victory. The Bruins piled up 21 second-quarter points enroute to a 28-3 halftime lead. UCLA quarterback Rick Neuheisel played the best game of his college career, completing 31 passes for 298 yards. The Bruins rushing attack ground out 232 yards to give UCLA 511 yards of total offense. Illinois ended the season with a 10-2 record, only the second Illinois team in history to win 10 or more games, and became the first and only team to defeat all nine Big Ten opponents in the same season.

Jack Trudeau passed for 178 yards and a touchdown in the 1984 Rose Bowl.

DEC. 29, 1988, BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

Head Coach John Mackovic led Illinois to a surprising 6-4-1 record and a third-place finish in the Big Ten, earning a berth opposite traditional SEC powerhouse Florida in the All American Bowl. On the first play from scrimmage, Florida freshman sensation Emmitt Smith scampered 55 yards for a touchdown. Illinois tied the score on a 30-yard run by Keith Jones in the second quarter. After a fourth-quarter Doug Higgins field goal gave Illinois a three-point lead, Smith scored his second touchdown with less than four minutes remaining to give the Gators the victory.

Keith Jones rushed for 88 yards and scored the Illini's lone touchdown in the All American Bowl.

JAN. 1, 1990, ORLANDO, FLA.

Illinois snapped a 26-year Bowl victory drought with a 31-21 win over Virginia in the Florida Citrus Bowl. Illinois jumped on the Cavaliers early, with linebacker Bill Henkel recovering a fumble on the opening kickoff. Five plays later, quarterback Jeff George drilled a 15-yard scoring strike to Steven Williams. After Virginia tied the game early in the second quarter, George directed Illinois on an 80-yard scoring drive. Illinois opened the second half with an 84-yard drive capped by fullback Howard Griffith's three-yard sweep around right end. Early in the fourth quarter, receiver Mike Bellamy scored on a 26-yard aerial from George to clinch an Illini victory. George earned MVP honors, completing 26 of 38 passes for 321 yards and three touchdowns.

HALL OF FAME BOWL

AN. 1, 1991, TAMPA, FLA.

The Fighting Illini's trip to the Hall of Fame Bowl would be Illinois' third in as many years under John Mackovic, but would also be the most disappointing. The Tigers came right out of the locker room and took the opening kickoff and marched 71 yards in 16 plays before All-America kicker Chris Gardocki kicked an 18-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. Record-setting Illini running back Howard Griffith fumbled on Illinois' first play from scrimmage, and on the very next play, Tiger quarterback DeChane Cameron hit Doug Thomas with a 14-yard touchdown pass to give his team a 10-0 lead. Things did not get any better in the second quarter. The Tiger offense kicked on two more touchdowns while the Clemson defense held the Fighting Illini to just 22 total yards in the half. Illinois finally got its offense on track in the second half with 225 yards, but never could find a yard.

Illini captains Tim McCloud, Mike Suarez, Howard Griffith and Darrick Brownlow moments before the 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl.

JOHN HANCOCK BOWL

DEC. 31, 1991, EL PASO, TEXAS

The Illini were playing their first game under new head coach Lou Tepper, who was named John Mackovic's replacement a little more than two weeks earlier when Mackovic took the coaching job at Texas.

The Illinois defense certainly came to play, holding the high-octane UCLA attack to just 268 yards of total offense. The Fighting Illini offense didn't fair much better, though, totaling 308 yards of its own in a classic defensive struggle.

Illinois missed an early scoring opportunity when Jason Verduzco's pass was intercepted at the Bruin goal line.

The Illinois defense forced a UCLA fumble six plays later, but then promptly turned the ball back to the Bruins at the UI 24-yard line after a blocked punt. The Illinois defense stiffened and held UCLA to a field goal.

Both teams traded punches until Illinois freshman Chris Richardson kicked a 27-yard field goal. The score remained tied until the opening drive of the fourth quarter when Illinois' Filmel Johnson fumbled a UCLA punt at the UI 11-yard line that lead to a 19-yard Louis Perez field goal. Illinois linebacker Mike Poloskey earned the Jimmy Rogers Jr. Trophy as the game's Most Valuable Lineman.

Linebacker Mike Poloskey was named the Most Valuable Lineman of the John Hancock Bowl.

HOLIDAY BOWL

DEC. 30, 1992, SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

Head coach Lou Tepper ended his first full year at the helm of the Illini by leading the team to its fifth-consecutive Bowl appearance, the longest such streak in school history.

Illinois' offense got off to a quick start, marching 73 yards in nine plays to take a 7-0 lead after the first quarter.

The Illini were down by just three, 10-7, at halftime, but Hawaii stormed out of the locker room to piece together scoring drives of 80 and 62 yards.

On its opening possession of the fourth quarter, a botched Illini lateral gave Hawaii the ball on the Illini 21, but the UI defense held the Rainbows to only a field goal.

On Illinois' next possession, an interception gave Hawaii the ball once again, and the Rainbows proceeded to kill Illinois' hopes for a victory by cruising for another score.

LIBERTY BOWL

DEC. 31, 1994, MEMPHIS, TENN.

The Illini took a 14-0 first-quarter lead on touchdown passes from Johnny Johnson to Ken Dilger and Jasper Strong.

In the second quarter the Illini added a Chris Richardson field goal and a touchdown reception by Jason Dulick to pull away, 24-0. Illinois' final score came in the third quarter on another Johnson TD strike, this time to Ty Douthard. Johnson's four touchdown passes and 250 yards passing earned him Most Valuable Offensive Player and Most Valuable Player of the Game honors.

The Illini defense forced four interceptions and a fumble, allowing a total of only 271 total yards. All-America linebacker Simeon Rice led the way with 10 tackles.

The Liberty Bowl was the Illini's first Bowl victory since 1990. Illinois' 30-0 victory was the most lopsided win in Liberty Bowl history and was the only shutout posted among the 1994-95 Bowls.

Quarterback Johnny Johnson threw four TD passes to earn Liberty Bowl MVP honors.

ILLINI VS. RANKED OPPONENTS

Since 1966, Illinois has compiled a 27-85-3 (.241) record against Top 20 teams, including an 0-9 record against No. 1-ranked teams and a 3-31-2 (.114) mark against opponents ranked among the top five. The Illini won four in a row against ranked teams in 1983 en route to the Big Ten Championship. In 1990, the Illini won three consecutive games against ranked opponents and tied for the Big Ten title. The following is a list of Illinois vs. ranked opponents (as ranked by the Associated Press) since 1966.

THE FIRST SEASON

In 1889, University of Illinois student Scott Williams noticed a bulletin board card announcing that anyone interested in playing football should report to campus that afternoon.

That day he arrived to see a group of students chasing and kicking a ball in a manner that barely resembled the game of football that he played at State Normal University, more than 50 miles west of Champaign.

After the boys' workout, Williams assembled the group and gave it instruction on how the ball should be passed and kicked. He also explained the scoring system and other points of strategy. The gang reassembled and played a little while longer with Williams as their leader.

The following year Williams and some teammates approached the heads of the athletic department with the hopes that they could represent the UI in a game of football against Illinois Wesleyan at Bloomington. Anticipating little enthusiasm, Williams suggested that the team pay its own expenses, provide uniforms and pay its own train fare. Permission was granted. The first University of Illinois football team boarded a train Thursday, Oct. 2, 1890, to compete in the Illinois Oratorical Association meeting in Bloomington, an athletic competition featuring contests in track, tennis, baseball and football.

With Williams serving as coach, captain and quarterback, Illinois lost to Wesleyan, 16-0.

Although Illinois lost its first football game, it did win the championship cup for the weekend's activities.

Illinois' second game of the season was against Purdue, a team which had been under great preparation for the game. The Boilers defeated Illinois, 62-0, but the young UI 11 had learned a few lessons from the advanced Purdue team before entering the last game of its first season, a rematch against Wesleyan.

Illinois hosted its first-ever home game Nov. 26, 1890. The contest was met with great anticipation in the community. Nearly 300 fans arrived at the Champaign fair grounds to see W.F. Slater score two touchdowns in a 12-6 Illinois victory, which ended its first season with a 1-2 record.

Scott Williams stepped down as captain and coach after the 1890 season, but remained on the roster as a player on the 1891 Illinois team, winners of all six games and champions of the Illinois Intercollegiate Football League.

Scott Williams recruited fellow classmates in 1889 to put together Illinois' first football team.

TRADITIONAL SERIES TROPHIES

"ILLIBUCK"

OHIO STATE—SINCE 1925)

OSU Leads 52-20-2

"Illibuck" is—or was—a turtle, destined for long life, it was hoped. But the wear and tear of traveling between Champaign-Urbana and Columbus was too much, even for a hardy marine reptile. "Illibuck" died in the spring of 1927 and his successor is now a wooden replica. Members of two junior honorary societies, Omicron Kappa Epsilon of Ohio State and Sachem of Illinois, annually meet at halftime of the Fighting Illini-Buckeye game to smoke the peace pipe and present the "Illibuck" trophy to last year's winning school. Ohio State has won the last four meetings, including a 41-0 win last season in Champaign.

"CANNON"

(PURDUE—SINCE 1943)

Purdue Leads 25-23-2

The "Cannon," more accurately known as the Purdue Cannon, made its first trip to Champaign-Urbana in 1905 when a group of Purdue students brought it to fire after a Boilermaker victory. Purdue won the game, 29-0, but the Cannon was never fired. Illinois student Quincy Hall found the Cannon hidden near the old Illinois Field. Hall and a group of Delta Upsilon brothers confiscated the Cannon and held it until 1943 when they donated it as a symbol of the Illinois-Purdue rivalry. The Cannon was last fired October 22, 1983, at halftime in Champaign. Tomahawk Service and Leadership honorary at Purdue and Illini Pride of Illinois maintain the trophy when the respective school has won it. Purdue has won the last three meetings, including a 42-9 win last season in West Lafayette.

"TOMAHAWK"

(NORTHWESTERN—SINCE 1945)

UI Leads 28-22-2

The story of the Illinois-Northwestern trophy dates back to 1945 when the staff members of the two student newspapers conceived the idea of a wooden Indian trophy, "Sweet Sioux."

In September, 1946, "Sweet Sioux" was stolen from a showcase at Northwestern. A Tomahawk Trophy was inaugurated in 1947 to replace the wooden Indian and has been used since. "Sweet Sioux" was found in 1948, but was discarded because of its bulk. Illinois reclaimed the Tomahawk Trophy with a 13-10 win in Evanston last fall.

TRADITIONS

1914

Possibly the most dominant team in Illinois football history was the 1914 squad. The squad was only Coach Robert Zuppke's second at Illinois and would be the first of four national championship teams he would lead in his 29 years at Illinois. The Fighting Illini defense shut out four of the season's seven opponents, yielding only 22 points the entire 1914 season. While the defense was stifling any and every team in its way, the offense racked up an incredible average of 32 points per game, including a 51-0 shellacking of Indiana October 10. This team was so good that no one scored a point against it until the fifth game of the seven-game season, October 31. In fact, the closest game of the year, two weeks later, wasn't very close at all, a 21-7 home decision over Chicago. Leading the way for Zuppke's troops was right halfback Bart Macomber. He led the team in scoring, but wasn't

The 1919 team was the only one of Coach Zuppke's national championship squads to lose a game. Wisconsin managed to defeat the Fighting Illini in Urbana in the third game of the season, 14-10, to temporarily knock Illinois out of the conference lead. However, Zuppke's men came back from the Wisconsin defeat with three consecutive wins to set up a showdown with the Buckeyes at Ohio Stadium on November 22 to determine the conference champion. Illinois scored first on a first-quarter touchdown and never looked back. The Fighting Illini added a field goal before allowing a Buckeye touchdown and conversion. With the final score, 9-7, in Illinois' favor the Illini won the conference title and were later named national champions. Right guard Clarence Applegran was named to Eckersall's second-team All-America squad, and left tackle Burt Ingwersen and center John Depler were both members of Walter Camp's second-team All-America squad.

TRADITIONS

1923

The 1923 season became a particularly special year in Illinois football history. Not only did Illinois and Coach Zuppke win their third national championship in 10 years, but Memorial Stadium was finally complete. It was unveiled for all to see at the homecoming contest, a victory, vs. Chicago Nov. 3. The 1923 season also meant the arrival of legendary halfback Red Grange, who was to become possibly the most storied college football player ever. Grange was named a Walter Camp All-American scoring 72 points that season. After the win over Chicago, the Fighting Illini finished their undefeated season by shutting out their last three opponents en route to a tie for the conference crown with Michigan, whom Illinois didn't play. The defense was spectacular, as Illinois held its last five opponents scoreless and outscored its foes, 82-0, to finish the season. In addition to Grange, left guard James McMillen joined the Galloping Ghost on several award teams, including Eckersall's first-team All-America squad.

In 1927 Zuppke produced his fourth undefeated team, going 7-0-1. Besides a tie with Iowa State, the 1927 Illinois club was literally unbeatable, yielding only 24 points the entire season, 12 of them coming at the hands of the Cyclones. Besides Iowa State, only Northwestern and Chicago were able to score a single point against this ferocious Illini team. Illinois' closest competition for the conference title was Minnesota, who finished 3-0-1 in conference play, but by virtue of not playing Illinois and its tie with Indiana finished second behind 5-0 Illinois. Among those awarded postseason honors were guard Russell Crane and center Robert Reitsch, both of whom were members of Grantland Rice's All-America team.

TRADITIONS

THE MARCHING ILLINI

In the 1920s, John Philip Sousa called the Illinois band the "world's greatest college band." Superlatives like this have come to be expected during the long and illustrious history of the University of Illinois bands.

Shortly after the University opened in 1868, a military band was organized. The military band became the Concert Band, and gave its first formal concert in 1890. The University of Illinois Bands of today are the top of a pyramid of university band organizations, both concert and marching, which regularly enroll more than 700 students.

This year's Marching Illini numbers nearly 360 participants, which includes musicians, flag corps, Illinettes (a precision dance corps), drum majors, feature twirlers and staff members.

The unique style of the Marching Illini has become famous, representing a combination of past traditions and exciting innovations. The Marching Illini is at the forefront of great university bands, having received the Louis Sudler Intercollegiate Marching Band Trophy in recognition of outstanding achievement in 1933. The Marching Illini also have performed at the Rose, All American, Peach, Liberty, Citrus, Hall of Fame, John Hancock and Holiday Bowl games.

The Marching Band will perform pregame and halftime shows at all six home football games this year, as well as selected road games.

The 1999 Marching Illini is under the direction of Tom Canevea.

ILLINOIS LOYALTY

We're "Orange and Blue," Illinois
We'll back you to stand
'Gainst the best in the land
For we know you have sand,
Illinois
Rah! Rah!
So crack out the ball Illinois
We're backing you all Illinois
Our team is the farre protector;

The Marching Illini is the best band in the land.

On boys, for we expect a Victory from you Illinois
Chehee, Cheha, Cheha-ha-ha
Go Illini Go
Chehee, Cheha, Cheha-ha-ha
Go Illini Go
Illinois, Illinois, Illinois
Fling out that dear old flag of Orange and Blue
Lead on your sons and daughters,
Fighting for you;
Like men of old, on giants
Placing reliance, shouting defiance
Oskee-wow-wow!
Amid the broad green plains
That nourish our land,
For honest labor and for learning we stand,
And unto thee we pledge our heart and hand,
Dear Alma Mater, Illinois

OSKEE-WOW-WOW

Old Princeton yells her tiger
Wisconsin her varsity
And they give the same old
Rah! Rah! Rah!
At each university
But the yell that always thrills me,
And fills my heart with joy,
Is the good old Oskee-wow-wow,
That they yell at Illinois

Chorus
Oskee-wow-wow, Illinois
Our eyes are all on you
Oskee-wow-wow, Illinois
Wave your Orange and Blue,
Rah! Rah!
When your team trots out before you
Ev'ry man stand up and yell
Back the team to gain a victory
Oskee-wow-wow, Illinois

MARCH OF THE ILLINI

We are marching for dear old Illini
For the men who are fighting for you
Here's a cheer for our dear Alma Mater
May our love for her ever be true
While we're marching along life's pathways,
May the Spirit of old Illinois
Keep us marching and singing
In true Illini Spirit
For our dear old Illinois

HAIL TO THE ORANGE

Hail to the Orange.
Hail to the Blue.
Hail Alma Mater,
Ever so true.
We love no other,
So let our motto be Victory, Illinois, Varsity.

CHIEF ILLINIWEK

One of the most dramatic and dignified traditions in college athletics is the performance of Chief Illiniwek at the University of Illinois. Since 1926, this symbol has earned pride and respect in audiences at Memorial Stadium, the Assembly Hall and Huff Hall.

Illiniwek (pronounced "ill-EYE-nih-wek") is the name of the loose confederation of Algonquin tribes that once lived in the region. The French changed the ending to "ois" in meaning what became the state of Illinois. Illiniwek means "they are men" and former Illinois football coach Robert Zuppke is believed to have suggested calling the UI symbol Chief Illiniwek.

In 1926, Assistant Band Director Ray W. Orak conceived the idea of performing an American Indian dance during halftime of the Illinois vs. Pennsylvania football game in Philadelphia. Lester Leutwiler, a student interested in Indian lore, was chosen for the role. Leutwiler's performance, done in a homemade costume, was received so well that he was asked to continue his dance through the 1928 season.

Webber Borchers, the second Chief Illiniwek, was the first to appear in authentic American Indian regalia. He initiated a campaign to raise money to replace his homemade outfit with an authentic one, but with the Depression on, he received just $15 dollars. However, a campaign merchant stepped in to fund the rest and Borchers was off.

He recalled: "In the summer of 1930, I went, at my own expense, to the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota. I hitchhiked out, dressed as an Indian agent and explained my mission. I met an Indian trader called in an older Sioux woman. She and two younger women made the outfit."

On Nov. 8, 1930, in New York's Yankee Stadium, Illinois faced Army in the seventh game of the season. It was there that Borchers made the first appearance of Chief Illiniwek in that outfit. Since then, five different authentic outfits have been used by Chief Illiniwek. The one used in performances now was purchased in 1983 from the Sioux Chief Frank Fools Crow, and is topped by a headdress of turkey feathers.

Holding the role of Chief Illiniwek is senior John Madigan, a speech communications major from Philo, Illinois.

TRADITIONS

HOMECOMING

Homecoming, a tradition on just about every college campus in the United States, is celebrated with zest as graduates and former students return to renew fond college memories—and it all began at the University of Illinois. The fall of 1998 marks the 88th year for the campus-wide celebration which began the weekend of October 14-16, 1910.

The Homecoming celebration was conceived in 1909 by UI students C.F. (Dab) Williams and W. Elmer Ekblaw, members of the Shield and Trident senior society. The Shield and Trident Society joined with another senior society, Phoenix, to organize the three-day event and submitted a petition to the University Council of Administrators asking the weekend to be set aside for the First Annual Fall Homecoming. Once the proposal was approved, the senior societies, having instituted the movement, resigned their claims to the Illinois Union, which has organized the Homecoming gala since that time.

At the center of the weekend festivities was the Illinois-Chicago football game on Saturday, Oct. 15, 1910. Illinois, under the leadership of Captain Glenn D. Butzer, scored the first victory over Chicago—by a score of 3-0—on a drop-kick by Otto Seiler. More than 1,500 graduates returned to Champaign-Urbana at the original Homecoming, one-third of all its graduates.

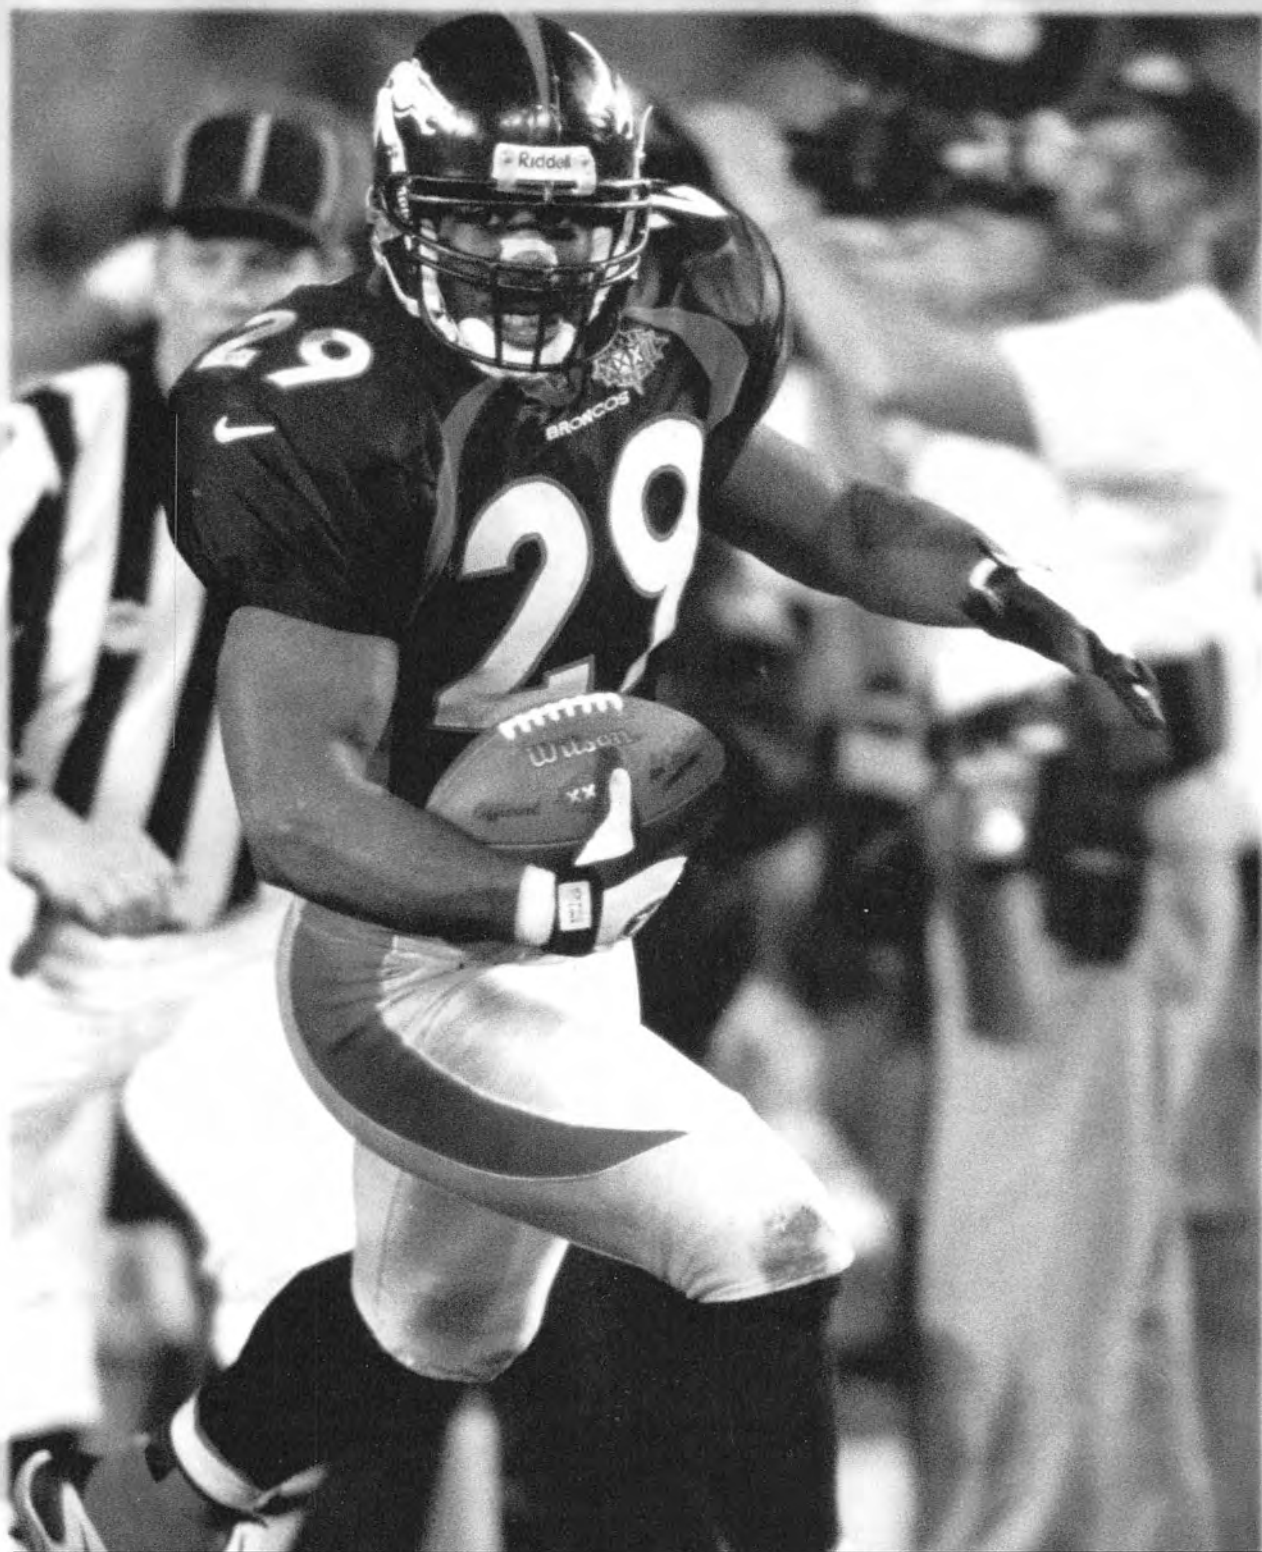

The weekend activities included a Varsity "Alumni" baseball game, an interclass track meet, a band reunion, a "rooter" section at the game (which later became "Block I") and a Hobo band parade. The Hobo band parade was put on by members of the senior class who paraded from Green Street to Illinois Field. A prize for the most comical costume of the day was given, setting the stage for modern "tailgater" contests and celebrations.

This year, Illinois hosts Minnesota on the 89th Homecoming, Oct. 16.

DICK BUTKUS

1962-64

LINEBACKER/CENTER

NUMBER RETIRED SEPT. 20, 1986

BORN: DECEMBER 9, 1942

Dick Butkus remains the standard for which all linebackers are compared. He played two All-America seasons in 1963 and 1964 before enjoying a Hall of Fame career with the Chicago Bears, where he was a six-time All-Pro selection. Butkus finished third in the 1964 Heisman Trophy voting and has college football's annual award for the outstanding collegiate linebacker named after him. He had his jersey, No. 50, retired at Illinois in 1986, joining Red Grange as the only two Illinois football players to have their numbers retired. Butkus helped lead the Fighting Illini to a 1964 Rose Bowl victory over Washington. He earned first-team All-Big Ten honors twice and was awarded the 1963 Silver Football Award as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player. Butkus finished his career with 373 tackles. His 145 stops in 1963 stood as the school record until 1976. He was named the 1964 Player of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.

Butkus was named to the Big Ten Diamond Anniversary Team in 1970, The Sporting News College Coaches All-Time Team, the Walter Camp All-Century Team and the University of Illinois All-Century Team. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1979 and to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1983.

■ "All the greats have the natural physical talent. Dick was so strong and agile and possessed great quickness. His biggest attributes, however, were his instincts and his desire. No one wanted to play the game of football as much as Dick Butkus. He is the finest football player I have ever coached."
— Pete Elliott, former UI coach

■ "Butkus didn't have bad games, just varying degrees of excellence."
— Bert Bertine, former Sports Editor, Champaign-Urbana Courier

■ "Dick would not only tackle you, he would consume you. He never missed a tackle and you knew that anytime you ran the ball that Butkus would be in on the tackle."
— Paul Hornung, Hall of Famer

■ "What do I respect most about him? His guts . . . they put it to him hard and right away he comes back at them with a big play."
— Don Hansen, former UI teammate

■ "He is a legend. I never thought any player could play as well as writers write that he can, but Butkus came as close as any player I've seen."
— Tommy Prothro, former UCLA coach

■ "Dick Butkus remains the standard for defensive players to strive for."
— George Halas, former UI player and longtime owner and coach of the Chicago Bears

■ "Our game plans were always to run at Illinois tackles . . . and AWAY from Butkus."

— Bump Elliott, former Michigan coach

■ "If every college football team had a linebacker like Dick Butkus of Illinois all fullbacks would soon be three feet tall and sing soprano."

— Dan Jenkins, Sports Illustrated

■ "All I ever wanted to do was to play football. It was a human factor that got me to come here to Illinois. I'm very proud to be a former Illini. I'll always be an Illini."

— Dick Butkus

HAROLD "RED" GRANGE

23-25

NUMBER RETIRED IN 1925

BORN: JUNE 13, 1903

DIED: JANUARY 28, 1991

Red Grange is one of football's all-time greats, and arguably the game's greatest all-time offensive player. He is a charter member of the Pro (1963) and College (1951) Football Halls of Fame. Grange's most memorable performance came Oct. 18, 1924 when he scored four touchdowns in the first 12 minutes vs. Michigan in the Memorial Stadium dedication game. Later in the same game he ran for a fifth touchdown and threw for a sixth. Nicknamed the "Wheaton Iceman" and "Galloping Ghost," he left Illinois to play pro football with the Chicago Bears under former Fighting Illini George Halas. He was named All-America each of his three seasons and won the 1924 Silver Football Award as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player, the first recipient of the award. He was named to The Sporting News All-Time Team, the Big Ten Diamond Anniversary Team, the Walter Camp All-Century Team and the UI All-Century Team.

"This man Red Grange of Illinois is three or four men and a horse rolled into one for football purposes. He is Jack Dempsey, Babe Ruth, Al Jolson, Paavo Nurmi and Man O' War."

— Damon Runyon, famed sportswriter

"They knew he was coming; they saw him start; he made no secret of his direction; he was in their midst, and he was gone!"

— excerpt from Chicago Tribune article after Illinois-Michigan game of 1924

*"A streak of fire, a breath of flame,
Eluding all who reach and clutch,
A gray Ghost thrown into the game
That rival hands may never touch;
A rubber bounding, blasting soul,

— Grantland Rice, famed sportswriter

"He ran with a rhythm I've never seen duplicated — the overall effect being one of orchestrated perfection. Generations to come will produce their great runners, but only Grange's name will be immortal. They can argue all they want about the greatest football player who ever lived. I was satisfied I had him when I had Red Grange. I will never have another Red Grange, but neither will anyone else."

— Bob Zuppke, former UI coach

"I played football the only way I know how. If you have the football and 11 guys are after you, if you're smart, you'll run. It was no big deal."

— Red Grange

ATHLETES BEHIND THE TRADITIONS

UI COLLEGE HALL OF FAME MEMBERS

ALEX AGASE

(INDUCTED IN 1963)

An All-America guard at Illinois in 1942 and '46, he holds the rare distinction of earning All-America honors at another school (Purdue) in 1943 while in the Army. He also was selected to Walter Camp Foundation's All-Century Team in 1989. Agase enjoyed a lengthy Big Ten coaching career, first as a head coach at Northwestern from 1964-1972 and Purdue from 1973-1976. He was also a volunteer assistant coach at Michigan in charge of special teams from 1982-1987. Agase also served as athletic director at Eastern Michigan University from 1977-1982. He is now retired and living in Ypsilanti, Mich.

BOB BLACKMAN

(INDUCTED IN 1987)

Blackman served as Illinois' head football coach from 1971-76 compiling a 29-36-1 record. During his six seasons at Illinois, Blackman coached future NFL stars Scott Studwell, Larry McCarren and Revie Sorey, as well as All-Americans Tab Bennett and Dan Beaver.

Before heading the Illinois program, Blackman enjoyed great success at Dartmouth College, where he compiled a 104-37-3 record in 16 seasons. In 15 years of official Ivy League competition, Blackman's Dartmouth Indians were 79-24-2, won four league championships outright, shared three other championships, had three perfect 9-0 seasons (1962, 1965, 1970) and won two Lambert Trophies, symbolic of supremacy in Eastern college football. Blackman is now retired and living in Hilton Head, S.C. He recently retired as chairman of the selection committee for the annual East/West Shrine Game.

AL BROSKY

(INDUCTED IN 1998)

Brosky piled up staggering numbers that still stand in the NCAA record book. He holds the NCAA record for career interceptions with 29, consecutive games with an interception (15) and most interceptions per game (1.07) in his career. His remarkable interception streak spanned parts of three seasons from 1950-52, also including a theft in a 16th game, the 1952 Rose Bowl. His records have stood up through 45 years and the revolution in the passing game in college football. Brosky intercepted 30 passes in just 28 games, including the 1952 Rose Bowl, in his three-year UI career and was also an outstanding punt returner. Brosky, who played at Illinois from 1950-52, led the Fighting Illini to a three-year mark of 20-7-1, including the 1951 Big Ten title, an undefeated 9-0-1 record and a 40-7 victory over Stanford in the 1952 Rose Bowl. The Illini, under Coach Ray Eliot, were ranked third in the final UPI poll in 1951, the highest finish for a UI squad since the 1927 national championship. Illinois also posted a 7-2 (#11) mark in 1950. Brosky served as team captain in 1952. He was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in the 1952 NFL Draft and played one season with the Chicago Cardinals in 1954. Brosky resides in Naperville.

DICK BUTKUS

(INDUCTED IN 1983)

Butkus remains the standard for which all linebackers are compared. He played two All-America seasons at Illinois (1963-64) before enjoying a Hall of Fame career with the Chicago Bears, where he was a six-time All-Pro selection. In 1964 he finished third in the Heisman Trophy balloting to Notre Dame's John Huarte. College football's annual award for the outstanding collegiate linebacker is appropriately named after Butkus and is awarded each year by the Downtown Athletic Club of Orlando, Fla. Butkus and Red Grange are the only players to have their numbers retired at Illinois. Butkus' No. 50 was retired during halftime of the Illinois-Nebraska game, Sept. 20, 1986. He was also honored on the 1989 Walter Camp Foundation All-Century team and is a member of the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame. Butkus is now enjoying a successful acting and entertainment career and resides with his family in Malibu, Calif.

CHUCK CARNEY

(INDUCTED IN 1966)

Tall, slender and sure-handed, Carney was an All-America receiver at Illinois in 1920. One of Head Coach Bob Zuppke's favorite targets, the coach once instructed one of his quarterbacks to "bombard passes in Carney's direction." After leaving Illinois, Carney served as the end coach at Northwestern, Wisconsin and Harvard. He is also the only Illinois athlete to earn All-America honors in both football (1920) and basketball (1920 & 22). Carney died in 1984.

Al Brosky (1998) became the 15th Illini to be inducted into the Hall of Fame last December.

ATHLETES BEHIND THE TRADITIONS

UI COLLEGE HALL OF FAME MEMBERS

(INDUCTED IN 1980)

Caroline led the nation in rushing as a sophomore in 1953 with 1,256 yards in just nine games and was named an All-American. He was called "the best all-around athlete I ever had in 26 years of coaching," by his head coach Ray Eliot. He led the Fighting Illini in rushing again in 1954 before entering the Canadian Football League, and later spent 10 seasons in the NFL with the Chicago Bears. J. C. lives in Champaign, Ill., and serves as a physical education instructor at the Urbana Middle School.

PETE ELLIOTT

(INDUCTED IN 1993)

After a distinguished collegiate playing career at the University of Michigan, Elliott went on to have a long collegiate coaching career and helped lead Illinois to the 1963 Big Ten title and a 1964 Rose Bowl victory. A native of Bloomington, Ill., Elliott graduated from Michigan in 1949 after quarterbacking the Wolverines to undefeated seasons in 1947 and 1948, winning the 1948 Rose Bowl and earning a national championship in his senior season. After assistant coaching stints at Oregon State and Oklahoma, Elliott was the head coach at Nebraska and California, where he led the Bears to Pasadena in 1959. Elliott became the head coach of Illinois in 1960 and stayed for seven seasons, coaching the likes of Dick Butkus and Jim Grabowski. He compiled a record of 31-34-1 while at Illinois. Elliott went on to serve as athletic director and head coach at the University of Miami and assistant coach of the NFL's St. Louis Cardinals. He also has been inducted into the University of Michigan Sports Hall of Fame, the State of Michigan Sports Hall of Fame, the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame and the State of Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame. Elliott currently serves as the executive director of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

JIM GRABOWSKI

By the time Jim Grabowski left Illinois, he was the all-time rusher in Big Ten history with 2,878 career yards. A bruising fullback, Grabowski was named an Associated Press All-American in 1964 and 1965. He was named the 1964 Rose Bowl MVP after leading Illinois to a 17-7 victory over Washington by rushing for 125 yards. Besides his All-America honor in 1965, Grabowski also was named the Back of the Year by the Washington Touchdown Club and the Co-Player of the Year by The Sporting News. He finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1965. After graduating with a finance degree in 1966, he was the first-round draft pick of the Green Bay Packers and played in the NFL for six years with the Packers and the Chicago Bears. An excellent student-athlete, Grabowski earned GTE Academic All-America honors in 1964 and 1965 and was inducted into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1993. In 1997, Grabowski was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame. A native of Chicago, Ill., Grabowski currently resides in Inverness, Ill., where he is vice president of Great Lakes Telecommunications. He is also beginning his 21st season as the color analyst on the Illini Sports Network.

"RED" GRANGE

(INDUCTED IN 1951)

As its first legitimate "star," Grange is credited with establishing the popularity of professional football. At 5-foot-10-inches and 170 pounds, Grange was a three-time consensus All-America halfback at Illinois from 1923-25.

After his final game at Illinois, Grange signed with the Chicago Bears, owned by Illinois alumnus George Halas. During an age when professional football rarely saw crowds of more than a few thousand, Grange attracted 36,000 spectators for his pro debut on Thanksgiving Day at Wrigley Field; 10 days later 73,000 watched him play at New York's Polo Grounds. In addition to his feats as a halfback, Grange is sixth on Illinois' all-time career interception list with 11; seventh in career punt return yardage; and possessed amazing average-yards-per-carry statistics in interceptions (22.5), pass receptions (18.1) and kickoff returns (30.2). He is also a charter member of both the college and pro football Halls of Fame. Grange's legendary No. 77 was retired after the completion of his final game at Illinois, Nov. 21, 1925. Grange is a member of the Camp Foundation's All-Century team. He died Jan. 28, 1991.

EDWARD K. HALL

(INDUCTED IN 1951)

Hall became the third coach in Illinois history, coaching from 1892-93. He compiled a 12-5-5 record. It is Hall's off-field contributions to the game of football that earned him his recognition. He is credited with proposing and writing the first football code for the proper conduct of its players. In an age when the game was often brutal and reckless, Hall's code was adopted and later appeared in the Official Football Guide. Hall is also known for putting the 1892 Illinois team through the most grueling schedule ever thrust upon a college football team. The Fighting Illini, with only 18 players, played six games in just eight days, in three states. Illinois went 4-2 on the trip and finished Hall's first season with a 9-3-2 record. No Illinois team has ever played more games in one season. At the time of his death in 1932, William Bingham, Harvard's athletic director, said, "If Walter Camp was the father of American Football, certainly E.K. Hall was the 'savior' of the game."

ATHLETES BEHIND THE TRADITIONS

BART MCCOMBER

(INDUCTED IN 1972)

Macomber joined All-American Harold Pogue in the backfield to lead Illinois and second-year Head Coach Bob Zuppke to their first national championship in 1914. That team shut out its first four opponents, before allowing just 22 total points during a perfect 7-0 season. Macomber had also played for Zuppke as a prep at Oak Park High School. The following year Macomber earned All-America honors as a halfback, and was captain of the 1916 team. He was a versatile athlete who could play every backfield position, and did a majority of the team's kicking. Macomber died in 1971.

BERNIE SHIVELY

(INDUCTED IN 1982)

Red Grange was led to many of his spectacular scores by an agile, athletic guard who was so quick and powerful for his size that he wrestled for the Big Ten heavyweight championship in 1926. He lost the bout, however, after wrestling George Fisher of Indiana to a draw during regulation and then losing the coin toss to decide the champion. Shively earned All-America honors as a guard in 1926. He joined the University of Kentucky's staff as an assistant football coach, before being named that school's athletic director in 1938, a post he held until his death in 1967.

GEORGE W. WOODRUFF

(INDUCTED IN 1963)

Woodruff coached the University of Pennsylvania in its greatest days of college football. He compiled a 124-15-2 record from 1892-1901 at Penn. His 1897 Pennsylvania team was a perfect 15-0 and was recognized as national champions. Woodruff coached one season at Illinois, compiling a record of 8-6 in 1903. He died in 1934.

"BUDDY" YOUNG

(INDUCTED IN 1968)

In a college career split by the armed services, the 5-foot-5-inch halfback earned All-America honors in 1944. Young scored 13 touchdowns in his All-America year, while rushing for 842 yards with an amazing 8.9 yards-per-carry average. He rushed for 103 yards in Illinois' 45-14 upset of unbeaten UCLA in the 1947 Rose Bowl and was selected as the game's MVP. A world-class sprinter, Young enjoyed a lengthy pro football career and served as an assistant commissioner in the NFL. He died in 1983. He was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1993.

ROBERT ZUPPKE

(INDUCTED IN 1951)

Hired by Athletic Director George Huff as head football coach in 1913, Zuppke held the position for 29 years, the longest tenure of any Illinois head coach. An innovator and trend-setter, Zuppke established many of the current traditions and styles of football today. He is credited with inventing several different formations, the flea-flicker, the huddle and spring practice. He also recruited and coached Red Grange, considered by many as the greatest player in football history. In all, Zuppke won four national titles (1914, 1919, 1923, 1927), seven conference championships, and compiled a record of 131-81-13. The playing field at Memorial Stadium is named after him and is identified by a large stone engraving under the scoreboard in the north end zone. Zuppke died in 1957.

Buddy Young led the Illini to an upset win over UCLA in the 1947 Rose Bowl.

ATHLETES BEHIND THE TRADITIONS

1999 HEADLINES

Green, Jackson and Zielinski Join Fighting Illini Football Staff

The 1999 Fighting Illini off-season was highlighted by the hiring of three coaches: Chris Green (defensive backs), Robert Jackson (receivers) and Jim Zielinski (strength and conditioning).

Former Fighting Illini cornerback Chris Green has returned to his alma mater as defensive backs coach at the University of Illinois. Green, 30, was a four-year starter at defensive back at Illinois from 1987-90, earning second-team All-Big Ten honors in 1989. Green finished second in the Big Ten with 11 passes broken up in 1989 and, despite missing the first seven games of his senior season with an injury, returned to help lead the Illini to a Big Ten Conference co-championship in 1990.

"Chris Green is a bright, young, up-and-coming coach," said Turner. "He has great enthusiasm and energy and is a guy that our players will relate to as a former Illini who was successful on the field and in the classroom. Our players will also relate to his experiences as a player in the National Football League."

Green, a native of Lawrenceburg, Ind., was drafted in the seventh round of the 1991 NFL draft by the Miami Dolphins. Green played four seasons with the Dolphins (1991-94) and one year with the Buffalo Bills (1995). In Miami, Green played defensive back for two seasons, moving into the starting lineup in 1992. Following a knee injury, Green moved to safety for his last two seasons with the Dolphins, helping Miami reach the AFC playoffs three times. In 1995, Green moved to Buffalo and helped the Bills win the playoffs. In five pro seasons, Green was a part of four playoff squads and played under legendary coaches Don Shula and Marv Levy.

After redshirting in 1986, Green moved into the starting lineup for Coach Mike Turner in 1987 at strong safety, making 55 tackles and picking off two passes. Under coach John Mackovic in 1988, Green moved into the starting lineup at cornerback, making up 65 tackles, including 47 solos with two interceptions, seven passes broken up and five touchdown saves. In 1989, Green earned second-team All-Big Ten honors with 47 tackles and 11 passes broken up and was part of a defensive back unit that led the Big Ten in pass defense and ranked second nationally.

"This process happened very quickly and worked out very well," said Green. "I've been keeping close track of Illinois football since I left in 1991. I'm excited about working with Coach Turner and the staff to help return Illinois football to where we had when I was playing here."

In 1990, Green returned from injury in dramatic fashion, stripping the ball from former high school teammate Chris Dyer on the goal line to preserve an Illini victory at Indiana. Two years before, Green had stripped Hoosier QB Dave Schnelk with less than 10 minutes to play, setting up another dramatic Illini victory over Indiana.

In 1997, Green coached defensive backs at Eastern Illinois and moved to Kent State in a similar role last fall.

Longtime Illinois prep coach Robert Jackson, who has spent the last two seasons as Director of Football Operations at Oregon State, has returned to his homestate as receivers coach at the University of Illinois. Jackson has served on the OSU coaching staff since 1990, as receivers coach from 1990-96, assistant head coach and receivers coach in 1996-97 and Director of Football Operations for the past two seasons.

"We're really excited to have Robert join our coaching staff," said Turner. "He has a great deal of experience and a wealth of knowledge at the high school and college level. He has a tremendous reputation as a recruiter and has an excellent background and rapport with Illinois coaches from his long career in this state. His experience coaching in the Chicago area will be a great asset in our recruiting efforts."

Jackson grew up in suburban Harvey and attended Thornton Township High School, playing several sports. Jackson was a four-year letterwinner at Northern Illinois in football and baseball, ranking among the nation's leading hitters as a junior and earning all-conference and all-NCAA tournament honors. He received his bachelor's degree in Education from Northern Illinois in 1974.

"Having grown up in and spent 40 years of my life in Illinois, this is a real pleasure for me to return to my homestate at the University of Illinois," said Jackson. "Illinois has always had great players and I always felt that this was a powerhouse program waiting to happen if we could keep the best Illinois players at home. Coach Turner and his staff have done a great job of getting after the high schools in the state of Illinois. I have always had a great deal of loyalty to Illinois, wanting my home state university to do well and I like the support from the athletic administration toward football."

A highly successful prep coach at Thornwood High School from 1974-85, Jackson served as head football and baseball coach before moving to Northern Illinois as receivers coach from 1985-90. During his career at NIU, Jackson helped the Huskies rank among the nation's leading offensive teams, post a 9-2 record in 1989 and recruited and coached former NCAA record-holder QB Stacey Robinson.

Jackson moved to Oregon State in 1990, recruiting prep All-American standout Tim Alexander. During his nine years at Oregon State, Jackson served as academic coordinator for the football program and helped deliver a program that led the nation in graduation rates among football programs in 1994 (94.6 percent) and produced 25 Academic All-Pac 10 selections in 1994-95.

During his last two seasons in Corvallis, Jackson monitored the $4.6 million football budget, coordinated all support areas related to OSU football, assisted in the certification process for incoming student-athletes, managed building administration and scheduled all football trips and weekends.

His two sons, Bobby and Marc, are members of the Illini football team. Bobby is a junior at Illinois and a two-year starting strong safety for the Illini, while Marc will begin his freshman season at safety.

Veteran strength coach Jim Zielinski, who has spent the last four seasons as Director of Strength and Conditioning at Oregon State, has returned to his home state as the head strength coach for the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of Illinois.

"Jim is the perfect fit we were looking for in a strength coach. He will be able to maintain the intensity of the program and take it to another level," Turner said. "He is not going to drastically change what we are already doing, but he has some great ideas to build on. He is very well-rounded and knowledgeable. He has extensive experience with nutrition and diet, and will become more involved in that aspect of the program. His personality, intensity and philosophy will be a great addition to this football team."

Zielinski, a native of Rockford, Ill., graduated from Northern Illinois in 1986 where he was a defensive tackle under Coach Bill Mallory. He helped lead his squad to a win in the California Bowl in 1983.

"I am very excited about the opportunity to come home and work with Big Ten football, especially Illinois, a team I followed growing up," Zielinski said. "The transition has been very smooth. My philosophies mesh extremely well with the program that has been established. The players are working very hard and are already heading in the right direction. I am very impressed with the player's work ethic and I feel we need to continue with that development."

A 10-year veteran of the business, Zielinski joins Turner's staff after stints at Oregon State University (1995-99), Northern Illinois University (1988-95) and Nebraska (1988). During his time at OSU, he was responsible for the program design, speed and strength development and all test and evaluation for the football program as well as the other 14 Division I sports.

From 1988-1995, Zielinski was the head strength and conditioning coordinator for the Huskies 16-sport program. Zielinski began his career as an assistant strength coach at the University of Nebraska in 1988.

Zielinski and his wife Teresa, who is also an Illinois-native, are the proud parents of three children: James Edward, Alexandra Marie and Zachary.

ILLINOIS ALL-AMERICA SELECTIONS

CONSENSUS SELECTIONS

In 1950, the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau (the NCAA's service bureau) compiled the first official comprehensive roster of all-time All-Americans.

The compilation of the All-America roster was supervised by a panel of analysts working in large part with the historical records contained in the files of the Dr. Baker Football Information Service.

The roster consists of only those players who were first-team selections on one or more of the All-America teams that were selected for the national audience and received nationwide circulation.

Not included in the NCAA's list are the thousands of players who received All-America mention on second or third teams, nor the numerous others who were selected by newspapers or agencies with circulations that were not primarily national and with viewpoints, therefore, that were not normally nationwide in scope.

Listed here are Illinois' consensus All-America selections (i.e. the players who were accorded a majority of votes at their positions by the selectors). A profile of each consensus All-America pick is also included in this section.

RALPH "SLOUIE" CHAPMAN GUARD, 1914

Chapman joined teammate Perry Graves as consensus All-America selections on Walter Camp's All-America squad. Chapman played guard on Head Coach Bob Zuppke's 1914 national championship squad. A quick, aggressive 180-pound standout, Chapman came to Illinois from Washington, D.C., and earned three letters in football, was wounded in World War I, entered the brokerage business in Chicago and served as vice president of the UI Foundation. He died in 1969 at age 77.

PERRY GRAVES END, 1914

A two-year letterman for Bob Zuppke at end, the 148-pound Graves helped lead the 1914 Illini to a perfect 7-0 record and a shared national championship with Army. The Rockford native was a two-sport star, also playing infield for George Huff's Big Ten champion baseball squad. Graves joined teammate Ralph "Slouie" Chapman as 1914 consensus All-America selections. Graves went on to serve as a Big Ten football official for 22 years and died in 1979 at age 89.

BART MACOMBER HALFBACK, 1915

Halfback Macomber teamed with backfield mates Harold Pogue and George "Potsy" Clark to help Illinois win a national title in 1914 as a sophomore before earning consensus All-America honors in 1915 and All-America honors as the captain of the 1916 Fighting Illini. The rugged Macomber played halfback for two seasons before switching to quarterback for his senior campaign. The Oak Park graduate played all three backfield positions and handled kicking duties. Macomber passed away in 1971 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

Depler earned All-America honors in 1918, 1919 and 1920 and was a consensus pick in 1918. A native of Lewistown, Depler anchored an offensive line that included All-America picks Burt Ingwersen, Albert Mohr and Clarence Applegran and helped lead Illinois to its second national championship in 1919. Depler went on to found the Brooklyn Dodgers professional football team and coached eight years at Columbia. He died in 1970 at age 71.

CHARLES CARNEY END, 1920

One of the greatest athletes in Illinois history, Carney is the only Illini athlete to earn All-America honors in football and basketball, including consensus All-America accolades as an end in 1920. Carney was a receiver for Coach Bob Zuppke from 1918 to 1921. On the hardwood, Carney set a Western Conference scoring record that stood for 22 years and earned All-America honors in 1920 and 1922. The Evanston native went on to coach football at Northwestern, Wisconsin and Harvard and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1966 after a long investment career on the New York Stock Exchange. Carney died in 1984 at age 84.

JIM McMILLEN GUARD, 1923

The rugged McMillen earned All-America honors in 1922 as a guard before earning consensus accolades opening holes for legendary Red Grange on the 1923 national championship squad. McMillen was a native of Grayslake and played left guard from 1921-23, serving as captain on the undefeated 8-0 1923 squad as a senior.

HAROLD E. "RED" GRANGE HALFBACK, 1923-25

The greatest running back in history, Grange revolutionized the game and became one of the greatest sport celebrities of the 20th century. A charter member of both the college and professional Halls of Fame, Grange was the initial winner of the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award and received the Toomey Trophy in 1924, the precursor of the Heisman Trophy, presented to college football's best player. Nicknamed the "Wheaton Iceman" as a tribute to his summer job and workout regimen in his hometown, Grange's famed "77" jersey was immediately retired after his last college game in 1925 and he took his worldwide popularity to the fledgling National Football League and George Halas' Chicago Bears, singlehandedly lending credibility and popularity to the pro game. Grange is a member of the Camp Foundation's All-Century team. He passed away January 28, 1991 at age 87.

BERNIE SHIVELY GUARD, 1926

A three-sport star at Illinois, Shively earned consensus All-America honors as a quick, agile guard in football following the 1926 season. The Paris, Ill., native won eight varsity letters at Illinois from 1924-26, battling to a draw in the 1926 Big Ten heavyweight wrestling championship and competing in the hammer throw in track and field. Shively joined the University of Kentucky staff as an assistant coach in 1927 and was promoted eventually to athletic director in 1938, a position he held for the next 30 years. Shively died in 1967 at age 64 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1982.

ALEX AGASE GUARD, 1946

Joining Dick Butkus and Red Grange on the Camp Foundation All-Century team selected in 1990, Agase was a three-time All-America selection at Illinois and Purdue, earning Chicago Tribune Silver Football Most Valuable Player honors following the 1946 season when he helped lead Coach Ray Elior's Big Ten champions to a 45-14 Rose Bowl victory over UCLA. Agase went on to a long professional playing career with Chicago, Cleveland, and Baltimore before serving as head coach at Northwestern and Purdue. The Evanston native was selected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1963 and is now retired and living in Ann Arbor, Mich.

JOHNNY KARRAS HALFBACK, 1951

"The Argo Express" came to Illinois in 1946 as a freshman, then spent 18 months in the Army. When he returned as a sophomore in 1949, Karras exploded on the scene with seven touchdowns, 826 yards rushing and a 6.5 yards per carry average. He led the Illini in rushing in 1950 and 1951 as Illinois went 16-3-1, winning the 1952 Rose Bowl over Stanford. Karras was a 1951 consensus All-America after gaining 716 yards and scoring a UI-record 13 touchdowns as Illinois went 9-0-1 to win the Big Ten title and earn a No. 3 final national ranking.

ILLINOIS ALL-AMERICA SELECTIONS

J.C. CAROLINE HALFBACK, 1953

As a sophomore in 1953, Caroline led the nation in rushing and shattered the Big Ten-record with 1,256 yards on just 194 carries, enjoying six 100-yard performances, including 205 yards against Minnesota and 192 against Ohio State. Caroline earned consensus All-America honors, leading Illinois to an undefeated 7-0-1 record, a No. 7 national ranking and Coach Ray Eliot's last Big Ten title. Caroline was seventh in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1953. After battling through injuries as a junior, the Columbia, S.C., native went on to the Canadian Football League and a 10-year all-pro career as a defensive back with the NFL's Chicago Bears. Caroline was an assistant coach under Jim Valek and Bob Blackman from 1967-76 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1980.

DICK BUTKUS LB/C, 1963-64

The greatest linebacker in history, Butkus is one of four Illinois players in history to earn consensus All-America honors in two seasons, receiving the awards in 1963 and 1964. Butkus played center on offense and linebacker on defense for Coach Pete Elliott, leading the Illini to the 1963 Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl victory over Washington. Butkus was named the 1963 Chicago Tribune Silver Football Most Valuable Player and finished third in the 1964 Heisman Trophy balloting. Butkus went on to a seven-year Hall of Fame career with the NFL's Chicago Bears. The Chicago native was named to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1983. His Illinois jersey, No. 50, was retired in 1986 and he was named to the Camp Foundation All-Century team in 1989. The nation's top collegiate linebacker receives the "Butkus Award." Butkus has gone on to a successful acting and entertainment career. His nephew, Luke, is a sophomore member of the 1998 Fighting Illini.

JIM GRABOWSKI FULLBACK, 1965

Grabowski finished his Illinois career as the all-time Big Ten rushing leader with 2,878 yards. A punishing runner, Grabowski was third in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1965 after finishing second in the nation with 1,258 yards. A two-time Academic All-America selection and the 1965 Big Ten Medal of Honor recipient, Grabowski went on to a six-year NFL career with the Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears, playing in two Super Bowls for Coach Vince Lombardi. Grabowski was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in May honoring his 125-yard MVP effort in Illinois' 17-7 victory over Washington in the 1964 Rose Bowl. Grabowski was inducted into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1993 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 1995. Grabowski runs his own telecommunications company in suburban Chicago and has been a color analyst for Illini football games for 20 years.

DAVID WILLIAMS WR, 1984-85

Williams was quarterback Jack Trudeau's favorite target for three seasons, catching a UI-record 262 passes for 3,392 yards and 24 touchdowns. A native of Los Angeles, Williams finished his career as the second-leading receiver in college football history and caught a record 101 passes in 1984. Williams helped the Illini to the 1983 Big Ten title, catching 69 passes for 958 yards. One of three Williams brothers to play receiver for Illinois, he went on to play with Tampa Bay and the Los Angeles Raiders in the National Football League and seven years in the Canadian Football League.

Dick Butkus was the 1963 Big Ten MVP and finished third in the 1964 Heisman Trophy balloting.

BILL BURRELL GUARD, 1959

Burrell finished fourth in balloting for the 1959 Heisman Trophy and was the nation's top defensive player, earning consensus All-America honors in Coach Ray Eliot's final season. The Chebanse native was a two-time All-America selection, a three-time first-team All-Big Ten selection and received the Chicago Tribune Silver Football Award as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player in 1959. One of the greatest defensive players in Illinois and Big Ten history, Burrell went on to a successful career in real estate in Rockford. He passed away earlier this year and is currently on the ballot for election to the College Football Hall of Fame.

ATHLETES BEHIND THE TRADITIONS

JOE GARDNER DT, 1989-90

two-time consensus All-America selection, Gardner was the anchor of a defensive unit that helped Illinois win 10 games in 1989 and earn a share of the Big Ten title in 1990. The Indianapolis native made 316 tackles in his four-year UI career and also recorded a then-record 57 tackles for loss. Gardner was named to the Illinois All-Century team in 1990 as an active player and has played with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons since being drafted.

DANA HOWARD LB, 1994

Howard set the Big Ten record for career tackles with 595 stops and earned consensus All-America honors as a senior in 1994. The East St. Louis native became the first UI football player to earn a major national award when he was named the 1994 Butkus Award recipient. A model of consistency, Howard made 147 tackles in 1991, 150 in 1992 and 1994 and 148 stops in 1993. He has played with several NFL teams and is currently a member of the Chicago Bears.

KEVIN HARDY LB, 1995

Hardy followed in former teammate Dana Howard's footsteps, earning the Butkus Award as the nation's top college linebacker in 1995. The Evansville, Ind., native made 105 tackles in 1995, joining Simeon Rice to form college football's top linebacker duo and cementing Illinois' reputation as "Linebacker U." Hardy made 326 tackles in his Illinois career, including 38 tackles for loss. He was chosen by Jacksonville as the No. 2 pick in the 1996 NFL draft.

Kevin Hardy won the 1995 Butkus Award, symbolic of the nation's top collegiate linebacker, 21 years after Dick Butkus wrapped up his legendary Illinois career.

ATHLETES BEHIND THE TRADITIONS

BUTKUS AWARD

Symbolic of the nation's top collegiate linebacker, the Butkus Award is named after former University of Illinois All-America linebacker Dick Butkus. It has been presented annually since 1985 to the nation's top collegiate linebacker by the Downtown Athletic Club of Chicago.

Considered the greatest linebacker in the history of football, Butkus was a two-time All-America selection in 1963 and 1964. He earned the Silver Football Award in 1963 as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player after leading the Illini to the Big Ten championship. Butkus moved on to a Hall of Fame career with the Chicago Bears, where he was a six-time All-Pro selection. Butkus finished third in the 1964 Heisman Trophy voting and had his number, 50, retired at Illinois in 1986 and his professional jersey, No. 51, retired in Chicago in 1994.

Butkus helped lead the Illini to a 1964 Rose Bowl victory over Washington and was a two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection as a linebacker and center. He finished his Illinois career with 373 tackles and was the 1964 National Player of the Year, as selected by the American Football Coaches Association.

Butkus was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1979, the College Football Hall of Fame in 1983 and the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1995.

In 1994 and 1995, the Butkus Award returned to its Orange and Blue roots with back-to-back Illini recipients in Dana Howard (1994) and Kevin Hardy (1995). Howard was the Big Ten's leading tackler and a three-time All-Big Ten selection. Hardy exploded onto the national scene as a senior, earning All-America honors in every major publication and All-Big Ten honors for the second consecutive season.

ATHLETES BEHIND THE TRADITIONS

ATHLETES OF THE YEAR

The University of Illinois Athlete of the Year was first given in 1940 to Bill Hapac, who played basketball and baseball. The award was given annually until it was discontinued in 1973. There were no awards given until 1982, when the Big Ten began a Conference Athlete of the Year, in which each school nominated a male and female athlete. Since 1982, the University of Illinois has recognized a Male Athlete of the Year and a Female Athlete of the Year.

In 1993, the awards were renamed the Dike Eddleman Athlete of the Year awards in honor of 11-time UI letterman and former Olympian.

The awards are announced in June and presented at the annual Varsity "I" banquet each year.

NCAA tennis All-American Oliver Freelove was named the 1998-99 University of Illinois Male Athlete of the Year. Volleyball All-American Cristy Chapman was named the Dike Eddleman Female Athlete of the Year.

Freelove became the only player in Illinois history to earn all-america honors in both singles and doubles during the 1999 NCAA Men's Tennis Championships. He advanced to the second round of 16 in singles and was seeded fourth in doubles with partner Cary Franklin. Freelove led the Illini to a third consecutive Big Ten Championship, finals in the ITA National Indoor Championships for the second straight year and the first ever Elite Eight appearance for the Illini in the NCAA Championships. He became the winningest doubles player in school history and ended his career as the only Illinois player to crack the century mark in both singles and doubles.

Chapman, an honorable mention All-American by ASICS/Volleyball Magazine, led her Illinois squad to the Sweet 16 for the first time since 1995. She aided the squad in a No. 14 final national ranking with the toughest schedule in the nation. Chapman was one of only 26 players in the nation to earn all-america honors. She was first-team All-Big Ten selection as well as being named to all-tournament teams at the Illini Classic and the Bank of Fayetteville/Arkansas Invitational. The senior started every match at middle blocker for the Illini and ended her career ranked fifth in school history in hitting percentage.

Since the award was first given in 1940, football players have earned the Athlete of the Year award 23 times, including Buddy Young, Dike Eddleman, Dick Butkus and Tony Eason.

ILLINOIS NCAA POSTGRADUATE

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Twelve Illinois athletes, including five football players, have won NCAA postgraduate scholarships. Postgraduate scholarship winners must carry a minimum 3.4 (4.0) grade point average and are also evaluated on the basis of athletic achievement, extracurricular activities and community and civic involvement.

Robert Scott Bucklin (Football), 1972
Lynn Devers (Gymnastics), 1991
Kerry Dickson (Men's Track), 1984
Michael Durkin (Men's Track and Cross Country), 1975
Mike Hopkins (Football), 1991

Curtis Lovelace (Football), 1990
Laurence McCarren Jr. (Football), 1973
Mary Ellen Murphy (Golf), 1983
Jon Schmidt (Men's Track and Cross Country), 1983
David Stoldt (Men's Gymnastics), 1980
John Wright Jr. (Football), 1992

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA HALL OF FAME

Jim Grabowski was among four former college student-athletes inducted into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame April 22, 1993. The other inductees were football's Raymond Berry and Dave Casper, and basketball's Kermit Washington.

To be eligible for the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame, an athlete must have been a GTE Academic All-America team member with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.0 (4.0 scale). In addition, his/her class must have been graduated for at least 10 years. Academic All-America Hall of Fame members must have attained high achievements in their chosen professions and have made substantial contributions to their communities.

Grabowski was a two-time consensus All-American who, as a sophomore, was the MVP of the 1964 Rose Bowl. He placed third in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy as a senior in 1965. He graduated as a finance major.

The Big Ten's career rushing leader at the time of his graduation, Grabowski was a first-round draft choice of the NFL-champion Green Bay Packers and played six years of professional football with the Packers and Chicago Bears.

Grabowski has been involved with many charitable organizations and is an officer of the Red Cloud Athletic Fund, which raises money for Sioux Indians.

The color analyst for Illini football radio broadcasts, Grabowski is Chief Operating Officer of Great Lakes Telecommunication Corp.

CAA SILVER ANNIVERSARY AWARD

The award is given annually to six distinguished former student-athletes on the silver anniversary (25th) as college graduates. In 1990, Illinois great Butkus '65 was presented the award along with a group that included Donald Baxter (basketball, Mercer University), Paul Bucha (swimming, Military Academy), Dr. Archie Roberts (baseball, Columbia University), Roger Staubach (football, U.S. Naval Academy). Following his career at Illinois, Butkus earned Pro Football Hall of Fame honors with the Chicago Bears, and also has distinguished himself as a sports commentator and actor.

NCAA AWARD OF VALOR

Awarded only five times since 1974, the Award of Valor is presented to a coach, administrator, or current or former varsity letterwinner who, when confronted with a situation involving personal danger, averted or minimized potential disaster by courageous action or noteworthy bravery. In 1982, former Fighting Illini football player Timothy J. McCarthy '71 was presented the award for his actions in an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan March 30, 1981. McCarthy served as a secret service agent and was wounded in the line of duty. In that same incident, another UI graduate, presidential press secretary James Brady, was also wounded.

ATHLETES BEHIND THE TRADITIONS

BIG TEN MEDAL OF HONOR

In 1914, the Big Ten Conference endowed a Medal of Honor, to be awarded annually at each institution to the student demonstrating proficiency in scholarship and academics. Beginning in 1982, a woman athlete from each institution has also been awarded the Conference Medal of Honor.

Bobby True set the NCAA, Big Ten and Illinois school record in the indoor 600 meter run with a 1:17.35 at the 1999 Big Ten Championships. True won the Big Ten title in the 600 meters and ran a leg on the champion 4x400-meter relay squad. He was named the Big Ten Indoor Athlete of the Year. True won four Big Ten titles in his career, was a five-time NCAA All-American selection and a three-time Academic All-Big Ten pick.

A two-time Intercollegiate Tennis Association Scholar-Athlete, Stacy Schapiro also ranks among the top five in all-time singles victories at Illinois. Schapiro played No. 1 or No. 2 singles throughout her Illinois career and won 20 or more matches twice. She was also a three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection.

In the 85-year history of the award, 14 Fighting Illini football players have earned the award, including punter Forry Wells in 1994. There has been one father-son UI Medal of Honor duo, Lee Sentman (track) in 1931 and his son, Lee Sentman III (fencing) in 1958. Gymnast Howard Beck (1974 and 1975) is the only two-time recipient of the award.
